THE SENTINEL.

CONTEMPT OF COLET.

Since the influx of carpet bag politicisms lowers to high places by the newly-inmuchine , "contempt of Court," heretere of talk securionce, has become atmost on as any other entry on the Court lockel. We have had "contempt" seeses. of sauser, in North Carolina, but such exabilions are not confined to our State, but or common all over the South is

North Carolina were made by Siegles, gasty, and the precious Freedman's Bureau They not only had defined to, and set as usught therefore and decrees of Courts, on seal armed men to release from prison erous of despicable character, cantood most heldous crimes, and, in many case 4, the persons so released were an tergoing or santing punishment, after trial and conthe lawful Courts. It would ocspr more space than we have, to entimeto the bureliests of instances in which this was done in North Carolina, but we may sention a ten, at specimens of the distored to sud contempt for the Courts, du ang the re go of Military District Commanmeets to the neighboring town of Oxand to release a negro who had been conbe negro had confessed his guilt and achath which had been pronounced against on Netwithstanding this, Ben, Camby orbid ids execution. The pails of Edgeonle and Nash were opened by the sword, and the authority of the Courts set at desance by the arbitrary release of prisoners online! in them for various offences against the law among them, Major Tatten, a bigh dignitary in the Leagues, who had or dered the arrest of a colored member of the bethought proper, He and others were re-

These were evil examples; bad precedenfs to set, and they have had their inflaence. Gov. Holden set the Court at defiance in the case of Henderson Adams, State Auditor, and actually released him from the custody of the Marshall, while Leing taken to jail under an order of the Supreme Court of the State. These are only a few samples of the disregard of officials to the authority of law and of their utter contempt of Court in our own State.

The tollowing is a case of contempt of State, who happened to be pro-eat and wilnessed the scene, recently, in Camelen, Arkaneas. The parties to the affair were Judge McCown, Sheriff Beanchamp and Coroner Moses Winton, Judge McCown, like some of our North Carolina Judges, "takes sugar m his'o;" in other words, the sugar in his whiskey and right smart of whiskey in tris sugar. On the occasion of the recent term of Superior Court for Cam den, the Judge had adjourned the Court to I n'clock P. M. During the recess, a disputs arose between the Judge and the Sheriff, as to whether the Court had been adjourned to 2 o'clock, or to half after one, and protty high and angry words ensued. The Judge went upon the bench and fined the Sheriff $1,000, and ordered him to jail for a contempt of Court." The Sheriff con, tended that he had been guilty of mo contempt—that the Judge had adjourned the Court to 2 o'clock. An Attenney present o'clock."

"I fine you twen'y dollars," said the Judge to the Attorney; "Your opinion was | cabinet officials," not asked. Coroner Winton was ordered to arrest the Sheriff. The Sheriff would coting the orders of the Court; and said, if the Coroner would sutamon him (the Judge,) he would arrest the Sheriff and take him to juil.

The Sheriff said, sucither you nor your d-d crowd can take me to jail; I defy you all." With these words he stopped into his room for his pistots. It was whispered in the Judge's car that the Sheriff wished to see him. The Judge left the Beach and went into the Sheriff's room, where they tried, in yain, to settle the que lion of contempt, From words they soon came to lows. The Sheriff knocked the Judge down and matiled him severely. This bout with the Sheriff of Camden occurred on Saturday of the term; on Monday the Judge called the Court again, his lage fisticuffs, and his excellence as an executate. officer. The Judge, after the Court was opened, speingized to the citisus, the Steriff and the Bas, for his conduct on Saturday, ushing those all to forgive him, as he was drunk at the time.

The week before this, at Henderson Court in the same State, the Judge had attacked the Soliciter for "contempt" and fined him

At Hampstend, during the section of the Court, the Sheril and Solicitor had a fight, and both were fined for contempt of Court. During the same term, the Judge fined the Court (hims if) ten dollars and planked it up. It was close in this way, James Green, a member of the "pett; jury," in recess, asked the Judge permission to be abagut pext day, and it was quanted. Red cite

The next day he was called and not answering, the Judge ordered a see against him of $10. The day after when he was called, he reminded the Judge of the fact that he had given hardeave or abacco the the South and the election of camp day before, whereign the Judge results: the fine against three and topossed it on hunself for giving the permission We commend the example of the Arkansas Judge at Camden, to our own high judicial inactionaries. Such a course, would have exhibited them in a much better light to the world, than the lame opinion delivered by Judge Pearson, by which it was attempted The first exhibitions of contempt of Court, to justify and bolster up the proceedings of the Court in our late "contempt" case.
