NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC TICKET!

FOR PRESIDENT,

HON. HORATIO SEYMOUR,

OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

GEN. FRANK P. BLAIR,

OF MISSOURI.

REPUBLICANISM (?)

Congress has proceeded against the Southern States in its acts of usurpation and unwarranted interference, upon the false and hypocritical plea that they were without Republican Constitutions, and that the Constitution obliged the Federal government to guarantee to them Republican governments. The profession was, of course, hollow-hearted and insincere, and without a shadow of authority. What kind of Republican government is that which enfranchises an ignorant, degraded, half civilized race, making them the rulers of the government, while it allows and encourages them, by its own example, to ostracise thousands of the most intelligent and most worthy portion of society, and the former governing class?

The new Constitution, so far from being Republican, ignores its first principles, in that it discards the doctrine of the frequency of elections, as the chief protection of the people against bad and incompetent rulers. Look at the provision for electing Executive officers only once in four years.—The people will see the folly of this, in a few months, when they have a little experience of the extravagance and incompetency of the bogus officers now controlling affairs. The General Assembly, instead of checking the tendency of taking away power from the people and placing it in fewer hands, has gone directly in the face of this vital principle of Republicanism, and, in the passage of several bills, has ignored the people altogether and conferred upon "Gov." Holden more power than any ten Governors of North Carolina ever possessed before.—The Radicals of Congress have carried on continual war with the President, taking away his power as dangerous to the government, while the Radicals of the General Assembly are taking every opportunity to ignore the people and to confer upon "Gov." Holden almost unlimited power and patronage.

Can such Republicans as Mr. Winstead, Mr. Lassiter, Dr. Barrow, Mr. Beasley, Lt. Gov. Caldwell, and others of the Senate and House, satify their constituents of the wisdom and safety of their policy? Can they reconcile such a position with their life long professions and predilections? The more respectable portion of the Republican members of the Senate and House, who ought to know better and do know better, are making for themselves a most damning and dangerous record, in confiding power to hands untrustworthy and totally unreliable. A life of political deception, change and hypocrisy ought to warn even the most simple and unwary of the danger of committing too much to the control of such a helmsman. The day of reaction will come speedily, and terrible will be the reckoning which the people will make,—not against the ignorant and blinded, but against those who knew their duty and did it not!

COL. DEWEESE.—It appears, from the telegram, which was published, on yesterday, that the Illinois carpet-bagger, who represents the negroes of this District in Congress, made a regular bust in the House of Representatives, on Thursday, which only had the effect of exciting "mirth" and ridicule. Deweese is about the first of the carpet-baggers to open his mouth in the House, and his debut was characteristic.—Those who heard him on the campaign are not surprised that he provoked laughter. It is said that he sways his arms like a pump-handle and fumes and blubbers like a first class soap-boiler.

Col. Deweese is not a genuine lion, but only a "Snug, the Joiner," sort of a lion. He don't really wish to scare anybody. His vaporings and big words are but necessary gas-escapes. He told the people of Washington, in a speech at a Radical Ward meeting, just before the Chicago Convention, that if President Johnson was not impeached, he could not return South. When subsequently asked, in this city, if he did not know that he was stating what was not so, we have been told that he replied: "Oh! it was necessary to say something for a sensation," or words to that effect. So it was, on the occasion of Deweese's Congressional rampage, the other day. He wanted to create a sensation,—"only this and nothing more." He succeeded, evidently, for, the telegraph informs us, he provoked the "mirth" of everybody.

GEN. BLAIR'S LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE.—We take great pleasure in directing attention to Gen. Frank P. Blair's admirable letter of acceptance of the National Democratic nomination for the Vice Presidency, which will be found upon our first page, this morning. It is eloquent, patriotic and Jacksonian. As the Richmond Dispatch observes, the masses are partial to bold men in times of trouble. This letter utters no uncertain sound. It proves the author to be cut out for a leader. The people will rally to his standard if they are not indeed unworthy descendants of their revolutionary ancestors.

MEETING OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE UNIVERSITY—EX GOV. MANLY.

