VOTERS MUST REGISTER.

Agreeably to Gen. Sickles' order, the registration of voters will commence in this State on the 15th of July next. As yet the names of the Registrars are not known, neither are the people fully informed as to what persons are entitled to vote. Enough, however, ought to be known among the masses, to enable them to determine whether or not they are entitled to vote. But even among the intelligent men we find much doubt, where there is no room to doubt.

As a general principle, it may be settled that "Did I at any time previous to the rebellion ever hold an office under the United States, or under the State, and did I take an oath of office to support the Constitution of the United States? If so, I am not disfranchised, unless I afterwards voluntarily took part in the rebellion, or gave aid and comfort to the enemies of the United States; but if I did take part, I am disfranchised." All persons, residents of the State for twelve months, and at the time of registration twenty one years of age, are undoubtedly entitled to vote, unless before the war they held office and took the oath of office, &c. Persons who took part in the rebellion are not disfranchised unless they were office holders previous to the war. Thus far there can be no doubt. Officers held before the war are the only class of persons in the State who ought to doubt or hesitate. In regard to these, it is hoped that Gen. Sickles' order will, in a few days, satisfy all fully whether they are entitled to vote or not.

We consider that duty to ourselves, to our wives and children, to our neighbors and fellow citizens, and to the entire country, obliges every man entitled to register, in order to vote, as soon as the registering begins. The man who neglects to register, who is entitled to vote, does himself, his fellow citizens and his State gross injustice. His poor values his citizenship. A new State government is to be formed. Whether it is right or not for the people of North Carolina to remodel the State government, agreeably to the requisitions of the Congress, is a question. The Congress only demands it, but has the power, and will enforce it. Whether you participate or not, a new State government will be formed. If you refuse or neglect to register and vote, you will be inexcusable; you never can answer to your country for such neglect, if the State government formed should be a vicious one, an evil instead of a good one. Perhaps one single vote in this State may give us either a good or a bad government. Will you fail, therefore, from sheer neglect or in difference, to register and vote in such a case? We hope not.

Let the people remember, that if they fail to register at the time designated by the District Commanders, they cannot register at a future day. If you put off registering until the day of election, you cannot register, nor can you vote. By your neglect or refusal to register, you can take no part in any election whatever; you will have cut yourself off from the highest privilege of an American citizen, and, perhaps, forever.

Most extraordinary efforts are making throughout the South to get a full registration and vote from the colored voters. The evidence is plain, that almost every negro in the South will register and vote. But this is far from being the case with the whites. So far as Louisiana and Virginia have registered, the evidence is that not one white man, entitled to vote, out of every three or five, are registering. They seem to have determined to give up the entire control of the Southern States to the negroes and the Yankees and Southern Loy alists. Is that the determination of the white men in North Carolina? Are you willing that the colored people of this State led by bad, vicious, white men, shall rule this State? If you neglect to register or vote, the colored race must and will rule North Carolina. The Congress has determined that the negroes of the South, however ignorant or debased, or however indigent they may be, shall have a full share in ruling the South and the whole country. Will you, because you think that it is all wrong, cut yourself off from voting to spite Congress? Your advice to every white man in North Carolina, who has determined not to avail himself of the right to vote by refusing to register, is to make his calculations to be governed by the black race.

We call upon intelligent gentlemen throughout the State to rally the white men of the State to register. The blacks are fully aroused up—they are being rallied and lectured and taught, every day, to register and vote. Will no one try to arouse the white men of the State? Shall North Carolina be governed entirely by negroes and the white-faced enemies of our people? That is the question, the real question, at issue. All calculations based upon the supposition that Radical rule is of short duration—that the Conservatism of the country will soon triumph, are unwise and delusive. The only wise course is to take things as we find them, and endeavor to control them in the future. Register, we say. Let every white man in the State, entitled to a vote, register and vote. Our colored people will do it, almost to a man. No one is disposed to discourage or prevent them. Special efforts are making for them all to register and to vote for men who are the enemies of the whites. Let the white men, therefore, put themselves in a position, by registering, to bear their full share in the control of the State government.

The Federalists manifest no signs of improvement that any town or city that I have seen since the war. The accession of the present Administration is considered interesting by the fact of John H. Stewart, and the removal of the Law Department of the Columbia College.

Stewart was brought out on trial on Monday, the 19th inst., but a jury was not impaneled until Saturday, the 24th. The Court room was crowded all the while, and the trial was a grand affair. The annual communication of the Law Department to the Legislature, is now in progress. It is a very interesting document, and contains many valuable suggestions for the improvement of the legal system of the State.

STATE ITEMS.

The Wilmington Journal speaking of the damage done to the crops in the Eastern Counties by the late rains says:

The effect of the recent rains upon the crops in the Eastern portion of the State has been most disastrous. The damage sustained by planters in Brunswick, Bladen, New Hanover, Onslow, Duplin, Sampson, Edgecombe and all the Eastern counties, so far as heard from, has been very serious and almost irreparable. The corn and cotton crop have received the most severe blow, while the rice crop in that section has been almost entirely ruined.

Along the line of the Cape Fear, and in fact in all the lowlands of the counties named, the damage is very apparent, and the pernicious results of the recent terrible rains will be long remembered. At no time could we have seen a more desolate and ruinous scene than at present, when our future prosperity so entirely depends upon an abundant harvest.

The Wilmington Journal, in alluding to the way to pass what, it traces it by the following lines: On the subject of Salubrity is a piece of bond containing notices, belonging to Mr. Thomas E. Brown. After a thorough good crop of corn and peas, the late late heavy rain, which fell on Monday, the 24th inst., has done much to injure the crops, and probably to destroy them.

What is the result of this success? A measure of the nature, and through the influence of the Legislature, the following resolutions were passed: The Wilmington Journal speaks of the following resolutions in the case of Mr. Foster: The Wilmington Journal speaks of the following resolutions in the case of Mr. Foster: The Wilmington Journal speaks of the following resolutions in the case of Mr. Foster.
