Diary of a Southern Refugee, during the war. By a Lady of Virginia. 1 vol. 12mo., cloth, $2.

Either of the books will be sent by mail post-paid, on receipt of the price, or both together on the receipt of $3.

The same enterprising firm,—the only Southern Book House in New York, have in preparation, to be issued before long, "A Life of Gen. Pat. Cleburne, of Arkansas, the Stonewall Jackson of the Southwestern Confederate Army."

APPOINTMENT.—We are pleased to learn that Gen. W. G. Lewis has been elected Chief Engineer of the Williamston and Tarboro' Railroad.

MELVILLE.—"Jinks," the correspondent of the Danville Times, gives the following notice of Melville and the Wilson school:

"This charming little country seat is only five miles from Mebanesville—and a delightful place it is for a school. Here it is that the Rev. Alex. Wilson, (better known as "the old Dr.") has taught for the last thirty years. Some eighteen months ago, he associated with himself Dr. John Wilson, of Milton, N. C., well known around our country, as a gentleman and accomplished scholar. In the serious decline of the old Doctor's health—for he is now well nigh unto death—he has thrown his mantle upon Dr. John Wilson, and committed to his faithful charge the whole school—to be known in future as "The Wilson School."—Doctor John is handsomely situated for carrying it on. With a nice, large house, and his good lady to attend to the boarding department, he is able to accommodate 20 or more boarders, and families in the neighborhood will attend to the rest. This place offers superior advantages for training a boy. No temptations to allure him from his books, and the best instructions to cultivate and prepare him for usefulness."

The exercises of the school are not interrupted by the present illness of Rev. Dr. Wilson. They go on as heretofore, and boys will continue to receive the excellent instruction which they have always had in this institution.—Sentinel.

CAPT. WADDELL.—This gentleman, the commander of the celebrated steamer Shenandoah, arrived in Baltimore last Friday from Europe. We are pleased to chronicle his safe return, and hope that he will meet with no annoyance either governmental or personal. It would afford us much pleasure to meet him, should he pass this way.—Petersburg Index, 22d.

Mr. C. H. F. Peters, of Hamilton College Observatory, Clinton, N. Y., on July 7th, discovered a new asteroid. It is of the eleventh magnitude, and is still about one month before opposition with the sun. The planet promises to be a bright one.

STATE ITEMS.

——The Charlotte Times says that Mr. J. Adler, an experienced miner of that city, has made an improvement in the manner of treating auriferous minerals for the extraction of gold, whereby all loss or waste is prevented. He has entered a caveat in the Patent office, and is now experimenting, preparatory to applying for a Patent.

——The wife and child of Capt Jay Andrews, of Iredell, were thrown from a buggy, while on their way to Wilkesboro, a few days since. Capt. A. having alighted to secure a loose rein, the horse became frightened and ran away. Mrs. Andrews was considerably injured, but the infant received little or no hurt.

——Mr. Daniel Parks, a young gentleman who lately removed from Salisbury to Texas, was drowned, on the morning of the 7th inst., in Yagua river, Texas.

——The Commencement exercises of Davidson College took place last week. The Charlotte Democrat says that a large number of visitors were present, and that the annual address by Gov. Vance is spoken of in high terms. It adds:

"The Institution is reported to be in a very satisfactory condition, and under the administration of its new President, Rev. Dr. McPhail, is receiving an increased patronage and affording gratifying indications of usefulness."

——The Statesville American, alluding to the recent disturbance in Wilkes County, says:

"The Raleigh Standard contains two letters, written from Wilkesboro, pretending to give statements of the occurrences that took place there on the 4th., which are evidently one-sided and incorrect, and therefore do gross injustice to the Conservative and orderly portion of that community. One of these letters states that, the Conservatives went to the Court House, armed and prepared for a row, while the Redstrings were unarmed and innocent as doves, and that the unarmed Reds drove the armed Rebs from the Court House! Such a statement will hardly be believed—it is quite improbable. To the contrary, the Redstrings, were fully armed and equipped, no doubt, and hence, not being prepared to defend themselves, they withdrew from the building and went about their business until the afternoon, when the difficulty was resumed, among the colored people, of opposite sentiments. The "game negro," Sandy, who these letters state was beset and unmercifully beaten by the Conservatives, is himself a Conservative, and the "cheating" he received was done by some of the Redstrings, because he came to the assistance of a former young master, who is himself a cripple. Sandy, it is said, made vigorous use of a crutch, which he uses to walk with, in defending Mr. Peden and himself from the assaults made upon them. We look upon the whole affair as very unfortunate for the community where it happened, but Radicalism is lawless and arrogant, caring nothing for the consequences."

