CONSERVATIVE TICKET FOR THE CONVENTION IN WAKE.

HON. DANIEL G. FOWLE,
REV. BENNETT BLAKE,
PRIESTLY H MANGUM, Esq.
Dr. JNO. A. McLEAN.

"UNTO THE BREACH!"

We are gratified to see that, in most of the Counties of the State, Conservative candidates have been brought into the field, and that our people are manifesting a proper degree of energy and activity in their support. There is still more in rumors and indifference, in many quarters, than we should like to see, but it is not late, perhaps, to correct the evil. Wherever our voice can reach, however, we implore our friends, by every consideration dear to the heart and vital to the interests of [illegible] the brief remaining time [illegible] to the most earnest and unremitting efforts. Their comparative supineness, however much to be regretted, can be easily understood at The examples [illegible] other Southern States, in which [illegible] have been held, the feeling of [illegible] and hopelessness engendered by the [illegible] policy of the Congress, and the gradual [illegible] cation to oppression,—all these things have had a tendency to crush their spirit and [illegible] numb their energies. But, notwithstanding all this, the Conservative men of N. C. Carolina, we firmly trust, will [illegible] are sufficiently aroused to a sense of the perils which environ them, to make sure the defeat of Radicalism at the polls, on Tuesday and Wednesday next. One thing is certain. If the Black-Radical party is successful, it will not be the result of their intrinsic strength, but the fault,—the [illegible] fault,—of the white Conservative people of the State, who have the power in their hands, if they will but choose to exercise it!

Our last words of warning, of entreaty and exhortation can yet be read by the Conservative people in many sections of the State. We say to them, that never in the history of North Carolina have they been called upon to discharge so important and solemn a duty as that which now devolves upon them. Our sister States of the South, have passed, for a time, under the curse of negro and Radical dominion.—However temporary may be the hideous rule beneath which they have fallen, it will still inflict injuries and evils, from the effects which there can be no recovery for a generation. Let us profit by the unwise example of our brethren elsewhere. We are sure North Carolina. We have a white majority of 32,000 in the State. Leaving out the black-white element, we have a majority of at least 20,000. This is even an extravagant estimate. We cannot doubt that there are as many as 12,000 white men, in North Carolina, who are not lost to all the instincts of blood and decency, as to be willing to co-operate with a set of schemers, whose deliberate purpose it is to place the white race beneath the heel of negro dominion, and to oppress and degrade the great mass of their fellow-citizens and neighbors. A Convention will be called, in our opinion. We must, therefore, strain every effort to control it. We know that we shall succeed. But [illegible] security or listlessness, we fail, we must be unorganize and strain every nerve to defeat the Constitution which may be imposed upon us by the black Rad cals, if that Constitution should be, as it doubtless will be, what we have so much reason to apprehend.

Gird on your armor, Conservative men! Do not [illegible] vote. We are sure you have never [illegible] so well!

HOW DOES IT STRIKE YOU?—Seeing that the people of the Northern States, from Connecticut to Kansas, repudiate negro suffrage, how, asks the Boston Post, does it strike fair minds for a Congress, in which the North alone is represented, to force negro suffrage and negro supremacy upon the ten Southern States which have refused representation!

AMEN.—Greeley attorney thanks God for the late Radical defeat, [illegible] me by the forelock and [illegible] the defeat of his party in the next Presidential election.

For about the first time in our lives we join hands with Greeley, and beg to add to his pious thanksgiving our fervent amen.

THE BLACK RADICAL [illegible] abouts have so poor an opinion of the people whom they are attempting to [illegible] own selfish purposes, that they think a cajolery or intimidation [illegible] vote, that a bribe can. Look out for the Republican Executive Committee backs! Will they dare to [illegible] white man with a bribe?

IT IS NOW stated that, [illegible] and exigent circumstances [illegible] J. P. Andrews will be induced to run for Jim Harris. When he [illegible] back, that, under no circumstances, would he vote for a negro, he was only talking in a "Pickwickian" sense.

GEN. MAHONE, of Norfolk, has been elected President of the line of Rail Road, called the Virginia and Tennessee Rail Road.

GOV. VANCE will address the people of Rowan, on Monday.

SEE THAT every precinct is fully supplied with tickets. This is important. Be sure that the Christian and surname of each candidate is printed or written in full.

THE CANVASS IN WAKE.

