LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

TO THE PATRONS OF THE SENTINEL.

The scarcity of money obliges us to urge every person indebted to this office for subscription, advertising or job work, to send us the amount due, or a portion of it, at once. Those who cannot spare the amount for subscription for a year, or six months, will oblige us by sending it in for a less time. Our expenses are all cash and must be paid.

ELECTION RETURNS.

WAKE.

Poll:—Fowle, 1,891, Blake 1,787, Mangum 1,792, McLean 1,771, Harris (negro) 2,932, Williams 2,962, Franklin, 2,986, Andrews 2,970.

FRANKLIN

Harris, white Rad. and Williamson, negro, elected.

CUMBERLAND.

W. A Mann, white Radical, and J. W. Hood, negro, elected.

JOHNSTON

James Hay and Nathan Gully, Radicals, elected.

COLUMBUS

Limon, Conservative, elected by 136 majority.

EDGECOMBE

Dr. J. H. Baker, Col. H. A. Dowd, and H. C. Cherry,—all Conservatives, elected.

DUPLIN

Two Conservative Delegates elected to the Convention.

RANDOLPH

Radical ticket elected.

CATAWBA

The County is reported to have gone Conservative by a handsome majority.

WARREN

Jno. Hyman, negro, and Jno Reed, white Radical, elected.

CARTERET.

Congleton, a white Radical, probably elected,—owing to the fact that three Conservative precincts were closed on account of there being no one to take the oath as Inspectors.

ORANGE

Maj. Jno W. Graham and Dr. J. M. Holt, Conservatives, are elected to the Convention, by 318 majority. The majority against Convention is 85.

PERSON

We are grattified to learn that Mr. Merrit, Conservative, has been elected in this County by 165 majority over a negro preacher.

WAYNE.

We learn that this County elected Radical delegates by a decided majority.

GRANVILLE

John W. Ragland and J. I. Moore, white Radicals, and Caffee Mayo, negro, elected to the Convention. A sweet trio, this!

IREDELL.

This County has gone Radical, owing to the apathy of the whites,—the same old story. Iredell is a part of the voting District of Caldwell, Wilkes, Iredell and Alexander, which elects five Delegates.

BURKE

Has also gone Radical. It, together with McDowell, elects two Delegates.

ROWAN AND DAVIE

These two Counties, which are, together, entitled to three Delegates, have probably elected the Conservative ticket, although in the former the Conservative majority is very small, where it should have been very large. Over 600 Conservative white men absented themselves from the polls. For Convention 1,798; Against 339.

MECKLENBURG.

This County has probably gone Radical in Charlotte, more than 300 whites refused to vote. Commenting upon which fact, the News says:

"When the votes were counted on yesterday, it was found that there were three hundred and thirty white men who had regstered in this city, who had neglected or declined to vote. Three hundred and thirty men, with homes here, and vital interests here, with wives and children, fathers and mothers here—the graves of whose ancestors are under the green sod here, who, for some reason not disclosed and entirely immaterial, quietly stayed at home, and allowed the negres and their white Radical allies to carry the county of Mecklenburg! If these gentlemen belong to the class of "masterly inactivity men," who are done with the affairs of earth, and are quietly awaiting the trump of doom, we think they had better get themselves embalmed, and be put out of the way of the busy thinking world, who take some interest in sublunary affairs. Are they too fastidious to risk being jostled by an African on their way to the polls? Men quite as good as themselves did not allow such school-girlishness to deter them from doing a sacred duty. Were they in sympathy with the Radical party? If so, for one we would have respected them much more had they openly and honestly voted their sentiments, instead of skulking in the background. If they did not know that there was an election, one might pity their ignorance, and feel much disposed to improve the free-school system in this section. If they did not understand the importance of the election, they ought to have inquired of the negroes, who voted more than seven-eighths of their registered strength. Be the fact as it may, the county of Mecklenburg has good cause of complaint against this delinquent three hundred and thirty."

OTHER COUNTIES—BY TELEGRAPH.

Bladen, Brunswick and Anson all elect Radicals.

SARGENT. The great Illusionist postponed his entertainment last night, on account of the Soiree at St. Mary's.

He will give a Matinee to-day, and an exhibition to night. See announcement in another column.

We repeat, what we have heretofore said, that Sargent is inimitable in most of his wonderful feats.

SQUARE AND COMPASS.—This excellent Masonic Weekly, we have heretofore inadvertently omitted to mention, has passed into the hands of Messrs. R. W. Best and Andrew Syme of this City, who are conducting it with industry and ability. Mr. Best is already well known to the public for great energy in whatever he undertakes, and we can vouch for our young friend Syme, who is not so well known to the public, that he is a gentleman of great worth and excellent capacities. Under their joint auspices, the Square and Compass will be made a most efficient exponent of Masonry, and a valuable Journal of literature and miscellany. We commend them and their publication to the Order and the public.

EDUCATION OF THE HORSE. For some days, Mr. J. P. Harper, of Madison, Ind., has been in this City, engaged in giving instruction to gentlemen in the education of the Horse. We learn that some fifteen or twenty were instructed by him. Mr. Harper had several of what he called educated horses with him, and his exhibitions on the streets drew large numbers to witness them. His most thoroughly educated horse seemed to be controlled entirely without a bridle, by the hands, whip and voice.

Mr. H. does not call himself a horse tamer. He discards entirely Rarey's theory, but operates directly upon the sense, memory and affections of the horse, but by such tones of voice, and such actions and discipline, as serve to convince the horse that his master or driver is the greatest and best of all beings.

