THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 18, 1868.

Office of the Sentinel:—On the old "Register" Row, next to the Court House.

Convention.—The Daily Sentinel, with the proceedings of the Radical Convention, will be sent regularly for $1 for a month, or during the Convention, if its session does not greatly exceed that time.

To Subscribers.—Several of our friends have remitted us monies for new subscriptions, according to our last year's terms. In every case we give such subscribers full credit for the amount sent, according to our new terms.

New Advertisements.—Perry vs. Eldreth, et als; E. F. Foster, C. M. E., Ashe County.

Great Invention.—Wonderful Corn Sheller: Douglas Bell, Fayetteville St.

Gray, Executor, vs. Moore et als; S. S. Jackson, C. M. E., Randolph County.

Mayor's Court.—Anthony Jackson, 40th U. S. Infantry, charged with being concerned in the murder of Anderson Selby, colored, in December, 1867, was returned to the Superior Court.

A number of U. S. soldiers were up before the Mayor, for various offences, on yesterday, and by him turned over to the military authorities.

Lecture by Bishop Atkinson.—We are pleased to learn that Bishop Atkinson has accepted the invitation of the Young Men's Christian Association to deliver a Lecture in this City, in furtherance of its charitable objects. It will be delivered during the first week in February, at which time the Bishop will be in Raleigh on a Diocesan visit.

Religious Notice.—Rev. Thomas H. Pritchard will preach in the Baptist Church, to-morrow (Sunday) morning and night.

Sargent's Dramatic Troupe.—The Wilmington papers have spoken in such high terms of the merits of this Dramatic Company, that it is safe to predict that their representations will be received with equal favor in this City. The company is described as possessing the best talent, decidedly, of any Stock Company in the South.

It will commence a series of entertainments, for six nights, at Tucker Hall, on Tuesday evening, instead of Monday, as heretofore announced. A limited number of season tickets may be obtained at the Box-Office, upon prompt application.

What Constitutes a Negro.—The outraged and insulted negro delegate, Hood, from Cumberland, on Thursday, denied that there was a negro on the floor of the Convention, insisted that the word negro had no significance as to color, but could only be used in a reproachful and degrading sense, and he further declared that no man on that floor knew where the term negro originated, since it was not found in ancient history, either inspired or profane.

In view of the fact that our Reporter was the object of the terrible wrath of the Radical portion of the so-called Convention, and in anticipation of the suppression of the Sentinel, by that delectable body, we deem it proper to give the following definition from Webster, the great Yankee Lexicographer:

NEGRO, a [It. and Sp. negro, black, from L. niger.]

A native or descendant of the black race of men in Africa. The word is never applied to the tawny or olive colored inhabitants of the northern coast of Africa, but to the southern race of men who are quite black.

Cotton.—We authorized to state that there are parties in this city who will purchase all the Cotton that may be brought to the market. They will give as good prices as the quotations will justify.

Arrested.—It has been stated to us that a tobacco wagoner, traveling through the up country, selling his tobacco, took with him his wife, and, as a prevention, took his gun or pistol along with him, and that at Charlotte he was arrested by the police for a violation of Gen Sickles' order, prohibiting the carrying of concealed weapons, and sent to this Post under arrest. We think there must be some mistake about this, as we conceive, under the circumstances, the design and purpose of the order were not violated. We note the rumor to get at the facts.

The Bystander, of this City, also thinks that to designate the colored race by the word negro is an "offensive epithet," at which a grave "Convention" should take offence. Bah! "Every one to his liking," as the old woman said when she kissed her cow.

Ethnological.—A friend suggests that as Hood, from Cumberland, is so ignorant about his own race, as to assert that the term negro is not to be found in ancient sacred or profane history, he shall call upon Font Taylord for a disquisition on the subject.—The idea is a good one. Font will lend him the lecture he lately delivered in Tupper's church, but, really, Font is too good an Ethnologist to sustain the learned delegate from Ayr.—Cumberland.

The Reward of Apostacy.—C. J. Rogers, of Wake, received two votes for Sergeant-at-arms on yesterday.

Registered Letters.—The Post Office Department has adopted a new and very efficient plan for registering letters containing money. The expense is increased, but, where the amount is worth it, it would be better for all our friends to register their letters when they send any cash, except where they are convenient to the Express or to a Post Office that issues money orders on the Raleigh office.

THE SITUATION.

Mr. Stanton was at the War Department at half-past nine o'clock this morning. He issued orders as Secretary, and was so recognized by Adjutant General Townsend and all the other officials of the War Department.

A number of Senators and Representatives called and had interviews with Mr. Stanton, Major General Pope was closeted with him for several hours.

A New York delegation called to see Mr. Stanton, and to one of them he remarked, "I will remain in the War Office until I am forcibly ejected. I do not intend to resign."

