LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

CONSERVATIVES OF WAKE, RALLY!

We are authorized to state, after consultation with many Conservatives, that meetings will be called in each county precinct, to assemble on Saturday next, the 26th. inst., at the usual place of election, to suggest the names of candidates for the State Convention, and also to appoint delegates to a county Convention, to be held at the Court House in Raleigh, on Thursday, the 31st. of October, at 12 o'clock, to nominate candidates for the State Convention and to transact such other business as may be deemed necessary.

All Conservative Union men are urged to be present at the precinct meetings, and to be prompt to meet at the county Convention to nominate candidates.

Remember the election is only thirty days off. MANY CONSERVATIVES.

RALLY, CONSERVATIVES!—We are requested to announce that the Conservative Union men of Johnston County will hold a meeting in Smithfield, on Saturday the 26th. inst., (October) to nominate candidates for the Convention. Let all true Union Conservative men be present.

FRIENDS OF THE CONSTITUTION AND OF CIVIL LIBERTY—RALLY!!! Let us meet at the Court House on Saturday night next to organize for the coming election.

The election is at hand! The enemy is organized and confident! He advocates a proscriptive policy, hostile to the interests and future prosperity of North Carolina!

Come one! Come all!! Without regard to former party connections—all who stand firmly by the Constitution of their country, and are lovers of civil liberty!

Let us be up and doing! Let us with one united effort defeat the schemes for our ruin, and save our government, and liberty for ourselves and our children!

Come one! Come all!!!

ARREST OF A SHERIFF.—We regret to learn that, on Friday last, the Sheriff of Caswell county, Mr. Jesse C. Griffith, a most worthy man and exemplary officer of the law, was arrested by a military order, and was conveyed to Charleston, S. C., there to be tried before a military court, on charges preferred by one W. Johnson, at the instance or on the advice of one A. W. Tourgee, of Guilford.

The character of Mr. Griffith, we learn, is above suspicion, both as a man and an officer. Wm. Johnson is the person who was convicted of the crime of burglary, in Caswell Superior Court, some time since, the crime having been committed by Johnson, during the war, upon the dwelling of an aged and unoffending citizen. He not only was engaged in breaking open the house or dwelling, but, by the aid of his abettors, the old man was tied, and his house robbed of money and bacon. We learn that his character is notoriously infamous, and, after committing this and other acts, fearing arrest and lawful punishment, he escaped into the lines of the Federal army and joined it. After his return, he was arrested and convicted for his crime and sentenced to be hung. At the earnest solicitation of the citizens of the County of Caswell, and upon the representation of his counsel and others, that Johnson would leave the State, Gov. Worth pardoned him.

Being regarded as a desperate character, the Sheriff felt obliged to keep him safely, and during his confinement it was made quite rigid. It is supposed that for this, or something else, Johnson has trumped up charges against Mr Griffith. One of the former counsel of Johnson, and who was active in procuring his pardon, says, in a letter alluding to his efforts to get Johnson pardoned: "We were influenced by feelings but too easily excited in favor of convicted criminals, and the result is, that a felon, deserving death, still lives to disturb good men and endanger the peace and safety of society, and, aided by one Tourgee and another individual by the name of O'Connell, he has succeeded in having Mr Griffith arrested."

This same Johnson has been as bitter in his denunciation of Mr Solicitor Settle, who prosecuted him, as of the Sheriff. This is the case, to which Gen. Sickles alluded in his Philadelphia speech, and about which we submitted some facts in explanation.

A COUNCIL of the Friends of Temperance was formed at Thomasville, on Monday night last, composed of fifteen members.

THAD. STEVENS ON THE RESULT IN PENNSYLVANIA.—The following extract from a private letter from Thaddeus Stevens is printed in a Philadelphia paper:

"Sick as I am I take this occasion to thank God for the late defeat. The Republican party acted a cowardly part, and met a coward's fate at Harrisburg."

BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION.—This body has been in session, at Goldsboro'. Among the items of interest in its proceedings, we condense the following:

From the report of the Trustees of Wake Forest College, it appears that

"The Institution has about 75 students who are boarded at the exceedingly low rates of from $10 to $12,50 a month. The tuition fees, room-rent, servant's hire, and other little extras for ten months, amount to not quite $80.

This college has adopted the "University System" of instruction, so that no chronic graduates are allowed there now. A man must stand a special examination on each department of study, and if he is not a proficient, he cannot obtain a diploma, though he remain there for ten years.

The endowment of the College which has been progressing finely, has been suspended by reason of the illness of the agent, Rev. R. B. Jones. This institution was more fortunate than many of our Colleges, since it saved more than half its endowment. The amount of old and new endowments is estimated at about $60,000, and the general prospects of the College are regarded as decidedly flattering."