A meeting of the new "Board of Trustees" of the University was held in the Senate Chamber, on Thursday afternoon. "Lt.-Gov." Caldwell presided and Mr. R. W. Lassiter acted as Secretary. We learn that the only business feature of the meeting was the appointment of an Executive Committee, consisting of Messrs. Rodman, Settle and J. F. Taylor, to act in conjunction with the "Board of Education" in the consideration of matters relating to the University.

After the inauguration of the Board, the venerable Treasurer and Secretary of the University, Hon. Charles Manly, who had been invited to attend the meeting, rose and surrendered his office of Treasurer and Secretary,—a trust which he had so long and so faithfully filled. He presented a written report, exhibiting an account of receipts and disbursements during the current year, and showing that the balance on hand, to wit: $4,468.73, was deposited in the National Bank, in Raleigh. He then read an inventory of the Stocks, Bonds and Assets of the institution, in one hand, and then proceeded as follow:

"I hereby surrender to your honorable body a large amount of valuable papers, records, and books—to the last and full evidences and Muniments of the Real Estate foundation of the Institution to the present time,—and here I must be a loud requirer part of an authorized report of a special Committee of the Legislature, appointed to examine the affairs of the University.

"In fulfillment of the duties now devolving upon your Committee, and in compliance with the request of Hon. Charles Manly, Treasurer and Secretary of the Board, I journed to his office to make examination of the records and papers now in his possession, and particularly to close the accounts as Treasurer of the Institution. Upon reference to the minutes of the Trustees, it is shown that Gov. Manly was on motion of the late Col. Wm. Polk appointed Treasurer and Secretary on Nov. 25th, 1824, and that he has continued in those offices to the present time, except during the period that he was in the Executive office when the late Maj. C. L. Hinton officiated in his stead.

Your Committee report that the minutes and records of the University have been well kept and preserved, and arranged in regular and lucid order. Separate bundles or files for each year, containing reports, correspondence and professional papers have been regularly made up and marked with the proper year for ready reference. The minutes of the Board, well recorded in large folio volumes, contain a plain and lucid epitome of the financial condition of the Institution through this long period. The Treasurer invariably, for the last forty-five years, presented to the Board, at every annual meeting, a full report and statement of the finances during the year, setting out, in detail, every item of receipts and disbursements during the year. These exhibits have been, at every annual meeting, referred to a select Committee of the Board, who examined and passed upon them and the vouchers for the expenditures, and made their report, in writing, to the Board, certifying their accuracy in every instance.

Copies of these reports have, by the Governor of the State, for the time being, been communicated to the General Assembly and printed and distributed for general information. Your Committee find that these reports of the Treasurer and of the several Committees have been regularly spread at large on the minutes, from year to year, the balances on hand regularly and duly carried forward and credited in each succeeding annual account—thus exhibiting, in a plain and intelligible manner, the fiscal condition of the Treasury, at all times, during a period of nearly fifty years.

The original reports of the Treasurer and of all the Committees thereon have been all carefully preserved and are now on file, in their appropriate packages, from 1824 to 1866."

Gov. Manly's report then closes as follows:

"In conclusion I may be allowed an old man's privilege, and say that I take leave of these books and papers, with deep and unaffected pain. They appear to be the friends and associates of fifty years, of the better part of my manhood; they awaken days that are gone; they recall scenes and incidents, connected with many of the most eminent men of the State, and they form a page in the annals of North Carolina, unstained and ineffaceable. In them you may trace the financial history of the Institution through her perils, tribulations and poverty, and see how, through the patriotic exertions of her Trustees, her finances and means were improved and enlarged, until she was raised to a condition of ease and affluence. Here you may mark her humble beginning as a Grammar School, may trace her gradual and steady rise in reputation and influence, till, through the noble and sustained efforts of her first President, Joseph Caldwell, and the still more extended and successful policy of her last President, David L. Swain, and the unremitting labor of her noble band of Professors and Teachers, she became the just pride of the State, distinguished among the most elevated Institutions in the whole country. Here are the scholastic footsteps of her thousand young men, pursuing their curriculum to the final goal of their Collegiate course, when, leaving her Academic groves, her Alumni have gone forth to fill and adorn the highest places in the nation. They fill the pulpits and bar and bench and national councils. You will find them in the highest offices in the gift of the American people,—Governors, Senators, Ministers abroad, in the Cabinet at home, and to the Presidential Chair.