What proficiency his classes were able to make, we have not learned, but his theory, as explained to us, strikes us as rational and philosophical, and we believe, if carried out, would cure many bad and dangerous horses. Indeed, the whole theory of Mr. H. strikes us as eminently proper for the education of mankind. Right reason, kindness, amiability and docility of manner, are as essential elements in the proper discipline of mankind, as in the education of animals.

ST. MARY'S SCHOOL. SOIREE MUSICALE.—A very brilliant musical entertainment was given at St. Mary's School, in this City, last evening, which was attended by quite a number of delighted ladies and gentlemen. The programme of exercises was gotten up and directed by Mr. Geo. F. Hanson, the Professor of Music, than whom there are few more accomplished masters of the Art, anywhere. It embraced the choicest selections and gems, vocal and instrumental, from the old maestros, together with some of the Professor's own compositions; and it is almost needless to say that they were rendered with a spirit, taste and impressment that reflected credit upon the young ladies and upon the superior advantages which they enjoy at the excellent institution, over which Dr. Smedes has so long and successfully presided. In all its appointments and departments, there is no superior school in the Country,—a fact abundantly illustrated by the hundreds of refined and useful women, who were educated within its walls, and who now adorn society throughout the South.

Col. John S. Mosby was in the gold room yesterday by invitation of a broker, and some of the Chesterfields of that place hissed him. A majority of the members, however, invited him to stay. And he stayed. N. Y. World, 20th.

Immense beds of peat lie convenient to the city of St. Paul, Minn. A company has been organized there, and is about commencing operations to supply the city.

Charleston (S. C.) is moving in the matter of removing the obstructions in her harbor. Probably no city in the world has its harbor so much obstructed with the debris of war.

The Ohio wine makers are now busily at work, and the newspapers of the State estimate that the wine crop this year will be the largest it has ever had.

Another base ball accident is reported out West. A little boy in Missouri had his nose taken off and his head rent by a bat slipping from the hands of the player.

Cleaveland is being overrun with paupers. They flock there in such numbers that it has become necessary to administer the oath as to their residence, &c.

In Albemarle county, Va., the other day, the darkeys got up and left the church because a preacher who was not a Radical arose to read a hymn.

The people of St. Albans, Vermont, are sleighing.

The Sorghum crop of the Northwest has been very poor this year.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22—P. M.

Revenue to-day $545,000

The premature publication of Grant's report creates excitement.

Grant does not recommend the discontinuance of the Freedmen's Bureau. Over $9,000,000 have been expended for bounties under the law of July last.

The continuation of surveys for river and harbor improvements, especially in the Western water's is recommended.

Grants estimates omit the appropriations for the Freedmen's Bureau, and the Bureau of Military Justice. The total estimate is $77,000,000 instead of $170,000 000 as heretofore published.—This however is exclusive of the estimate for the Subsistence Department.

The Surgeon General records show that 244,000 white 30,000 black soldiers died during the war.

Gen. Thomas reports all quiet in his department, but the people still show disloyal tendencies.

McCulloch will send to the Senate Monday a response to the cotton tax enquiry, covering Revenue Commissioner Wells, report, urging its repeal. An early repeal seems a foregone conclusion.

Congress is very tame, and the impression is growing that it will adjourn on Monday, to Dec 2nd.

MOREIM PRISONMENTS—RADICAL TYRANNY.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 22, P. M.

Gen. Mower has issued orders removing the following officers as "impediments to reconstruction under the laws of Congress": Albert Voorhees, Lieut. Governor, is removed and J. R. Pettin appointed in his place. Adam Griffin, State Treasurer, removed, and E. J. Jenkins appointed. H. Peralta, Auditor of public accounts, removed and J. H. Sypher appointed. R. M. Lusher, Superintendent of Public Education, is removed, and J McNair appointed. Henry Bonsil, State Tax Collector of the 4th. District, is removed and Geo. W. Kendal appointed. Charles Delay, Coroner of the Parish of Orleans, is removed, and Wm. H. Hire is appointed in his place.

Dr. Avery, Mower's newly appointed Sheriff failing to give a suitable bond, Gen. Haye declined to surrender the office until a bond is accepted, and Mower has ordered the newly appointed Coroner to perform the duties of the Sheriffalty ad interim.

THE ALABAMA CONVENTION.

MONTGOMERY, Nov 22 P. M.

The "Judiciary" article of the Constitution, as reported, provides that the Governor shall appoint all Judges, Solicitors and Chancellors, to be confirmed by the Senate.

Magistrates shall be appointed by the Governor, but the Legislature may change the manner of appointment.

Chancellors shall appoint Registers, and Judges appoint Clerks of Courts. The term of all these officers shall be six years.

This appointment of Judicial officers was fixed, in order to prevent the elections being controlled by the negro voters. The Convention negroes strongly opposed the policy.

An Ordinance was introduced to tax liquors 20 cents a gallon, in order to meet the expenses of the Convention.

An ordinance was introduced and refered, providing that the loan of $225,000 to the Alabama and Tennessee railroad, which was re-paid to the State in Confederate currency during the war, shall be made good now in greenbacks.

ARRIVAL OF HON. JEFFERSON DAVIS IN RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Nov. 22, P. M.

Mr. Davis left Canada last Tuesday, and to avoid attracting attention in New York, went on board the Steamer Albemarle at her sailing hour, nine o'clock, Wednesday night. He was unaccompanied by any one. On his arrival here he took a coach and drove to Judge Ould's house. No one expected his arrival to-day not even his counsel.

His counsel, to-night, deny the report that they have any intention of resisting a trial before Judge Underwood.

Mr. Davis is in excellent health and quite cheerful. Many of his friends are calling on him to-night.
