LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

SATURDAY, JUNE 1, 1867.

TO ADVERTISERS. The public will find the Sentinel one of the best mediums of advertising in the State. Its circulation covers a larger area, perhaps, than any other paper.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. We need not add anything to the article in our advertising columns, from the "Wall Street Review," setting forth the importance of life insurance and the claims of the Etna Company, of which W. H. Crow, Esq., of this city, is the General Agent for North Carolina. Read it.

Mitchell, Allen & Co., 22 Pollok St., New bern, continue to present the claims of their great Agricultural and Mechanical Warehouse.

R. B. Andrews & Co., Fayetteville Street, announce a splendid lot of clothing and gentlemen's furnishing goods, at lower rates than ever before. Visitors to the city will do well to give this house a call.

The same firm have on hand a small lot of superior shot-guns.

See the announcement of M. Grausman, Merchant Tailor. He has the most choice and elegant fabrics and makes them up in A No. 1 style.

We invite the attention of the seekers after health and pleasure to the announcement of the proprietors of the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs, Virginia. These springs have been put in thorough order, and hold out the same attractions which were so eagerly sought before the war.

Visitors to the Commencement at Thomasville Female College, and to Raleigh, on the occasion of the President's visit, will be transported over the North Carolina Railroad at half fare. The same announcement has heretofore been made with regard to Chapel Hill and Trinity.

RAILROAD MEETING. An adjourned meeting of the citizens of Guilford is called for the 27th of June, for the purpose of taking into consideration the charter granted for the extension of the Western North Carolina Railroad from Egypt, in Chatham County, to some point on the North Carolina Railroad, and further West.

EXCURSION. The teachers and children attached to the Presbyterian Sunday School went on a pleasure excursion down the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, on yesterday.

BAPTIST CONCERT. Having been prevented from attending, we were in hopes that some one would have furnished us an account of the Concert given by the children of the Baptist Sunday School, on Thursday night. We learn that the evening passed off pleasantly and creditably.

"FORESTERS" vs. "STONEWALLS." We have received a communication from a member of the Forest Base Ball club, objecting to the statement that its victory over the "Stonewalls," of this City, was owing to the fact that the "pitcher" of the latter was ruled out. The challenge, he says, was accepted on the ground that slow balls should be pitched; and he adds that their triumph would have been more complete, but for the reason that they have had but short experience, were ignorant of certain changes in the Regulations, and had some of their best players disabled at an early stage of the game.

By the way, we are sorry to see that these friendly competitions among our young folks eventuate, in almost every instance, in unfriendly results. Better discontinue them altogether than that such should be the case.

THE FIRST water-melon of the season made its appearance in Newbern on Wednesday last.

ONE MAJOR J. E. TATTEN, formerly of the Federal army, addressed the freedmen of Wilson a few days since. He made a violent Radical speech. This is the same man, who a few months back, proposed to the watchman of the Railroad Company, at Weldon, to go into "cahoot" and rob the company's ware-house!

A terrible affair occurred on Tuesday, in Madison, Indiana. Preston Christie and James McClelland, both old men, became involved in a lawsuit about a sale of corn. The parties met, and McClelland asked for a private settlement of the trouble. Christie made an evasive answer, when McClellan drew a revolver and shot the former through the breast, inflicting a wound which caused death next day. McClelland, on returning home after the fatal encounter, seemed so overcome with remorse that he shot himself through the breast with the same pistol. His wound also was mortal, and he died the following day.

General Sheridan has issued an order extending the time of registration in Louisiana to the 20th of June.

BROWNLOW'S PETS OFF FOR THE "FRONT."

A company of "Brownlow's Pets" as they styled themselves, about 64 strong, reached the city yesterday from Bradley County, E. T., where they were organized and equipped. They soon dispersed through the city, the majority going by instinct, as it were, to the Jungular regions. Their destination being Brownsville, transportation on the E. and Ky. road had been secured, but when the hour for the departure of the train arrived, the officers, who seemed to be uncommonly green, had considerable difficulty in getting them together. As they marched to the depot they yelled for Brownlow and conducted themselves in a very disorderly manner.

All but four or five were boys between 17 and 20 years of age, apparently of that lazy, shiftless class who hang around the groggeries of small country towns. We saw no signs of discipline whatever. Their step was uneven and shuffling, and the style of carrying their guns decidedly unmilitary.

We heard one desperate looking stripling declare that he wasn't afraid to die, and intended to steal, "right and left," from all who were not for Brownlow.

The citizens offered to bet one of the melish $20 that Etheridge would be elected. A drunken lieutenant swore that no man should bet for Eabridge, and ordered a guard to attest the traitors. Marshal Steele directed Gen. Jim. Brownlow's attention to the matter, who effectually squelched the upstart by "ordering" him and his guard back to the cars.

