which they parade. A direumstanes related to us by Nisjar Maxen, of South Carolina, may help to unrarel the mystery.

Some weeks ago a collin was received at Now Market, a station on the milroad, about twenty-five miles above Dorn's Mine, in Edge-field District, marked to a nored Radical. The suspicious of the station master being excited by its weight, it was opened and found to contain new Enfeitd rifles. These were taken out, and a few days after the collin was iddirected to the person to whom at was addressed, who had person to whom it was addressed, who had the prudence to keep silent in regard to the > to I was reduced to the description of the latter of the PHNNSYLVANIA. - The work goes bravely on. In addition to the long list of meetings, held under the immediate auspices of the State Committee, the local canvassas or-State Committee, the local canvassas or-dered by that committee are vigorously prosecuted in every locality. There is marriely a county for the State Ly which the crators are not upon the stump, arousing the people to fee vital importance of the pending issue. In glancing at the newspapers of the different localities, we see twenty-two meetings advantised in Venango county, ninetees in Northumb claud county, ten la Pracklin county, fifteen in Chester county, nine in Indiana county, thirmen in Boaver county, sevention in Cambria county, eleven in Butler, county, sixteen in Payette, moreon in Combertand county, eleven in Fultan county, twenty-typ in Armstrong, and core sponding practices in many others. This is the effective way to reach the people, and must bell upon the result.—Philadelphia Age.

CHECK BOX TO SERVE Lawlessages.—The unsettled condition of our context, and the incapacity and in difference generally of those appointed ascervil officers, give almost unfinited power to bud men so disposed to commit deeds a f lawlessness with little or nu fear of detection, A cobbery was perpetuted in this county poon the 13th, which from holdness and nucleity is unperdocable. A crowl of tweeter or fitteen men, a majority supposed to lawn been whites dispulsed, went for the real-dance of Dr. E. A. Crudup, some distance, below Leutsburg, and demanded money. Being told that there was none in the house, or for them, they fustituted a sound and successied, we learn, in finding a small loss. The robbers were followed some 'dis loss. The rabbus were relieved some dis-tance, ligh finally separa ing, all traces were lost. Under the present "rabe" there is not probability of any further steps being taken to breed out the parag. We give the loss as we have beard them,—figureers Index.
