THE SENTINEL.

SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 27, 1867.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

To Advertisers.—The public will find the Sentinel one of the best mediums of advertising in the State. Its circulation covers a larger area, perhaps, than any other paper.

New Advertisements.—Jenkins & Perry make several attractive announcements. Read our friend Perry on his Smoking tobacco, particularly.

Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern, again call attention to their enterprising efforts to serve the public.

Mayor's Court.—J. Seton and W. J. Jones, colored, charged with a misdemeanor and fined $5 each.

William Scott, colored, for beating his wife Cynthia Scott, bound in a bond of $100 to appear at the next County Court for Wake, and be of good behavior and keep the peace in the mean time.

The Memorial Cemetery.—There are now buried in the Memorial Cemetery, 312 North Carolinians, 46 South Carolinians, 44 Georgians, 8 Alabamians, 8 Mississippians, 4 Virginians, 2 Floridians, 2 Tennesseans, 1 Texan, 1 Louisianian, 1 Arkansian, 3 Confederate States Navy men, and 106 unknown dead. Total 538.

There are three or four others buried at different points in the County. Will not some person in their neighborhoods bring them in?

We are requested to offer a suggestion. The Cemetery is nearly completed; what is needed most, now, to enhance its appearance, is turfing. The Society is not able to bear the expense of doing it. It is too late in the season to sow grass seed. Will not each lady, who feels an interest in the work, spend part of one day in turfing two graves?

House Rents.—The following sensible and timely observations from the Petersburg Index are as applicable to this community as that to which they are addressed:

"We have heard complaints made that, while the rent demanded for the better class of houses has been very materially reduced, no such reduction has been made from the rates charged for dwellings of more humble pretensions; and we are sorry to say that these complaints are well founded. Persons of moderate or small resources are compelled to pay for decent accommodations far more in proportion than their more fortunate neighbor. Houses, worth in the market from five to fifteen thousand dollars, are let at prices ranging from five to twelve hundred dollars, while those which could not be sold for more than one-fifth of those amounts cannot be had for less than an hundred and fifty to four hundred dollars. In fact, in some instances, the rental demanded is equal to one-fourth or one-fifth of the value of the property. It is not our purpose to specify the particular prices of property to which we refer, because we do not intend to make any personal allusions, and desire what we say to have a general bearing.

This should not be the case. The poor man and the man of limited means are entitled to as much consideration as the man who has a large share of this world's goods, and if there is to be difference, it should be in their favor. Many of them are compelled to pay from a fourth to a third of their income for shelter for their families, and the accommodations obtained even at this extravagant outlay are of the very poorest description. This is a matter which ought to appeal in the strongest manner to the consideration of the landlord, and we think that there are very few of this class in our community who will not lend a favorable ear to these very reasonable complaints when they are brought immediately to their notice.

We are all suffering from the stringency of the times and the depressed condition of business, and none more so than the clerks, the mechanics and the laboring men. These especially are very much straitened, and find great difficulty in their efforts to support their families, and it is not asking too much for them to suggest that the rents demanded for the class of houses which they occupy should be reduced in like proportion with those of a better character."

The Hollywood Bazaar.—The Richmond papers announce the following contributions to the North Carolina table on the second day of the Bazaar:

"Fresh flowers from the gallant General Hoke, of N. C., the hero of Plymouth.

Mrs. Jefferson Wallace and family contribute to this table a box of beautiful fancy articles of every description.

To Dayton, Allen & Co., of Richmond, the ladies of this table are indebted for five valuable brass bound and buckets.

One pair of emu mats, brought from Australia, and presented by Mrs. Wm Cameron, of Petersburg, and the skin of the emu, tanned, for sale.

A photographic picture of Mosby, and also one of Mosby and his men, presented by Mr. Davis.

Thomas H. Wynne has presented a handsome statuette, representing the drawing of rations by a Confederate lady from a Federal officer—to be raffled for as soon as the chances are taken."

General News.

The daughter of Mr. Edward White, on Harding street, whose remarkable illness was mentioned in the Express two or three days since, spoke and received nourishment yesterday for the first time in the last twenty-one days. We learn from the esteemed minister, who has been in constant attendance upon her, that she expressed herself as having been perfectly sensible of all that passed around her during her illness. She mentioned several scenes and events that occurred at her bedside, which, at the time, were of painful interest to her, though she was unable in any way to express, or even intimate, her cognizance of them. This is one of the most remarkable cases that has ever occurred in this community.—Petersburg Express, 26th.

