The Insolence of the Standard.

In another column, in connection with the proceedings in the House, on yesterday, we insert the articles of yesterday's Standard, which gaverise to the discussion. That paper it will be seen is quite abusive of the Legislature, because it dared to institute an investigation into the off repeated charge, made by the Standard and others, that the Union men of this State were persecuted.

Our friends have often insisted that we sho never potice in our columns either the Standard or its editor. This advice has been given us upon the nuprosition that both were without influence. It is yalpable that this is a mistake. lats? Who is responsible for the false and wicked impression made upon Congress and the Northern people, in regard to the people and officials of North Carolina? Is not the Standard the nource where all the thavers emanate! More than this, these slanare credited by many who ought to know the charge made by Mr. Blythe, of Henderson, in the House, that the Union men were persecuted, had been made repeatedly by the Standard. We had denied it over and over again, and had challenged and defied that paper repeatedly, to give the public one scintills of avidence in proof of his charges. That paper has falled, to this hour, to give any proof, but continued to reiterate its charges. We piedged ourselves to aid in every way to bring to justice any man, who could be shown to be guilty of this charge.

Mr. Blythe repeated this charge in the House of Commons, and Mr. Waigh, of Burry, very properly proposed, in good faith, to have the charge investigated by one of the most judicious committees in the House—the Judiciary committee, with the view of bringing the guilty to instice. The committee undertook the work in good faith. They called upon Mr. Blythe and others who had given "aid and comfort" to the Standard's charges, and so far as the investigation has gone, we learn that not a particle of evidence has been produced in support of the charges. Evidence it is true has appeared, which clearly convicts these "agitators" of being the "persecutors," and hence the fluttering and underse of the Standard. Now as W. W. Hol-

We are willing that all our people shall be judged by the strictest rules of truth and justice. We would cover up no fault or wickedness of any one. Gras. Cotavon's Luoyeux. Those of our citi sens, who failed to hear Gen. Colston's Lucture nons, who failed to hear Gen. Colsten's Lecture, on Monday evening, at the Capitel, missed a rare luxury. The subject—"Personal reminiscences of Stonowall Jackson," and a critical analysis of his military character—was most attractive in itself; and the Lecture's relations, personal and military, to the great Chieftain, and his own prestige as a gallant soldier, combied him to handle it ably and successfully.—Though the Lecture occupied more than two hours in the delivery, the interest of the audience was enchained to the last moment—varied only by frequent demonstrations of applicate.

Scuate-Last Night's Session.

The season last night was an important one. We had no reporter present, but have learned that the Senate passed the bill to aid in the completion of the Wilmington, Charlotte and completion of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad, also the bill to extend the Payetteville (Coalfields) Western R. R. to the M. C. R. R. on their second reading, and the bill donating the Land Scrip given the State by Congress, to the University, on its third read-ing. The latter, it will be seen, met with strong opposition in the House to-day.

Servation Count.—Judge Fowle is holding a special term of the Superior Court of Wake the present week, in this city.