The Report on State Missions sets forth the fact that the Board has twenty-four members at work in different parts of the State, whose reports of success are very encouraging.

Hillsboro' has been chosen as the place, and Wednesday before the last Sunday in November, 1868, as the time, for the next session of the Convention.

Rev. J. D. Hufham tendered his resignation as Secretary of the Convention, and, after a vote of thanks to him for seven years faithful service, the Rev. J. L. Carroll was elected to succeed him.

In the course of discussion on the Foreign Missions of the Church, it was stated that the best Chinese scholar among all the Missionaries in the Celestial Kingdom is the Rev. M. T. Yates, of North Carolina.

Quite a pleasing event occurred on the third day of the session, as indicating most friendly relations between the white and colored Baptists of North Carolina. A Convention of the colored churches of the State met in Goldsboro' on that day, and a formal request was made by the colored people for a Committee, appointed by the Convention of whites, to meet with them and aid them in the organization of their body. The application was respectfully considered, and the following gentlemen were deputed to draft a constitution for them and aid them by their experience and counsel: Rev. A. Paul Repiton, Rev. W. T. Walters, and Rev. J. B. Hardwick.

Generally, an excellent spirit pervaded the deliberations of the Convention, and the session was pleasant and auspicious.

Mr. E. T. Clemmons, of High Point, N. C., has been served with the following notice from Brevt. Maj Wm. S Worth: "You are hereby ordered to desist running opposition coaches or wagons to the regular United States Mail Contractor between High Point and Salem, N. C., until further orders."

The travel between High Point and Salem is large, and Clemmons ran an accommodation line for the transportation of passengers. By this order, people must take the mail line, or walk, to please Maj. Worth, who is a Federal officer, and support a monopoly. Such petty tyranny carries its own comment. Statesville American.

THE WAY FOR THE FREEDMEN TO BE HAPPY. Leave the degraded white men who are now using you to get into office. Seek steady occupation, practice economy, and cultivate gentle dispositions and kindly relations with your fellow men. This will bring you contentment and thrift, and with them a sensible view of your duties as citizens. Diligence and patience will bring you positions of respect and the rewards of merits. But agitation, the fostering of prejudice and mance, the seeking honors without merit, will only provoke contempt and beget disappointment and mortification. Rich. Dispatch.

REVOLUTIONS NEVER GO BACKWARDS. The Radicals admit that they are beaten in California for a State Judge and Superintendent of Public Schools. They have claimed that as their candidates were little known, and therefore stronger before the people than the Democratic ones, their election was certain, by the old majority of some twenty thousand. Radical rule would thus be restored in the Golden State. The facts show that revolutions never go backwards. Nat. Intelligencer.

BROWNLOW'S MODEL STATE.—A few days ago a party of men called at the residence of Mr. Porter, three miles from Johnsonville, Tenn., and enticed him off under pretence of wishing him as a witness in a trial. After they had gone some distance, William Pierce came out of the bushes and shot him dead. Pierce was afterwards arrested, but made his escape. The remainder of the party are held for trial. The difficulty originated in matters occurring during the war.

It is now stated that Mrs. Lincoln has been in the habit for some time past of raising money by pawning various articles at a pawnbroker's shop in Chicago. It is alleged that this pawnbroker has now in pledge, for an advance of thirteen hundred dollars, three of her dresses—one of them being the dress she wore at the time of the assassination of her husband.

The Montgomery State Sentinel publishes official returns from all the counties of Alabama upon the Convention question, as follows: Whole number registered 166,289 of whom 83,145 are a majority voted for Convention 87,972, against Convention 5,683.

Brownlow declines to follow the programme marked out by his admirers, who want him to go to Europe or Africa, or some warm climate, for his health, and announces himself a candidate for the United States Senate. His election is considered a certainty, though he may be mistaken when the time comes.

We understand that Mr W. F. Gordon is very much exercised about our consistency. This reminds us of a story some one told on Gordon in the Presidential canvass of 1860. He said Gordon defined his position thus. Says he: "I prefer Breckinridge, but I think we all ought to concentrate on Bell, but I am going to vote for Douglas." Charlottesville (Va.) Chronicle.

When Artemus Ward lay on his death bed at Southampton, he turned to a friend by his bedside, and murmured: "What have I done that I should die so young? I never was guilty of a burglary, or ever committed the minor offence of killing a publisher or even a newspaper man."

The Board of registration of Atlanta asked a freed franchiser his name. "Bob." "Bob! what?" "Bob nuffin, Bob." The absurd board insisted on two names. "Well, then, Bob Radical Ticket."