God grant that her sun may never set, that, under your government, her effulgence may grow brighter, and that her usefulness may increase more and more throughout all time!"

After the report was read, it was referred to a select Committee for examination, and the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina be tendered to Gov. Charles Manly, for his long, faithful and useful services as Secretary and Treasurer of the Board of Trustees, with the assurance that, in our opinion, they will be long and highly appreciated by the people of the State.

And yet this venerable and faithful officer, who has served the State and the Institution so long and efficiently, is proscribed, for the great offence of a political difference!

A young lady having bought a pair of shoes a number too small, sent them to a second-hand store to have them sold; whereupon the Teutonic shopkeeper advertised them in his window as follows: "For sale—A tight lady's shoes."

A man cut West shot himself dead to free himself from rheumatism. The cure is called a remarkable one.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

BY AUTHORITY OF CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

SENATE.

FRIDAY, July 24, 1868.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Henry Eppes, negro) Senator from Halifax.

Mr. Osborne presented the credentials of the Hon. Holland Brown, Senator elect from Caldwell County.

On motion of Mr. Lassiter they were referred to the Committee of Investigation.

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. Sneed: A resolution authorizing the Treasurer to negotiate a loan, not to exceed $100,000, to supply a present deficiency.

By Mr. Blythe: A resolution providing for holding evening sessions, from and after to-day.

The following bills were up and were disposed of as follows, viz:

A bill in relation to the Inferior Courts of Equity, referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

A bill to amend chap. 42, sec. 6, of the Revised Code, entitled "Entries and Grants," passed its third reading.

A bill to change the time of fixing and declaring the County and State tax, referred to the Committee on Finance.

A resolution instructing the Committee on Education and Internal Improvements to report a plan for the speedy completion of the Western North Carolina Railroad, referred to said Committee on Internal Improvements.

A bill to require the Trustees for the University of North Carolina to provide rooms for students for whom they are obliged to provide tuition, was amended by inserting those who may be elected hereafter.

Messrs. Osborne and Robbins argued that the amendment was contrary to the provisions of the Constitution, and therefore opposed it.

The bill as amended, passed its second reading and was ordered to be engrossed.

A bill ratifying and confirming the Charter of the North Western North Carolina Railroad Company, referred to the Committee on Internal Improvements.

A bill to repeal the Chatham Railroad Act was made the special order for Tuesday next, at 11 o'clock.

A resolution was reported from the Joint Committee on engrossed and enrolled bills, fixing the Speaker's $10 per day, Clerks $7, Members $5, Doorkeepers $5 and Pages $2 with 20 cts mileage.

Mr. Sneed moved to amend as follows: "Speakers $10, Clerks $7, Members $6" and strike out "Pages."

Mr. Robbins moved to amend as follows: "Speakers $8, Members $5, Clerks $5, Door Keepers $5," and strike out "Pages."

Mr. Shoffner was in favor of $12 for Speakers, $8 for Members, and other officers in proportion.

Mr. Cook offered to amend by allowing Speakers $15, Members $4, Clerks $8 and $7, Doorkeepers $6 and $5, and Pages $2.

Mr. Rich moved to amend by allowing Speakers $12, Members $8, Clerks $8, Doorkeepers $5.

Mr. Davis moved to amend by allowing Speakers $8, Clerks $6, Members $5, Doorkeepers $5, and 20 cents mileage.

All of the foregoing amendments were lost, and the report of the Committee was rejected, by the following vote:

Those who voted in the affirmative are Messrs. Bellamy, Brogden, Etheridge, Eppes, (negro,) Galloway, (negro,) Long, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Rich, Respass, Smith and Shoffner.

Those who voted in the negative are Messrs. Barnes, Burns, Blythe, Colgrove, Cooke, Davis, Eaves, Faikner, Hayes, Hyman, (negro,) Jones, of Wake, Lindsay, Lassiter, Moore, of Yancey, Melchor, Mason, Osborne, Purdie, Richardson, Robbins, Sneed, Walker, and Wynne.