Mr. Stanton has not as yet issued any special order to the officers and employees of the War Department announcing his having assumed control. He announced that any order he might issue would be given to the press by General Townsend, but, none having been given by General T., it is presumed that none has been made public.

To-day President Johnson issued instructions that no communication with the War Department be sent or received through Mr. Stanton, who would under no circumstances be recognized by the President as Secretary of War, or admitted as a member of his Cabinet.

There was an informal meeting of the Cabinet to-day, lasting some two hours.—All the members were present. While the Cabinet were in session, General Grant and Lieut. Gen. Sherman called on the President, and had a brief interview with him, the nature of which did not transpire.

The greatest secrecy prevailed in reference to the matters discussed at the Cabinet, and the many members of the press waiting in the ante rooms were not overburdened with intelligence relative there to.

There was no undue excitement either at the White House or at the War Department. The President had many visitors, including Senators and Congressmen, and with receiving them and attending the Cabinet meeting was kept quite busy until the dinner hour.—Wash. Express, 16th.

Murder in Currituck County, N. C.—Mr. George Ferrell, who lives at Indian Ridge, Currituck County, N. C., about four miles from New Bridge, visited Norfolk on Thursday last with a drove of cattle, which he sold in the course of Friday and Saturday, and having made some purchases, he left for his home, in company with his son, aged about ten years, on Sunday morning.

The next we hear of him is, that his body was found, on Monday morning, near the house of Sol Jones, (who keeps a drinking establishment at New Bridge,) with his throat cut from ear to ear.

Our informant states that since the murder was committed, Jones has been missing from his house, and consequently suspicion points to him as the murderer.

It is presumed that the murder was committed on Sunday night. The house of Sol Jones, near which the body was found, is about 30 miles from Norfolk, and could easily have been reached by Ferrell on Sunday night, he having left Nortolk in the morning. Our informant states that Ferrell was a powerful man, and must have been asleep or in liquor when put to death, otherwise no one man could have committed the deed. His occupation was that of a farmer.

Ferrell was a married man, with a wife and one child living. He is about thirty five years of age, and is represented as being an unusually quiet, peaceable man when not in liquor. He was a member of the 56th regiment of N. C. Troops, and served with credit during the entire war.—Norfolk Journal.

In a Fix.—We heard a ludicrous story of an individual in a Western county, whose election as a delegate to the Convention was duly announced by Gen Canby's order convening that body. Being much elated at the intelligence, for up to that time he had not regarded his election as certain, he repaired in all haste to Raleigh, proceeded to invest himself with a new suit of clothes—such a suit, perhaps, as Gaston wore in 1835—so as to enable him to make an appearance suitable to the dignity of his functions as a Constitution maker, (!) when he was suddenly thrown into the greatest consternation at learning that Gen. Canby had changed the return and given the seat to another. He immediately sent a dispatch, or a message, to his successful rival, informing him of the change things had taken, and to acquaint him with the fact that he had bought a suit of Constitution clothes for which he now had no use, and that he hoped they would fit him, and that he would take them off his hands. Further our informant saith not, but we hope his successful rival came to his relief and that he went on his way rejoicing.—Old North State.

The New Senator from Ohio.—The telegraph informs us that Hon. Allen G. Thurman has been elected United States Senator from Ohio. In the State Senate the vote stood: Thurman, 19; B. F. Wade, 18. In the House: Thurman, 55; Wade, 49.—Judge Thurman was the Democratic candidate for Governor at the late election, but was defeated by Gen. Hayes, the Republican candidate, by a little less than three thousand votes. He is a lawyer of great ability and of high personal character. He has for the last thirty years been a prominent champion of the Democratic party of Ohio in political discussions, and conducted the late canvass for Governor with marked talent and skill. Mr. Thurman is a nephew of the Hon. William Allen, who formerly represented Ohio in the United States Senate.

For Man and Beast.—It is stated that the reason why Butler "put up" at the Ballard House was that he had heard that the Messrs. Ballard kept an "old Virginia tavern." The well known sign of such establishments is "Entertainment for Man and Beast."—Rich. Enq.

The Sentinel proposes to hang the pillars of the State Capitol in mourning. Plenty of "somber hue" in the Gorilla Convention, without buying mourning goods. Its record will be black enough.—Wil. Star.

Saturday Morning Dispatches.

CONGRESS.

Washington, Jan. 17, P. M.

The Senate was not in session.

House.—The Ways and Means Committee reported the anti-contraction bill, with a recommendation of non-concurrence with the Senate. Adopted.

The vote on the Reconstruction bill was postponed to Monday, with a session to-morrow for debate only. The discussion was resumed.

Mr. Brooks made a strong speech in opposition. Alluding to the Radical programme, he said:

"We do not intend to be ruled by any such Government as that, and the process of legislation, by which it is to be reached, will be undone by the people. Many of the opposition members are acting in open defiance of the expressed will of the their constituency."