Governor Orr said in his recent speech before the Charleston Board of Trade: "When the emissary comes here from the State of New York, Massachusetts, or Ohio, and says to the black man, 'we are your friends; we are going to take care of you: vote with us; these white people cannot be trusted;' I want our colored men to say to these emissaries, to the Massachusetts men, that in South Carolina, under this law, it matters not by whom it was passed, every colored man, twenty-one years of age, is entitled to his ballot, and that he would not be allowed to vote in Massachusetts, unless he could read and write. Say to the emissary of Ohio, who comes here for the purpose of giving advice as to how you shall vote, go back to Ohio, and enlighten the heathen there, before you come here, because no black man there is entitled to vote. Within the last three weeks, New Jersey, Ohio and Michigan have resolved that the black man shall not vote under any circumstances whatever."

Verily, "loyalty" is it own reward. A certain Jaquess, or Jackass, was one of the late President Lincoln's "Peace Commissioners," and went to Richmond, where he did most vilely bore Jefferson Davis. Returning, he printed several score of lies, and then committed a brutal assault upon a white woman in Kentucky; for this "loyal" eccentricity he was sent to prison. And now comes J. R. Gilmore, otherwise "Edmund Kirke," the accomplice of Jaquess in the peace mission, and, if possible, a more persistent liar: he, "loyal" man, is on trial in Boston on a charge of bastardy. Lovely in their lives, in their striped suits and cropped hair they will not be divided.

Colonel C. C. Sibley, commanding the military sub district of Georgia, on the 19th inst. issued an order dividing the State into eight military posts, as follows: Savannah, comprising twenty seven counties; Augusta, ten counties: Atlanta, fifteen counties: Dahlonega, sixteen. Rome, twelve. Athens, fourteen. Columbus, sixteen, and Macon, twenty-two counties.

The hygienic system of the Oneida Communists is thus explained by one of their number: "When a brother or sister is unwell, we take him or her to task at a meeting of the community and catechise them so severely that they get into a sweat, which always has the effect of curing them."

The mind of the Princess Charlotte is said to be hopelessly darkened. Her physical health is good, but the animated expression of that unfortunate lady's face has gradually vanished, until there is but the blank stare of vacancy in place of that smile which so charmed the Mexican people.

In Professor Phelps' book, entitled "The Still Hour," occurs the following sentence: "The stillness of the hour is the stillness of a dead calm at sea." Imagine the reverend author's horror when he found, after several hundred copies had been printed, that "calm" was made by the types to read "clam."

Rev. Dr. Deems, of North Carolina, lectured Monday evening in the Seventeenth street Methodist church, New York. Subject: "A Plea for Money Makers." The attendance was fair and the lecture well received.

Some of the Southwest Virginia Redstrings are advocating annexation to West Virginia to escape negro votes. It would be a good idea to annex the whole State to West Virginia. We would thus get into the Union, and according to some of the legal doctors, get rid of the State debt at the same time. Rich. Enquirer.

Some deaf and dumb children in Jacksonville, Illinois, were asked the meaning of eternity. one wrote on his slate, "It is the lifetime of the Almighty," and another only made a circle. These are beautiful thoughts. God's lifetime is eternity, because it is without beginning or end.

A western man, speaking of the Pacific Railroad, says it is one of the "funniest coincidences in the world, that almost every alternate section of land, on either side of the road, belongs to some member of Congress."

Spring bonnets are smaller than those of last year. They are, however, much trimmed with flowers, ribbons, beads, &c. Narrow ribbons are used for strings. The flowers used for trimmings should invariably correspond with those on the ribbons used.

A man in Boston having "experienced" the sort of "religion" most in vogue there, smashed his marble copy of the Venus de Medicis, burnt his pictures and his large, but secular library, like a fine old Puritan gentleman, one of the real old kind.

J. N., through the columns of the Valley Virginian, indignantly denies that he has any idea of "going the rounds" with the "Old Cuss, Money Cuff." (Hunnicutt.)

"I have no people but the Southern people. I have no State but Virginia." These were the words of Claiborne Scott, an African freedman, in a public meeting at Salem, Va., on Saturday last.

The Boston Herald says: Perhaps one of the richest men in this section of the State has become hopelessly insane in his love of wealth, and whose chief amusement in his seclusion from the world is to count over imaginary money bags.

Mr. Wilson's statement that after the passage of the Shellabarger bill, the reports of murders of freedmen ceased, proves nothing except that the object of the previous lying being gained, the falsehoods were abandoned. The improvement was in the Radical reporters, not the Southern people.—Richmond Examiner.

Spurgeon had a congregation of twelve thousand at Islington, one Sunday, when only twelve persons were present at two other churches in the same place.

The vote in Baltimore on the question of running the street cars on Sunday as officially declared, is 10,977 in favor and 9,153 against it.

