THE SENTINEL. WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

VOL. 2.

REGISTRATION __THE CONVEN TION - THE DUTY.

We have reason to believe that but few days now will intervene, before General Sickles will issue his instructions to Registrars and direct them to commence their labors. Previous to opening the books of registration, however, ten days' notice thereof must be given, according to the law, for the information of the people. After registration is commenced, it must be completed by the first day of October.

We beg, therefore, to repeat and urge the suggestion, which we presented on yester day, that duly qualified candidates for the Convention shall announce themselves, or he brought out, forthwith. Of course, all other things being at all equal, we should greatly prefer, in every instance, to have Conservatives in the field ; but when such cannot be induced to come out, we trust that our friends, who may be allowed to vote, will unite in support of some moderate Republican, who is known to be opposed to the violent and malignant purposes of ultra-Radicalism. We have several such inthe State, whom we would be perfectly will long to trust with the solution of our difficulties and the rehabilitation of the State Government. We could designate some, to name, who are as inimical to the vile and fiendish designs of the Horden wing of the party, as we can possibly be. They are, as an invariable rule, to be found in the ranks of the bona fide consistent Unionists, to avoid error and loss. who have never faltered or wavered ; while quite as invariably, the persecuting, maley olent and oppressive men in the State are new converts, "latter day saints," old negroabusers and Idatant Yankee haters and se crashedists.

We should deplote it, as a great calamity, that any considerable number of our white citizens should fail to register and to vote. We need feel no apprehension on the score of the colored vote. Under the active and secret agencies that are at work, it will be fully brought out. We should regret it, we say, as a terrible evil, that indifference, disgust, despair, or any other reason, should produce the same failure to register, here, which has irretrievably surrendered Virginia, probsbly, and Alabama and Louisiana, almost certainly, into the hands of the Radicals and the negroes. In the first place, the injury thus done ourselves may be irremediable ; it may result in our permanent disfranchises must for no one can doubt that if the Brownlowites in North Carolina obtain an ascendancy in the Convention, they will inaugurate just such a system of proscription as that which has been fastened upon. Tennessee by their patron saint and great exemplar. In the second place, we would not eq, this time, if it can be with honor avoid We are for reconstruction, on the ba-iof the military acts, in the hope, however tant that hope may be, that a fiteral comwith the terms will bring us freedom form turmoil, agitation, perplexing doubtand harrassing fears. We want, therefore all the qualified white voters of the State to be in a position to vote in favor of the ratification of the State Constitution, that may be adopted by the Convention, and thus command the necessary majority therefor if the extreme Radical managers, dissatisfied with that Constitution, shall seek to defeat it, as, in that event, they certainly would And we will go farther and say, that if it is such a Constitution as would degrade and rain us forever by its acceptance, we want to have enough registered voters to kill it. In the present state of the public temper. or rather in the existing presiding of the popular mind, there is every reason to fear that our people, like those of the other Southern States in which registration has been progressing, will fail to appreciate the i aportance of registration, unless urgent strenuous and practical appeals to the dis charge of that duty are constantly made to them. Let us, at once, then, and through out the State, have intelligent, honest, pa triotic men in the field, who will hapters. day by day, upon all our people, the solemn necessity of registering and voting. We repeat that our advice in this mat ter is prompted by the fact that, as matters and we see no other prospect, however fint this prospect may be, of a speedy set t ement of our national troubles, than upor the conditions imposed by Congress. regard peace and restoration of some sort essential to the happiness, welfare, even But while such are the lines, of our people our views, we put on record our solenn conviction, that the granting of universa aufrage and the right of holding civi o fice, irrespective of qualification or merit with nothing but danger to the is fraught country. Nevertheless, we proclaim our selves an unflinching friends of real freedom to all, and of everything that is essential to its proper maintenance.