Referring to the Supreme Court bill Mr. B. said "You may overthrow Andrew Johnson; you may overthrow the Executive; you may turn whole States into Hayties, Jamaicas and Africas; but when you throw yourselves against that bulwark of the Constitution, your puny arms will shake and quiver, and be blasted in the first blow you strike against it."

Mr. Hubbard, of Connecticut, followed in bitter denunciation of the bill and the emasculation of the Supreme Court, and denounced the proposed legislation as felony against the States. He would not say that Congress was infamous, but this bill was more than infamous. He gave notice that should Grant accept the law, and carry it out, as proposed, he would break his back before the people, and would forfeit all the honor he had won. This bill and all the others were got up for Africanizing the States, thus republicanizing them, and making use of them to neutralize the majorities at the North.

The debate proceeded, the Republicans evidently on the defensive throughout.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Washington, Jan 17, M.

Last night's session of the House was devoted to the discussion of the new Reconstruction Bill, with several angry colloquies.

Col. Mann, Assessor of the Internal Revenue, at Mobile, is here, urging changes in the cotton regulations, whereby it is claimed that annoyances connected with the use of tags may be lessened.

The Senate has confirmed Egbert H. Grandin as U. S. Attorney for the Southern District of Alabama.

Washington, Jan. 17, P. M.

The Supreme Court was crowded, to-day, to hear ex parte the McCardle case. The point argued was the advancement of the case on the docket.

Judge Sharkey stated that there are several persons in Mississippi, whom an early decision of this case may save from hanging.

Howard was on the floor of the House, to-day, consulting with Elliott, Chairman of the Freedmen's Committee.

Gov. Flanders, of Louisiana, is here.

The regular Cabinet meeting was held to-day. Stanton did not appear.

The Military Committee, in view of the unsettled condition of the South, has decided to defer action for reducing the army.

Persons, who have conversed with Grant, say he is very guarded in his language regarding the pending Reconstruction bill.

The Supreme Court of New York divorced Belle Boyd from her husband, to-day.

Hon. W. T. Hamilton is elected United States Senator from Maryland.

A negro has commenced a suit against the managers of an opera, in Buffalo, N. Y., for ejecting a negro and his wife from seats.

SOUTH CAROLINA CONVENTION.

Charleston, Jan. 17, P. M.

Parker introduced an ordinance, establishing a Homestead law, exempting $2,500 worth of property from levy or seizure.

Hurley proposed an ordinance to declare all outstanding obligations for the purchase of slaves null and void. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Langley introduced a resolution declaring that the public good required that all ideas of confiscation or further disfranchisement must be abandoned. Laid on the table.

The ayes and nays being called on a motion to re-consider, it was lost by 61 to 46—16 being absent.

Gov. Orr, by invitation, addressed the Convention to-night.

GEORGIA MATTERS—ANOTHER REMOVAL.

Augusta, Jan. 7, P. M.

Gen. Meade to-day issued an order removing the Comptroller of Georgia, for declining to respect the orders of, and to co-operate with, the General Commanding. Capt. Charles Wheaton, 33d. Infantry, is ordered to assume the duties of the office.

MISSISSIPPI CONVENTION.

Jackson, Jan. 17, P. M.

The following were referred to appropriate Committees: A resolution to appoint a special Committee to inquire into the propriety of removing the capital of the State to some more legal and convenient place; resolution authorizing the legislature to provide for repairing the Mississippi Levee; resolution accepting the civil and political equality of all men, and never to countenance the secession of the State from the U. S.

A resolution was adopted, providing for a Committee of five to receive names of persons for Congress to have their disabilities removed.

Kittrell's Springs Female College.

GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868.

The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.

Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar, are of the finest quality.

Special attention paid to thoroughness in the English Course.

Terms MODERATE and ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the south. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

Valuable Lands and Mills for Sale

PURSUANT TO A DECREE OF THE COURT of Equity for Johnston County, at Fall Term, 1867, I shall, on Saturday, the 18th day of January next, on the premises, proceed to sell, at public sale, that valuable property, near Poon Hill, in said County, known as consisting of fifteen hundred and ninety-five acres of Land, lying near the North Carolina Railroad, and within one and a half miles of Boon Hill Depot.

The said lands are the first quality of Cotton lands. About 200 acres are cleared, and have been in cultivation. The rest is in primitive forest, and is well timbered, although a considerable quantity of Pine Timber has been cut off.

The improvements consist of an excellent Saw Mill, with a forty-two inch circular Saw, run by a Jonvals Turbine Wheel, which, for quantity of work and quickness of cutting, is unsurpassed. There is also a tram road from the Mill to the Railroad, where there is a turnout. Also a Grist Mill, which will grind 60 bushels of corn per day. Also a Store and Office, a Blacksmith Shop, and four houses for operatives, and
