For the Sentinel. SHIP KNEES.

PORTSMOUTH, Va., Jan. 14, 1868. Mesers. Editors: - At times like these, it the duty of every one to develope all the uidden resources within his reach, and they are many. The forests of North Carolina abound in wealth, unknown to its owners Your oak timber is a rich mine of wealth, if properly studied and worked.

In a previous letter we gave directions for making Staves. To this business we would have the Stave-getter add that we making Ship Knees. Many of your readers, doubtless, have no idea as to the demand for and high prices which they command You will, no doubt, be doing the people of your State good service by this business, which we have obtained from the Inspector of Lumber at the Gos port Navy Yard, and may be relied upon a ing correct: Siding | Larth, of Arm. 1 3 inches | 3 ft. 3 to 3 ft. 6 in. | 4 ft. 8 to 5 ft. 6 in. 4 "5 to 4 " 8 " 6 " 6 to 1 4 "5 to 5 " 0 " 6 " 6 to 5 5 " 0 to 5 " 3 " 7 " 2 to 1