BONDS At the suggestion of a friend, we give the following hints to the public, who may be interested in N. C. Bonds:

"N. C. Bonds" simply, without any remark, in the language of the Stock Exwith coupons attached from July 1st 1861 "New bonds" means bonds issued since the war, with coupons attached from 1st. July 1866, inclusive, i.e. three coupons of $10 mails

"Bonds ex coupons" means old bonds with coupons attached from July 1, 1866, inclusive, i. e. three coupons,

If either coupon is Jacking, it is counted worth $30, not its market value. We caution our readers against buying coupon State bonds, which have been rea istered in the State Treasury, unless those bonds have been properly re-transferred to bearer. Otherwise, they are not negotiable by delivery.

We are informed that, during the war, some State bonds, the property of the late Gen. Branch, of Urias Bancom, and perhaps others, were stolen, as alleged, by Federal soldiers, and are now in circulation. All bonds of this class are estopped and are not negotiable on delivery, and as the Pubhe Treasurer has been duly notified not to pay them, the purchasers of them will find throuselyes decrived.

Those bonds on which writing lies been etased, should be avoided, unless the Puolic Treasurer is consulted and pronounces them

-----GENERAL SICKLES.

Whatever may be the opinion of persons a to the lociting of the eauses which led, the Congression adopt the Reconstruction Acts, and to place the Southern States under the military rule, it is in vertheless the duty of all to re-fact and obey those to whom has been committed the duty of executing, the laws. The District Commander and the Commanders of the several posts are entitled to this, nor should any one feel at liberty to streak disparagingly of them.

For some time, there has been a manifes disposition, in North Carolina Radicals of a cettain stamp, fordeery and speak lightly of Gen. Sickles. This has been marked, since tion. Sickles out of respect to the President of the United States, visited Ral eigh, and rendered to him, and to Gov. Worth, due courtesy. This has, by no means, been lessened. but rather increased, since Gen. Sickles' letter to Mr. Trumbull was unblished in which he nobly asserted and sustained the necessity for a general amnesty. We learn that those very fellows, gentlemen we cannot call them,) who de nonnoe many of our last citizens as traitors and disloyal, use language in reference, to Gen Sickles which indicates a disposition to denounce long, if they dared to do it, as a traitor and disloyal, also, ...

Wilkes County Correspondence.

WILKESDORO', July 28th, 1867. Latrons SENTING. Unotice in the Ral in history, of the 17th inst, a base and attempt, by two anonymous their stadies and writes of this vicinity and an editorial of M) Holden's, to prejudice the minds of the people, and operally the military authoriwater the and the citizens of Wilkes here is giving an account, which has ne condition in trath, of an affair which or carried here on the 4th met. To counteract the exit thus southt to be done, I ask space in your poper to give a plain and truthful account of this whole matter; as I have dready done to Col. Edic, whom I met at Yolkin Court, "extenasting maught, and setting down naught in malice."

About two weeks previous to the 4th, ome of my friends, feeling a deep anxiety that all persons entitled to vote under the Reconstruction Acts should understand their rights, before the time for registration commenced, requested me to address the people of Wilkes, of all colors, in explanation of the opinion of the Attorney General, then issued. I consented, and the people were called together. Streamoust were made. for the budgets of the black Rospublic or to keep the negroes away from the module dot, is they hold their white new othe South enty by the base motives of enoldity and tear, to they know that they filth neproseonly by their ignorance. But a large crowd of both colors attended and alter I was through speaking, C. J Cowley of Dev. Altred Stokes jone white and the state science, but both Republicans) were called for and came forward twaddress the meeting. To this notesty objected, and they were heard to the end, respectfully and stication by

At the close of the meeting, Cowles and Stokes both announced to the people that there would be a Republican meeting, in the Court Bouse, on the ensuing 4th, which ould be free for everybody, and both of them turned to me and asked me to be prescor and to participate in it ; and so our meeting passed of quarty,

A few days afterward, Holden had an ed torial in the Standard, in his usual "mag niticent" style ; showing how C. J. Cowles, white, and Rev. Alfred Stokes, colored, had entered the rebel meeting in Wilkesboro', and, by their powerful logic, burning cloonence, fla-bing wit and withering sarcasm, had overwhelmed, discomfited, and anni hilated the 'rebel' orator. And nobody felt much hurt at all this.