——Under the head of "Marriage Extraordinary," the Register, of this City, announces the following:

"In this County, on Thursday, 18th inst., by Henderson A. Hodge, Esq., Elder Burwell Temple, late Editor of the Primitive Baptist, to Mrs. Nancy Robertson. The bridegroom is aged 74 years, and this is his third marriage. The bride is 61 years of age."

The Wadesboro' Argus says, the people in that section of the State are in a truly pitiable and helpless condition in relation to mail facilities. Service has been discontinued on all the routes from Wadesboro'. The Argus appeals to the citizens to exert themselves and petition the Department at once.

The contractor on the route from Salisbury to Chesterville, who has been carrying the mail for a year past, stopped service last week. It was generally understood that he had the contract for carrying the mail for four years from the 1st. inst., but for some cause unknown he stopped as above stated.

D. Romley, Esq., late Assistant Assessor of Internal Revenue for the New Hanover District, has been appointed Collector of Customs for the port of Wilmington, to supply the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Col. Jas. P. Foster. Mr. Romley is a native of Carteret County.

——Private Kuhn, Co. K., 8th U. S. T., was accidentally shot in Goldsboro, on day before yesterday, by a pistol in the hands of the Sergeant of the Guard. The ball penetrated the knee, and amputation will be necessary.

A BROWNLOW JEFFREYS JUDGE HOUK ADVISING MURDER FROM THE BENCH.

[From the Knoxville, Tenn., Free Press.]

In the Circuit Court at Kingston, Roane County, East Tennessee, Judge Houk held the court in place of Judge Hall. A man was arraigned for trial, charged with a felonious assault. The prosecutor had been a rebel, the defendant a Union man. The Federal troops had encamped on the prosecutor's premises. The officer in command had sold the corn of the prosecutor to the defendant for the value of the corn. They had agreed to arbitrate the matter. They met for the purpose. The defendant, with a pistol, made an assault upon the prosecutor, such as the Grand Jury deemed a felonious assault. The case came on for trial. The Attorney General waived the felony and the defendant submitted for a misdemeanor. The examination of witnesses developed the facts as above stated. His Hon. (?)—Houk—gravely announced that he was half inclined to send the defendant to jail because he had not shot the prosecutor! He said that he ought to shoot him yet. He further said that the rebels tried to gain their independence in the field and had failed, and that they could not be allowed now to avail themselves of the courts of the country to prosecute Union men. He further said that any Union man who might slay a rebel under the circumstances of the case before the court should never be punished while he held the court.

Colonel Thornburg, the District Attorney, immediately arose, and, with a look that was itself a rebuke to the so-called Judge, said:

"If the court pleases, I wish to say, for the benefit of this people, that if any one shall, under the advice of your Honor, take the life of any citizen of this county, I will have him indicted and brought to punishment."

"He will not be punished by this court," said Houk.

"I should not expect to try him before this court," said Thornburg.

Houk then proceeded to pronounce the judgment of the court in the case before mentioned. He fined the defendant the enormous sum of five cents.

We derive these facts from members of the bar who were present, and from the Attorney General himself.

MAKING BROAD CLOTH.—While the dominant [illegible] gress is wielding the "rod of despotism," and enacting the most rigid measures in reference to the South, imposing on their professions of motives in carrying on the war, as embraced in the famous resolution passed after the Bull Run disaster, Mr. Charles Sumner, one of its most truculent leaders, and second perhaps to none in his venomous hatred towards the "barbarous" South, finds time to report a joint resolution expressive of sympathy with the suffering people of Crete, and directing the President to communicate a copy of the resolution to the Government of Turkey.—Norfolk Journal.

Several of the leading Radicals of Tennessee were formerly negro traders—dealers in human flesh, who didn't hesitate a moment to separate the mother from her child if they could make a few dollars by the operation. There are some of the same sort in North Carolina. They formerly used the negro for their own personal profit they are trying to do the same thing now.

