THE SENTINEL.

Saturday Evening, Feb. 16, 1867.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

REMINGTON'S FIRE ARMS.—We refer our readers to the Card of Messrs. Remington & Sons, manufacturers of No. 1 fire arms, pistols, &c.

Messrs. O. G. Parsley & Co., Wilmington, offer, to arrive, fresh from Cardenes, an excellent article of molasses. Buyers would do well to send in their orders at once.

Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern, have on hand a superior lot of Housekeepers materials, table cutlery, &c.

Mr. Towles' auctions begin on Monday next.

FACTORY SITE AND WATER POWER.—The property offered for sale on Haw River, by T. J. Mitchell, Esq., of Newbern, now consisting of a large brick flouring mill with all necessary machinery, 40 acres of good land, water power sufficient for the purposes of a large cotton factory, and a most eligible position, being immediately on the N. C. Rail Road, presents the strongest inducements for the investment of capital. A company, it strikes us, might be formed with an amount of capital to make it one of the most available pieces of property in the land. This property has been advertised in the Sentinel and will be sold at public auction, on the 5th of March next.

J. N.—The papers have recently announced that "J. N." is dead. "J. N." denies the affirmation in a letter to the Staunton, Va. papers.

AN ERROR.—An error occurred on yesterday, in the name of the General Agent of the Non explosive Oil, in the advertisement and notice. A dealer in the article informs us that his name is H. D. Norrell, instead of Orrell, No. 120, Maiden Lane, New York.

Mr. Stevens' Bill.

The following is a copy of the bill reported from the Joint Committee on Reconstruction by Mr. Stevens, as it passed the House of Representatives on Wednesday:

A bill to provide for the more efficient government of the insurrectionary States

Whereas, the pretended State governments of the late so-called Confederate States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas and Arkansas were set up without the authority of Congress and without the sanction of the people; and whereas, said pretended governments afford no adequate protection for life or property, but countenance and encourage lawlessness and crime; and whereas, it is necessary that peace and good order should be enforced in said so-called States until loyal and republican State governments can be legally established: therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That said late so-called Confederate States shall be divided into military districts and made subject to the military authority of the United States as hereinafter prescribed, and for that purpose Virginia shall constitute the first district; North Carolina and South Carolina the second district; Georgia, Alabama and Florida the third district; Mississippi and Arkansas the fourth district, and Louisiana and Texas the fifth district.

Section 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the General of the army to assign to the command of each of said districts an officer of the army, not below the rank of Brigadier General, and to detail a sufficient military force to enable such officer to perform his duties and enforce his authority within the district to which he is assigned.

Section 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each officer assigned as aforesaid, to protect all persons in their rights of person and property, to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to punish, or cause to be punished, all disturbers of the public peace and criminals, and to this end he may allow local civil tribunals to take jurisdiction of and to try offenders, or, when in his judgment it may be necessary for the trial of offenders, he shall have power to organize military commissions or tribunals for that purpose, anything in the Constitution and laws of any of the so called Confederate States to the contrary notwithstanding; and all legislative or judicial proceedings or processes to prevent or control the proceedings of said military tribunals, and all interference by said pretended State governments with the exercise of military authority under this act, shall be void and of no effect.

Section 4. And be it further enacted, That courts and judicial officers of the United States shall not issue writs of habeas corpus in behalf of persons in military custody, except in cases in which the person is held to answer only for a crime or crimes exclusively within the jurisdiction of the courts of the United States within said military districts, and indictable therein, or unless some commissioned officer on duty in the district wherein the person is detained shall endorse upon said petition a statement, certifying upon honor that he has knowledge or information as to the cause and circumstances of the alleged detention, and that he believes the same to be wrongful; and further, that he believes that the endorsed petition is preferred in good faith and in furtherance of justice, and not to injure or delay the punishment of crime. All persons put under military arrest by virtue of this act shall be tried without unnecessary delay, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted.

Section 5. And be it further enacted, That no sentence of any military commission or tribunal hereby authorized, affecting the life and liberty of any person, shall be executed until it is approved by the officer in command of the district, and the laws and regulations for the government of the army shall not be affected by this act, except in so far as they conflict with its provisions.

Congress---Stevens' Bill in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.

In the Senate, the Judiciary Committee reported a bill regarding appeals. It removes limitation in cases arising in the rebellious States, and extends the time a year from the passage of the act.

A bill was introduced providing for the removal to the District Court any case of over $500 when one of the parties live in the unrepresented States.

Mr. Williams moved to take up Stevens' bill.

Mr. Sumner hoped that the Louisiana bill would take precedence.

Mr. Wade favored both, and was indifferent which came first.

Stevens' bill was read.

Mr. Williams withdrew his amendment, fearing that it would endanger the bill. He hoped it would reach a vote to morrow night.