Seldom, if ever, has any political campaign been conducted in this county, with greater ability than Judge Fowle has displayed on the hustings. His speeches, everywhere, have been received with profound satisfaction by our white county men, and have not been without a decided impression upon those of the blacks who are intelligent enough to understand anything. His denunciation of the designs and character of Radicalism,—its aggression upon the Constitution and its hostility to the spirit of Republican liberty,—have been bold and eloquent. Numbers of our white fellow citizens, who have been deluded by specious leaders, have shook the poison from their feet, and will support the Conservative ticket. At Jacob Sorrels, on Thursday, we learn that Judge Fowle made "the fur fly" particularly, and mortified one of those from this city, who went a-courting, came back shorn, decidedly.

Mr. Blake, also, has made as vigorous a canvass as his condition of his health would permit, and he deserves the thanks of the true people of the County. The other gentleman on the ticket have been prevented, unavoidably, from being present at all the gatherings.

ALABAMA CONVENTION—BEAUTIES OF RADICALISM.—In the Alabama Convention, on Monday, Caraway, negro delegate from Mobile, submitted a motion that the Sergeant-at-Arms (a negro) be required "to provide accommodation for the 'colored ladies' in the galleries and lobbies. On being asked to reduce his motion to writing, he sent up to the Clerk's desk the following effort:

Resolved, That the sergeant at arms be instructed to appropriate a portion of the Gallery and Lobby for the Ladys.

On the same day, one "Mr. Garrison" offered the following resolution, which was referred:

Resolved, That the Committee on Finance be requested to report that no citizen of the State of Arkansas shall hereafter pay poll tax, and that the revenue of the State shall be raised off the property of the State, according to value.

This, if adopted, as it probably will be, will have the effect of relieving the negroes of the State from the only taxation to which they are now subject, for the support of a government, under which they enjoy almost unrestricted power, and for the administration of which, in spite of their ignorance and incapacity, they are permitted to take the most prominent part.

On Thursday, as we learn by telegraph, a resolution was offered, and referred, requiring the former owners of slaves to pay to freedmen the full value of their services from the date of President Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation (say Jan. 1, 1863) to May 20, 1865. This is an indirect attempt at confiscation.

So we go. "The negro,"—"the negro,"—is everything with the Radical party. But living and laboring white men, women and children do not weigh a feather in the balance against the great African idea!

White voters of North Carolina! Will you not use every effort, of which men are capable, to save your State from such legislation rule? You can only do it, by preventing the approaching Convention from falling under the control of Radicalism. To the polls, then! Let nothing keep you away!

DAVIDSON.—This County is entitled to but two Delegates to the Convention, but we regret to learn that there are three Conservative candidates in the field. The Old [illegible] says:

Thomas P. Allen, DeWitt C. Johnson and S. S. Jones, Esqrs., have announced themselves as candidates. They are all Conservatives, of moderate and conservative views, and we could very cheerfully support either of them. But it is exceedingly unfortunate that they are all in the field at one time. With a ticket composed of Mr Allen (whether of the others), the radicals could not possibly be elected in Davidson. We hope that an accommodation may yet be effected, so that only two moderate men will run. Upon such division and defeat—if Mr. Jones or Mr Johnson [illegible] to withdraw, then we [illegible] Conservative men of the County will [illegible] Mr Allen—who has been [illegible] for the seat which ever of the [illegible] may be, as the strongest [illegible] which course may best insure success.

CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATES.—Dr. W. M. Brown and Lewis Hilliard, Esq. are the Conservative candidates in Pitt. We sincerely trust that they may be successful against Rich and Laffin, the two Yankee Radicals who have been put forward in that County.

James W. Davis, Esq., is the Conservative candidate in Wilson.

Hutchwell Freeman, Esq., has announced himself in Granville, in opposition to the Black Radical ticket.

REMEMBER that neither Mr. B. S. D. Villard, nor any one else, who has the audacity to speak for him, has ever attempted to show that he is an accredited Minister of the Divine Revelation.

Two more days, and two days, if necessary, to attend to your farms or your business, for the salvation of North Carolina. Any failure, any neglect of this duty, may be a matter of bitter regret to you hereafter.

THE VIRGINIA Conference of the M. E. Church, south, opened its session in Petersburg on Wednesday last, Bishop D. [illegible] presiding.

The proposition of Gen. Pope to the Alabama Convention to act upon the existing State government and institute a provision [illegible] makes a strange oversight. The reconstruction acts confer no sovereign power upon the Convention. It has no authority to act on the present State government. Its functions are ministerial rather than sovereign. It has to frame a Constitution which must be accepted by Congress, and under which a State government is to be created, but it has no power to forestall that work, even provisionally.

Referring to old Ben. Wade's declaration that he won't back out from negro suffrage, the New York Times says he seems to be very much like the passenger at sea who in a storm tied himself for safety to the [illegible] who ought to know.