Mr. Buchanan, whose fortune is reckoned at $200,000, is the richest of our surviving ex-Presidents.

Mr. Judah P. Benjamin has been complimented from the bench in London for his learning in the law.

The Faber family have been making lead-pencils since 1570, and have made many fortunes out of it. Quisque Faber suæ fortunæ.

Saturday Morning Dispatches.

THE GEORGIA AND MISSISSIPPI INJUNCTION CASES IN THE SUPREME COURT.

WASHINGTON, April 26.

The Supreme Court bench was full, to-day. Many distinguished lawyers were present.

Attorney General Stanbery opened the argument, premising that he would treat the question in its legal aspect. The political question dividing the country is not to be discussed here, but, for a clear understanding of the subject, it is necessary to ascertain what the acts of Congress are, of which the States complain as working excessive injury and depriving them of constitutional rights. He explained the reconstruction laws, remarking that the States lately in rebellion have no republican governments, and that Congress had made provision to form such governments, capable of Congressional representation. Narrating the restraints demanded by the complaints, stopping Grant, Stanton and other high officers, he maintained that this was no case provided for by the Constitution to come before this Court. The controversy was not with these men, as citizens, but as high officials, and not within the jurisdiction of this Court, either with the reason or spirit of the Constitution.

He dwelt upon the damaging consequences of a veto by a judicial tribunal, selected for life and beyond the people's control. The injuries set forth in the complaint were only contingent and might never happen.

In conclusion, he argued that it was a political case, curable only by political remedies.

Mr. O'Connor followed, saying that the idea of the complaint was to show that what was ordered done by Congress was, in length and breadth, unconstitutional and void; therefore, the Court ought to order an injunction in general terms.

The Georgia of 1776 was to be wiped out and a new Georgia substituted. Georgia occupied the position of a body politic and corporate, and a Court of Equity could prevent or restrain any attempt to divert the purposes of its corporation or violation of its charter. He took issue with Mr. Stanbery's assertion, that the mischiefs complained of were contingent and might never happen. The parties named in the complaint had already taken steps in forcing the laws complained of as unconstitutional.

Further hearing was postponed to next Friday, when Mr. Walker will plead in behalf of Mississippi, and Mr. Stanbery will close.

Emigration to Brazil.—A New Orleans paper says: "The steamship Marmion, Capt. Wm. C Berry, sailed yesterday at ten o'clock with three hundred emigrants for Ballard S. Dunn's new settlement in Brazil. The majority of her passengers were farmers, with their families, from Texas, Alabama, Arkansas and Mississippi. There were also several from Louisiana. We noticed on board one family of eight children and their parents, bound to the promised land. All appeared in fine spirits and anxious to reach their new homes."

Madame E. F. Thornton, the great English Astrologist, Clairvoyant and Psychometrician, who has astonished the scientific classes of the civilized World has now located herself at Hudson, N. Y. Madame Thornton possesses such wonderful powers of second sight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. While in a state of trance, she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of extreme power, known as the Psychometrope, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can assert. She will send when desired a certified certificate, or written guarantee that the picture is what it purports to be. By enclosing a small lock of hair and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion, and enclosing fifty cents and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture and desired information by return mail. MISCELLANEOUS.

EQUITY SALE.

BY VIRTUE OF A DECRETAL ORDER OF the Court of Equity for Johnston County, I shall sell to the highest bidder, at public auction, at the late residence of Wm. H. Ivie, deceased, on the 11th day of May next, the lands belonging to the estate of the said Wm. H. Ivie, deceased, consisting of about about 18 miles from the city of Raleigh, and on the Raleigh and Wilmington Road.

This is evidently one of the most desirable farms in the county—land fertile, and highly adapted to both corn and cotton, and for health not surpassed by any residence in this part of the State.

TERMS.—Enough cash to pay the costs—Bonds well secured for the payment of the balance of the purchase money, six and twelve months after date, with interest from day of sale.

L. ELDRIDGE, C. & M. E. for Johnston County.

April 24-220-4ts

NICE BACON AND FAMILY FLOUR!

IN STORE, A LARGE LOT OF STRICTLY prime N. C. Bacon and Family Flour, to which the attention of Housekeepers is called.

FERTILIZERS FOR SPRING CROPS.

WE beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 325 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent Chemists in the country:

Results of Analyses Made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by Wm. L. Bradley.

100 PARTS CONSIST OF
Moisture	5.30
Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humus	38.50
Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron	36.80
(Soluble Phosphates of do. 16 6-10.)
Sulphate of Lime	16.50
Salts	20
Insoluble	2.60
	99.90

The animal matter afforded 4 2-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and as will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is oluble.

After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality full equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