Mr. Johnson offered Williams' amendment, which is known as Blaine's amendment.

Mr. Stewart regretted Williams' change of mind. He would not vote for it unless amended. Did not care if he stood alone. He would not vote for any bill leaving no escape for the people of the South.

Mr. Wilson moved to amend Blaine's amendment by giving equal rights in professions, schools, &c., to all classes. He favored the bill as it came from the House but it amended, he desired this addition. He regarded the battle for impartial suffrage as fought and won.

Mr. Howard objected because the amendment acknowledged the validity of the State governments.

Mr. Williams moved a recess until 7 o'clock, when he expected the Senate to sit till the bill was passed.

In the House, the bounty bill was resumed. Its provisions exclude prisoners who joined the Federal army. In the course of the debate the West was arrayed against New England and considerable bitterness was exhibited. An amendment provoking the discussion, was defeated 74 to 85, the bill then passed.

The estimates of money required to pay the bounties range from two hundred and fifty to six hundred millions.

Afternoon Dispatches.

Stevens Bill in the Senate----Republican Caucus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.

In the Senate last night, the proceedings were scattering on Blaine's amendment. Several amendments were offered. The point on which the Republicans split is the Confederate vote. All favor the black vote. But some seem to abhor the idea of disfranchising the whites and placing the States at the mercy of the blacks. Others are determined to disfranchise the Confederates as a punishment, while a number fear their influence and votes as dangerous to the country.

Several motions to adjourn were negatived. A proposition to vote at 12 to-night was rejected, and the Senate finally adjourned without coming to a vote or understanding.

In the course of the debate, Mr. Doolittle said the South would not accept universal suffrage, and would prefer military rule.

Mr. Wilson responded, make them accept it.

The Republican Senators held a caucus this morning, in which Mr. Wilson introduced a bill declaring the amendment ratified and a part of the Constitution.

Is Virginia a State?

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.

In the Supreme Court, at Chambers, on yesterday, the case of George Almy, Captain of the Steamer Washington Irving, came up. Application for his discharge on a writ of habeas corpus.

The petitioner's counsel contended that the requisition of Gov. Pierpont was invalid, on the ground that there was no such State as Virginia in the Union, recognized by the Federal government or the Senate as such. That Governor Pierpont had been appointed Governor by the President. He had no right to ask such appointment. That the Governor of New York has no authority to expatriate a citizen of New York, on the requisition of Gov. Pierpont, and that we have no treaty with Virginia to that purpose. He signified his intention of traversing the return to the writ, and having the case set down for this morning at 10 o'clock.

Almy was arrested on a requisition of Gov. Pierpont, charged with running off a vessel which was under attachment for debt. The proceedings in this case are looked for with intense interest, as bringing vital questions fairly before the Supreme Court.

Fenians.

LONDON, Feb. 14.

The government denies the wide spread stories of the landing of Fenians by the shipload.

The telegraph wires near Valentia have been destroyed for a long distance, and several coast guard policemen have been killed.

LONDON, Feb. 15.

Eight hundred Fenians, commanded by Col. O'Connor, have retreated to Hill's neighborhood in Killarney. An ex Captain of United States volunteers was arrested in Killarney as a Fenian leader. A number of marines at Portsmouth have received orders to depart for the insurrectionary district.

If they will sell them at the above prices they are cheap, if they will not, leave immediately.

A FEW WORDS TO MY FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS.

I advertised in the early part of the season that I would sell goods as cheap, as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, Cost Houses not excepted—as cheap as he who had paid for his goods, or ever intended to pay for them. And I here take the privilege to say, that I think my customers will bear me out when I say, I have done so in almost every instance.

I told the people to "come to Creech's," to buy their goods—they have come, and they are still coming—and I think they will pardon me when I say they have shown their good judgment.

I now tell them to "come to Creech's" to buy their goods.

I don't advertise my goods at New York Cost. I intend to reprice it my goods to you in a fair and equitable way, and sell them fully as cheap as any so-called Cost House. And I here say to the so-called cost gentlemen, if they paid what they charge their customers for goods, I advise them to go back to the License man and surrender their license. Go back to your Lord lords and ask them to take back your houses, and proclaim to the world that you have misrepresented, and are not fit for merchants. I compromised my debts this I owed North before the war, by paying the amount one hundred cents in the dollar.

Let them start their opposition, let them all talk. But "come to Creech's," to but your goods. You will find me at E. Smith's corner, ready and willing at all times to serve you right.

ESTABLISED IN 1856.

THE SPRING SESSION WILL BEGIN ON MONDAY the 18th Feb. 1867, and continue twenty weeks. We can accommodate a few more boarders. Application should be made immediately to secure admission.

This Institution is not sectarian; the creeds of all denominations are duly respected. Pupils are expected to attend the Church of which their parents are members.