Several hours were consumed in the discussion of this resolution and the amendments offered.

A. H. Galloway, (negro,) said if Gen. Frank Blair was elected, he would disband this body, and he wanted pay enough to have something to get out of the State before he was "assassinated." So far as liberal per diem being unpopular was concerned, it was a matter of no consequence. The Republican party was strong enough to carry any measure through,—that is the men folks, not the women. When the opposite party were in power, they enjoyed the spoils, and he was in favor of following suit. During those times, when they had the reins, he had been charged double fare on Railroads, when Conservatives were riding on the same train without charge, &c.

Mr. Wynne also addressed the Senate in favor of a liberal per diem and contended that Republican members should have some compensation for the proscription, ostracism and "crucifixion" to which they were subjected, socially and otherwise. He asserted that there were not five respectable white men, in the county of Franklin, who supported the Republican ticket, and that not more than that number would recognize him when he returned home, &c., &c.

[NOTE.—The Reporter despairs of being able to report Mr. Wynne. His feelings were overpowered and he—wept!

The discussion was also participated in by Messrs. Osborne, Robbins, Sneed, Shoffner and Cook.

Without coming to any definite conclusion in the matter of fixing per diem, &c., the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The House was called to order at the usual time.

The bill passed its several readings, under the previous the rules, and was ordered to be engrossed and transmitted to the Senate.

Being called up, Senate bill No. 28: "This bill provides for filling vacancies in offices, in which persons were elected who are ineligible to the Board of Commissioners."

After some discussion, the bill was on motion of Estes ordered to be printed.

Following the Joint Committee on Engrossed and enrolled, reported that the Committee had agreed to $10 per day for the Speaker, $7 per day for members and still $7 per day for the pages and 20 cents mileage.

The bill again coming up among a Military Bill, every County was called up as the special order.

Mr. Gatling supported the motion to postpone, and Ashworth opposed it.

Mr. Bowman moved to amend, so as to give to Clerks of townships the power to issue licenses.

The bill, with the proposed amendment, was, on motion, referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

By Stevens: A bill to repeal that provision in the Revised Code, that provides that 30 days' notice shall be given in contested elections. Lies over.

On motion of Justice, of Rutherford, the House then adjourned.

SWEARING IN CARPET BAGGERS.—When these members from Alabama presented themselves at the Speaker's stand to be sworn in, considerable interest and amusement was excited by a colloquy between Mr. Dawes, the chairman of the Committee on Elections, and Mr. Brooks, of New York. Brooks, who, according to Mr. Dawes, always gets off a speech on such occasions, objected to the members from Alabama being sworn in, because, he said, they were not citizens of the State, and had not been elected by the people. One of them, he said, was from Maine. Whereupon Dawes inquired where Brooks was from. The latter replied sharply that he was born in Maine, but that when he left the State, many years ago, he came to New York with a trunk.

This hit at the carpet-baggers created great laughter among the Democrats, and the Republicans manifested their disgust by calling Brooks to order. The latter is already familiarly known among the carpet-baggers as a trunk member. Ross, of Illinois, who is a Democrat, and who has a tendency to be witty on such occasions, walked down the aisle to where the Alabama members were standing, and, looking deliberately at Mr. Pierce, who formerly lived in Illinois, said he was a constituent of his, and he would not object to him. During all this time the carpet-baggers stood amazed and embarrassed under the gaze of the spectators in the galleries and the insinuations of Brooks as to their places of birth.—When they were finally sworn in they retired, greatly relieved, to their seats in the rear of the Hall.—Wash. Cor. New York Herald.

SHARP PRACTICE.—The Norfolk Journal is responsible for the following:

"By a letter from our correspondent in Williamston, N. C., we learn that two of the scallawags from that section of the State had gone up to Raleigh, for the purpose of soliciting office from Holden.

Both were after the same office, and scallawag No. 1., making immediate suit to Holden, got it on Saturday, the 11th. inst., and was to call on Monday to qualify, get his commission, &c. No. 2, becoming aware of this, invited No. 1 out with him to take a buggy ride on Sunday, proposed a drink, then another, and finished by getting No. 1 on a full high bender of a spree, which lasted for nearly a week.