ETHERIDGE AND STOKES. A great mass meeting at Clarksville, Tennessee, was addressed on Thursday afternoon by Emerson Etheridge and W. B. Stokes. One third of the audience were negroes. Mr. Etheridge scarcastically skinned old Brownlow that the darkies applauded enthusiastically as the whites. If they vote for Brownlow, after hearing the extracts which Etheridge reads from the old wretch's frantic pro slavery utterances of by gone days, their action will indeed be matter of wonder. To Stoke appeal to them against rebel influence, Etheridge replied by showing that the Brownlow dynasty is composed mainly of renegade rebels a set of men who have shown themselves ready to run any cause and betray it to promote their selfish ends. Etheridge is fearing himself nobly in the canvass, and portrays with the thrilling touches of a master hand the mutual manners who have marked the world with their hideous attractions in Tennessee. Good people everywhere are praying for his success, and even the demons of discord and the most abandoned class of political wreckers desire old Brownlow to have charge of the ship to dash it upon the breakers. Louisville Courier.

THE FINANCIAL CRISIS IN RICHMOND WHEN IT ARRIVES. How Long He Stays. By telegraphic intelligence from Washington we learn that President Johnson will leave that city on Saturday morning next on one of the Aquia Creek steamers, and will arrive in Richmond at 11 P. M. in the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac railroad. Rooms have been prepared for his reception at the Spotswood Hotel, where he will remain during Sunday night, leaving the early morning train for Petersburg en route for Raleigh.

He will be met at the depot by the committee of reception of the City Council, the Mayor of the city, General Schofield and staff, and others. Among the day will be inappropriate for any formal popular demonstration, there will yet be a large turnout of our citizens. Prison festival just accommodated their coming was met. The President of Aquia Creek and accompany him to the city. Rich. Dispatch, 20th.

AID TO THE SOUTH. The State Relief Committee of Cincinnati has made up to this date shipments to North Carolina, 5,150 bushels corn, 75 barrels flour, 20,000 pounds bacon, $2,500 in cash. To South Carolina, 15,000 bushels corn, 40,000 pounds bacon, 75 barrels flour, 11,500 pounds rice, 15,000 lbs. hominy. To Virginia, 14,864 bushels corn, 9,850 pounds bacon. Arrangements have been made for which $10,000 will be immediately remitted to Cincinnati to New Orleans, for distribution in the flooded portions of Louisiana and Mississippi. The distribution is made by county committees, who are appointed by the Governors of the States. The plan is found to work so well, except that each county thinks its property is overlooked, in view of its necessities. Further shipments will be made as fast as the contributions can obtain the means. Ex. Com.

JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE INSTEAD HOME. A letter in this city has received a letter from Hon. Horace Greeley, written a few days since, as we are confidently assured, enclosing a letter to be sent to John C. Breckinridge, urging him to return to America and go to work, notwithstanding what the fools may say about him. We have this from a reliable source, and simply give it as a news item, without comment. Washington Republican.

Kansas is rapidly growing in population. Leavenworth is now a city of 30,000 inhabitants; Lawrence of 8,000 or 10,000. Topeka, the capital, 3,000. Manhattan is a thriving town, and Salina is the present termination of the Pacific railroad. The population of Kansas is estimated to be about 250,000.

DECIDEDLY COOL. It is stated that a Northern man, who got possession of a confiscated plantation in Florida, sought information from its old owner as to the proper means of cultivating it. This actually equals the case of the Chinaman who stole a gentleman's watch and brought it back to him the next day to learn how to wind it up.

There is much excitement in certain portions of Texas over recent discoveries of gold and copper on the Western frontiers. Not floating adventurers alone, but stable citizens, are leaving their farms and families and hurrying away to the new El Dorado.

Colored emigration is expected in Arkansas the present year. Nearly two hundred from Georgia will locate on Government land under the homestead law next Autumn.

The Florida correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial says that Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe has 300 acres of land near Jacksonville, which she plants with orange orchards. She has been offered twice its cost.

The Czar of Russia has received a tender from the United States government to sell the monitor Miantonomi, an iron clad frigate, and two first class war cutters, for his service, and was disposed to accept it.

Since the adjustment of the Luxemburg difficulty in London, the Eastern question has assumed more importance. It is said that an effort will be made to settle it by diplomatic negotiation.

MONTREAL, May 17.—Jeff. Davis, wife, children, and a dozen friends, attended St. George's church last night. Quite a rush was made, and a crowd collected at the door to see him.

A Yankee suggests that church spires should be painted by squirting up the coloring matter through a fire engine.

Yesterday's edition of the National Republican newspaper, of this city, was suppressed by order of the Commandant of the Post. A Guard was placed over the office, and its further publication prohibited until proof-sheets are submitted to the Commandant.

The article referred to was one instructing the freedmen when and how to use fire arms.

JUDICIAL DECISION.

NEW YORK, June 1.

Judge Bernard recently rendered a decision holding that the provisions of the State statute of 1862, which gives the State Courts power to issue writs against ships and vessels, are in opposition to the Constitution of the United States, and the acts of Congress which vest the jurisdiction and maritime causes exclusively in the United States Courts of Admiralty.

The decision overturns a long settled course of proceedings in the State Courts, by enforcing claims by seizing and subjecting vessels to sale, without the libelants first obtaining the action of the owners or agents.

MADAME L. L. THORNTON, the great English Astrologist, Clairvoyant and Psychometrician, who has astonished the scientific classes of the old World, has now located herself at Hudson, N. Y. Madame Thornton possesses such wonderful powers of second sight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. This is to certify that I have had a picture drawn by Madame Thornton, and I do think it to be a correct likeness of the person described. Signed, [illegible].