The question of Union was again under consideration, whereupon brother Wm. H. Wells was instructed to meet (as Commissioner,) the various other Commissioners, in May next, at Macon Ga.

I feel that we are drifting to a consummation—a Union of the Churches. All reflecting minds must come to the conclusion that a Union is desirable upon some terms.

You are aware that we assembled at Union Chapel, in the vicinity of Kittrell's.—We had the pleasure of enjoying the hospitalities of Dr Blacknall, who is in charge of the Hotel. His arrangements are such as to fully meet the wants of his guests. He and his lady are all one could desire.

The next annual Conference will meet at Mount Pleasant, Greensboro' Circuit, embracing the 1st. Sabbath in December, 1868. C.

JURIES.

HD'QRS 2ND MILITARY DIST.,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov 9, 1867.

His Excellency, J. NATHAN WORTH,
Governor of North Carolina.

SIR:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the 1st. inst., and to state that copies of all orders that affect the duties of civil officers are distributed in sufficient numbers to supply all; but as it may avoid delay in sending them direct, your suggestion will be followed in future.

Georgia Orders No. 89 stands in its original form, except that in order to avoid delays in the administration of justice, as stated by you in county, and in your communication of the 19th inst., it was directed by General Orders No. 109:

First.—That juries drawn and summoned under the provisions of General Orders No. 32, should be empannelled for the trial of jury cases set for trial at the next (present) ensuing term of the county and Circuit Courts of your State.

Second—That in drawing juries at the Fall (present) term of the County Courts for the next term of the County and Circuit Courts, they should be drawn under the provisions of General Orders No 89, and in the manner prescribed by the laws of the State, from the lists of citizens who have paid taxes for the current year.

The right of challenge under General Orders No. 89, by reason of non-registration, to be effective in both cases.

The third question, you will recollect, was suggested by Gov. Orr, and was intended to prevent any possible misconstruction in cases where juries had already been empanelled under the provisions of General Orders No. 89.

The text and intent of these orders [illegible] make every citizen who has paid taxes of any kind, and is morally and intellectually qualified to perform jury duty, liable to the [illegible] duty. They do not in [illegible] of your courts to purge [illegible] persons who are morally [illegible] qualified, and the phrase "personally fitted," used in my communication to you of the 11th. ultimo, was intended to convey the idea that this "purgation" should be graded by the intellectual and moral fitness of the persons on the jury lists, and not by their complexion or their poverty. I supposed, from your letter of the 19th. ultimo, that you so understood the order. If any of the courts have failed to draw juries in accordance with those provisions, a special term will be necessary.

To guard against any further delays, I will send a copy of this letter to the chairman of each of the county courts, and to the judges of the circuit courts.

Very respectfully, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
(Signed) ED. R. S. CANBY,
Bv't Maj. Gen., Com'g.

CLEANING THEM OUT.—We learn that two hundred and thirty four farms in Bedford county will be sold in a short time, by the United States Internal Revenue officers, for arrears of taxes. This looks like making clean work of it.—Lynchburg News.

THE NEW YORK ELECTION.—The Tribune states that the Democratic majority in New York will be 48 000. The Albany Evening Journal (Republican) estimates it at 49,024. The Buffalo Courier (Democratic) estimates it at 47,339.

ON DIT.—Senator Morgan intends to take a Conservative stand in the Senate with a view of being placed with Grant on the Conservative Republican ticket for Vice President. This is asserted by prominent men who ought to know.

From the Albany (Georgia) News.

THE TYRANNY OF THE LOYAL LEAGUERS.

On this continent no political conclave was ever instituted more villainous in purpose or more despotic in discipline, than the Loyal Leagues. Its members are not only sworn to support the measures of the party at all hazards and under all circumstances, but its rules and by-laws absolutely close the doors of egress on those who are induced to enter the inner temple. Events are daily opening the eyes of the better class of freedmen, and hundreds of them are anxious to withdraw from the infamous institution; but they are told by the head devils that they cannot withdraw from the League without subjecting themselves to some great punishment, and threats of personal violence are held in terrorem over their heads as a means of deterring them from withdrawal. In the late election this diabolical tyranny was exercised for the purpose of forcing unwilling freedmen to the polls, and the promise of land and mules was held out as an inducement, the sword of vengeance was suspended over all who refused to vote. These are facts, and the vile conspirators and dark-lantern Jacobins dare not gainsay them. There are numbers of negroes in this county who were thus dragged to the polls and compelled to vote. Since then some of them have made efforts to withdraw, and are now deterred by intimidation and threats. The poor creatures have been so foully duped and so cruelly misled, that it is not at all strange that they should hesitate and stand in doubt as to the propriety of retreating.—Informed by the officers of the League that they cannot and shall not resign their memberships, and that their lives will be in danger if they renounce the monstrous oaths they have taken, it is natural enough they should feel some apprehension, and conclude that it is safer to go forward than backward. One of these a few days ago sent his written resignation to the League, and in addition to being told that he could not resign, he received the following communication, which is written in a plain business hand, and bears the ear-marks of a white-faced but black hearted Leaguer.