The Universalist congregation at Worcester, Massachusetts, observed a recent Sunday as "Lily Sunday." The altar, and desk, and choir were profusely and tastily decorated with flowers, among which the lily occupied the most prominent place. The minister preached from the text about the lilies of the field.

The rush of immigrants to Minnesota this year is unprecedented. Every steamboat and train is loaded with them, very generally carrying their teams, horses, cows, sheep, &c., with them. Two thousand have passed over one track alone, bound for the Sauk Valley, since the opening of navigation.

Mr. Greeley having declined to recommend woman suffrage, on the ground that "public sentiment" does not demand it, the pertinence of that expression is now thrust upon him by a petition presented in favor of such an innovation, signed by Mrs. Horace Greeley and others.

A Radical speaker said at Savannah on the 4th of July, "The soldiers of the North and the South sleep in a common grave, and our corn and wheat fields will be greatly improved years hence in plowing up their bones, as they are the common dead of a common country."

The negroes of Petersburg have petitioned against the poll tax, and against the appropriation of $8,000 made for the improvement of the navigation of the Appomattox, and for as much money to be appropriated to negro as to white schools.

Mr. Johnson told "a Democratic Congressman that he would willingly resign his position as President if he could but enter the Senate again and meet the leading Radicals in debate."

Gerrit Smith writes to a gentleman of Kanawha county: "It rejoices me to find that my visit to Richmond is so warmly approved by the South, and also by a large part of the people of the North."

The yield of wheat in a single county in Ohio is estimated at seven hundred thousand bushels, which will bring over one million of dollars.

Two thirds of the Republican party fold their hands in patient, stupid despair, under the infliction of Grant for President, while the other third is hunting round for shoulder-straps heavy enough to outweigh his.—Wendell Phillips.

RECEPTION OF THE VETO MESSAGE BY THE HOUSE.

A desperate effort was made in the House yesterday, after the message had been read, by Messrs. Stevens, Boutwell, and Butler, to excite "the party" to the impeachment point, but without perceptible effect. The firm, energetic, and decided, yet dignified, terms of the message commanded the respectful attention of the members generally, and the violent assumptions and virulent abuse of the President by the leaders of the impeachers evidently received neither the sympathy nor favor of a majority of the House. During the reading of the message not the slightest manifestation of disrespect was evinced. On the contrary, it seemed that members, though coerced by the force of party necessity to sustain the bill by their votes in opposition to the veto, were profoundly impressed with the unanswerable reasoning of the President. This was especially manifested by the demeanor of those members of both Houses (many Senators being present) who were known to be at heart opposed to that portion of the bill which superceded the authority of the Executive in supervising the action of the district commanders, which constituted the main point in the message. The attempt of Mr. Boutwell to produce a counter feeling was mortifyingly abortive. In his oratorical flourish he several times paused, clearly anticipating the plaudits of the galleries, but none were given, and his effort fell without a response from even his fellow-destructives. Butler was listened to with marked impatience, and even Stevens failed to "bring down the House" by his superannuated attempts at wit.—Nat. Intelligencer, 20th.

A man had a quarrel with the cashier of a dining saloon in New York, and finally ran off. He was pursued and captured by a policeman, and taken before Justice Hogan at the Tombs, when, on being charged with stealing a pasteboard check valued at two cents, the worthy Justice committed him to the Tombs for trial.

A FIRST CLASS SCHOOL FOR BOYS,

ELLICOTT'S MILLS, MD.,

NEAR BALTIMORE.

THIS SCHOOL WAS ESTABLISHED FOR the purpose of enabling Southern Boys, at a comparatively moderate cost, to enjoy all the advantages that are afforded in the best and most expensive Northern Schools.

It has been, already, eminently successful. The Hall is a large, and beautiful edifice. The Household is under the immediate charge of the Rector and his wife. The pupils are all received as members of the family; strict attention is given to their health, personal habits and to the cultivation of courteous manners, while every care is taken to unite the comforts of a home, with the strict discipline of a School. In these respects, this Institution claims to have no superior in the country.

The Teachers are all gentlemen of fine classical attainments, and the instruction is of the most thorough kind.