Wednesday Morning Dispatches.

THE VIRGINIA ELECTION!

RICHMOND, Oct. 22, P. M.

The Election, to-day, passed off more quietly than was anticipated.

Two incipient riots and two other disturbances were quelled by the Military. The difficulties were caused by attempts of the Radical negroes to mob the Conservative colored men.

Troops were in reserve on Capitol Square and stationed at all the polls in the city. Cavalry patrolled the streets.

The result of the first day's voting is 567 majority for the white ticket.

The canvass is active; 2,200 whites have not yet voted.

The extreme Radicals are making efforts to have the polls kept opened three, instead of two days.

The Military, under Gen. Granger, and the City Police, will be on duty all night.

The Polls will re-open in the City to-morrow.

It is impossible yet to conjecture how the State has gone.

PARIS, Oct. 21, P. M.

The Moniteur of yesterday is silent in reference to preparations for intervention. An editorial says: Everything is ready at Toulon for the expedition to Rome, but the order to go will be withheld until Italy's final reply, which may be delayed some hours, on account of the ministerial crisis in Florence.

The Patrie publishes a telegram that 20,000 troops have been sent from Lyons. At Toulon another Corps de Armee was prepared to operate in another direction.

The La Liberte says that it is certain that, in any event, France will arrive at Rome before Italy.

It is stated that the Italian Government declares itself powerless to arrest the bands of invaders, or to protect the Holy See.

There is great excitement at Rugens. The French fleet, with troops intended for Rome, has left Toulon.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE: Dear Sir: I have sent immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examined its formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Tertiary Syphilis, [one a terrible case of eight years standing,] in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect, making a quick and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.

Respectfully yours, &c.,

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify, that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee, and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—[one tumor reached a large size.] The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was attended with [illegible] excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so completely drawn up, that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and the[y] failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle, the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well able to walk as well as ever, &c.

Rosadalis cures Carbuncles, Boils, Pimples, &c.

Certificate from an old and much respected citizen of Greene County, now a resident of Wilson, N. C.

I hereby certify that, during the summer and fall of 1866, that I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles, having had as many as fourteen large Carbuncles, and twelve ordinary Boils. I suffered so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine.

Consumption, in its Early Stages, can be Cured.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 4th, 1867.

Dear Dr. Lawrence: My daughter having been cured of a deeply seated disease of the lungs by your "Rosadalis," I feel it no duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nearly two years with a hard cough which troubled her day and night, at last the emaciated form, glossy eye, night sweats, together with the cough, told me plainly that a consumptive [illegible] and speedy grave. Under the circumstances, your Physician's remedies brought no relief. She was advised to try your Rosadalis as a last, which she did, [illegible] my surprise and gratification, when I found her appetite returning. Slowly she regained her strength, her cough and night sweats gradually cease[d], and she is now, after taking five bottles, [illegible] as well as ever.

Yours respectfully,

[illegible] SMITH.

Rosadalis cures all Skin Diseases.

Salt Rheum Cured! Rosadalis Cures!!

DR. LAWRENCE: Wilson, N. C.

My Dear Sir: I [illegible] for the last two years until recently, I was troubled with a most terrible eruption of the skin, called by physicians "Salt Rheum," with which I suffered terribly; the pain and itching was almost unbearable. I tried several of the best physicians in Europe and this country—have used the most celebrated Springs—spent thousands of dollars, but could get any better. In September, 1866, I came to Charleston, S. C., was told by a gentleman at the hotel, that he had been cured of a bad [illegible] by a medicine called Rhosadalis. I resolved to try it, without any hope though of its doing me any good. I procured a bottle of Messrs. King & Cassidy, and commenced taking it. Finding many symptoms that I was improving, I bought four other bottles; but before commencing on the last two, I found I was completely well—the disease having entirely disappeared.

Enclosed find "One Hundred Dollars," which please accept as a token of my gratitude. Why do you not make your invaluable Rosadalis widely known?

Your sincere friend,

W. T. SELTZER.

Major J. [illegible] Dunn, one of the editors of the Wilson "North Carolinian," says in the issue of the 20th April, 1867: "I believe from personal experience that the Rosadalis is the finest tonic ever prepared."

Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "luck again;" some say they have "hit the nail on the head;" some "selling out at cost;" some to "make room for a new stock;" some one thing and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," I have sold out my old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in Store, and opened for inspection.

COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

I told my customers, six months ago, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, and I think I have made my word good.

I told the people to come to Creech's to buy their goods, that I would serve them right. Hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining Counties. And I here take the privilege to say, I think they have shown their good judgment.

Don't forget to come to