When he came to himself, he found that his buggy friend, scallawag No. 2, had gone to Holden on Tuesday, got his office, qualified, got his commission, and had gone home victorious, as the possessor of a fifteen hundred dollar office."

The New York Times fears the Democratic majority in that city next fall may reach 90,000 votes.

THE FALL SESSION OF 1868 will begin on the 13th day of August.

The success of the institution, under its present administration, has far surpassed the expectations of its most sanguine friends.

CHARGES PER SESSION OF 20 WEEKS:

Board (exclusive of washing and lights) and Tuition in the regular English course and Ancient Languages, $100. Extra Studies moderate. Fee in advance, or remain at the end of the session.

ADVANTAGES.

An able, energetic, and successful Faculty; an extensive and wisely arranged course of study; a judicious and thorough system of instruction; a select Chemical and Philosophical apparatus; a good Library; fine Musical Instruments; a beautiful, pleasant, and healthful location; a large, commodious building, with rooms well ventilated and well warmed in winter; excellent water, good fare, kind attention to the wants of the pupils; mild and efficient government, and ample literary privileges.

For Circulars, containing full particulars, apply to T. M. JONES,

Wake Forest College, N. C.

THE FALL TERM OF THIS INSTITUTION will open on the first day of August 1868, with the prospect of increased patronage and success. The complete assurance given at the recent Commencement of the adaptedness of the University system to the wants of the times, and of its boundless, encouraging usefulness, leads us to believe that the College has entered upon a career of prosperity and usefulness hitherto unknown in its history. The financial embarrassments to which all Southern Colleges have been subjected are not felt to the same extent at Wake Forest as at some others, in consequence of the considerable amount of original endowment saved, and of the favorable reception with which the Agent of the College meets in securing additional funds. An expenditure of more than $2,000 has been recently made in improving the condition of the building and grounds.

Determined to bring its advantages within reach of the largest number possible, the Trustees, seconded by the community, have reduced the price of Board and Tuition to the lowest practicable rates.

The officers of instruction are gentlemen of tried ability in their several departments, and the success attending their efforts in the past is the best guarantee the public can have for the future.

The location of the College in point of healthfulness and accessibility, being situated on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, a few miles from the Capital of the State, is not surpassed by that of any other in the land; while the moral and social influences connected with and surrounding it, and the peculiar discipline enforced, present inducements to patronage of no ordinary kind.

A system of PUBLIC LECTURES on literary and scientific subjects has been introduced, with a view to increase the interest of the young men in the several departments of study and to furnish additional incentives to investigation and research.

Extensive and well selected LIBRARIES belonging to the Societies, and complete APPARATUS, PHILOSOPHICAL and CHEMICAL, are not to be omitted in the enumeration of the advantages possessed.

Another encouraging feature is that there are, at present, thirteen young men preparing for the ministry of the Baptist denomination, who are not to pay tuition fees.

Patronage is solicited from all parts of the country, and those of this class, who are without means, are invited to apply to the Board of Education for further assistance.

Newspaper for Sale.

THE UNDERSIGNED offer for sale, on accommodating terms, the Newspaper and Job Presses, Type, Inks, fixtures and all the other material pertaining to the Fayetteville Newspublishing and printing office, together with the "good will" and subscription list of the same—located in one of the largest towns and best sections of North Carolina, the only weekly paper in all the tier of the nine counties of Bladen, Sampson, Robeson, Cumberland, Moore, Chatham, Randolph, Montgomery and Richmond. The Fayetteville News offers first-rate inducements to the purchaser. During the past two years it has nearly tripled its circulation, has constantly increased its material—and paid for it—and will exhibit a showing of its receipts a very gratifying contrast.

One of the proprietors having decided to remove to another State, and the other not feeling inclined or fitted to carry on the business alone, this sale has been deemed necessary; and the terms are unusually easy. Any person desiring to purchase, that the present proprietors of the paper are not about to abandon its publication from any feelings of enmity.