ALBANY, Nov 5 1867.

Henry Thomas—Yours of the 4th. I received. In order to comply with your request, I would say that it will be necessary for you to apply in person, when your request will be taken into consideration by the League.

Respectfully,
PHILIP JOINER, President.

P. S.—The league will be in session tomorrow evening. PHILIP.

Henry Thomas did not attend the session of the league, but, determining to dissolve his connection with the institution, makes the following announcement, in which John Brown joins:

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—The undersigned having been induced to join the Loyal League, through false representations that it was for the benefit of the colored race, and being now convinced that such an institution is not only injurious to us, but is pernicious in its influence to the whole country, we hereby thus publicly proclaim that we are no longer members of said Loyal League.

HENRY THOMAS,
JOHN BROWN.

Albany, Ga., Nov. 7, 1867.

This is the easiest and surest mode of escaping the meshes of the League, and these freedmen have set a noble example, which may be followed by any one of the league with perfect safety; and we now call upon all who wish to get clear of the institution, and who, like Henry, are not permitted to resign, to come out with public renunciations, and for this purpose our columns are open to them. Let Philip learn that you are free, as free as Cæsar, and that in politics, at least, you will exercise that freedom of thought and action which alone makes the ballot valuable. Cease to be the slaves of petty tyrants, and bow down no longer to the behests and pernicious teachings of such creatures as Murphy and Philip. Don't be afraid—you are not in the slightest danger. Philip, with all his power, is impotent to deprive one of you of the liberty of conscience; and if he attempts it, by word or act, you can institute legal proceedings and make him suffer for it. Neither he, nor any other mortal man, has the right to control your action in the premises, and to claim it is not only an insult to your intelligence, but an outrage upon your constitutional rights. Yield this prerogative over your political privileges, and you at once subject yourselves to a species of slavery and despotism far more galling and debasing than the world ever saw.

PETITION CONGRESS FOR RELIEF.

The National Intelligencer calls upon the Southern people to petition Congress for relief from the reconstruction measures.

"The people have distinctly protested at the ballot boxes of the North against the excesses and oppressions which abound in the legislation of the past year touching the South. Everybody knows it, and most of the Radical press are ashamed to deny, and bluntly admit it. Then, may not the people of the South lift up their manacled arms and show their chains? May they not ask the repeal of the anomalous, tyrannical, and revolutionary programme of reconstruction? They would be addressing themselves to representatives who are to be reelected next year, and who dare not turn a deaf ear to petitioners for whom their constituents have so clearly manifested sympathy and remorse. Let the case be made on the floors of Congress. Let no scrap-book tattlings deform again the consultations of a National Legislature; but let the solemn appeal be made as becomes a noble people, and let it be heard as is a high deliberative body, and let its prayers be granted, as commanded by the magnanimous masses of the North at the recent election."

This idea had occurred to some of our most thoughtful men, and we are pleased to see attention called to it from such a paper. If we do not petition for relief, Congress will assume that we do not want it.—Rich. Dispatch.

THE HURRICANE AT ST. THOMAS.—Correspondence from St. Thomas, dated November 1, gives further particulars of the late terrible hurricane in that neighborhood. It lasted only four hours, but in that time over five hundred persons were drowned. The steamer Camaguey lost seventeen, the Wye fifty-three, and the Rhone one hundred and thirty of those on board. The fury of the tempest was such that houses were lifted one thousand feet into the air, and men were lifted bodily from their places of safety on shore and carried out to sea. Every dwelling in the town and every vessel in the harbor received some damage. The loss is estimated at over $8,000,000. The inhabitants are in terrible destitution.

TENNESSEE POLITICS. Nashville, Nov. 11.—A movement has been developed in Tennessee for the re-organization of the Democratic party. Lieutenant Governor Henry S. Foote to day issued a call to many of the old members of the party to meet at Nashville.

Governor Brownlow, it is understood, will soon publish a letter denying the right of the United States Government to seize the Tennessee Railroads for satisfaction of its claims.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examed its Formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Tertiary Syphilis, (one a terrible case of eight years' standing,) in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.
Respectfully yours, &c.,
A. B. NOBLES, M. D.

I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took