When the meeting assembled on the 4th, I did not intend to address it, but was sitting quietly in my office, as the meeting proceeded, until several of the most respectable citizens of the County came to me and requested me to go out and address the meeting. To this I replied that I supposed they had or stors enough in the Court House to constinue all the time adotted; but they insisted that the Republican orators would events through and that the people gen-erally wanted to hear me. I finally consented to go out, norone ever supposing that then would be the least objection to my speaking, after I had been invited.

I went in and quietly took my seat among the nuclease - R M. Smith, who considers burself a bader among the Republicans, came to me and asked me it I did not want to speak. I told him that I did, but I the Fifth Military district. The President auted to wait until he and all his friends

the "Heroes of America," After the confusion became great in the Court House, Col. Smoot mounted the table and called loudly for order and asked me to assist him in quicking the people. This I attempted to she but could not. Col-Smoot then proposed to me that he would adjourn the meeting and all should go out and hear me from the steps of the Court House To this Lassented, and Col. Smoot did adjourn the meeting, and 4 went down and addressed the public from the steps. A few of the most frantic of the Hernes stayed up stairs, and endeavored to interrupt ne by singing, dancing and yelfing, whilst I was speaking. As for anybody "holding the Court House by Joree," "driving," anybody "out," &r., &c., as stated in the Standard's orrespondence, they are all fictions, worthy only of the Standard - 1 locard no -one object to my speaking in the meeting, accept S. P. Smith, sr., and R. M. Smith, one of whom had just asked me if Edid not want to speak. On the contrary, most of the repertable and consistent. Union men, who cere present canae, to me, withor in-Court House or after I went out, and expressed their disapprobation of the course of the Smiths, and charged them with be ing the cause of all the difficulty; among whom I may mention Harrison Church, Adam Staley, and might mention many others Samuel Smith, ir., and Alfred Stokes, both expressed their regret that any me should have objected to my speaking Some hour or two atter the difficulty at the Court House ended, there were two or three fights in the streets, between men who were excited by honor and the occurrences of the day. The fightwere with fishsticks, rocks, &c., no deadly, weapons were used, we falsely stated in the Standard's correspondence, except in a fight between three regroes and a young man by the name of Forester, whose politics I do not know, in which Forester cut one of the negroes with a Barlow knile. The "poor crippled Ne gro," over whom the Stradard means repathetically, was on the other side. He ran in and whaled a Theorem function over the head with his crutch, who was fighting his young made c, and the "Poor Negro" is denounced here as a "robed," and threaten red with valitary $arrs \delta^{(2)}$. Magistrates have issued warrants for the parties engaged, Magistrates have and they are all bound over to Court for trial.

Thave given you a full and tair account of this whole matter. If the Standard wants to do justice to men, whom he has endeavored to injure, he will copy this statement, for the truth of which 1 refer to every respectable Union man who was pre-But the object of the Standard is to sent seize upon every little fist fight that may happen in the State, to swell the false cry which he has been making, ever since the people refused him for their Governor, that the people of this State are disloyal, oppress Union men, and have no regard for that he may have the pleasure of seeing the people of his State dragged to distant military posts, to be tried for trivial or immaginary offences, - well knowing that the expense of such a trial will ruin them, though they may be acquitted. PROBABLE REMOVAL OF GENERAL SHERIDAN

Information received this morning from a surce I have always found reliable leaves no doubt, I think, that General Sheriday will soon be removed from the command of has readyed to assume the duility of this grave step, and it is said he is backed up in his determination by every member of the Cabinet, except Secretary Stanton. The subject, in all probability, will be dis cussed and settled at the Cabinet meeting to morrow 1 am inform d that General Hancock has been agreed upon as tienetal Sheridan's saccessor, and that he is regarded by the Proident and Cabinet as a more fit man in every respect. It is known that the President's ed phoice for the Fifth district was General Sherman, but the latter preferring, tioneral Thomas, to remain in his then position, his feelings and prodifections were re-garded. The President never favored the appointment of Sheridan, but waived his own objections at the solicitation of General Grant, who pressed Sheridan's claims very warmly. It was thought, too, that the less perience Sheridan had already gained in the lepartment would be found valuable, and therefore he was retained in command and clothed with the power of military recon tructor, Washington Car, N.
