DR. THOMAS H. TURNER having returned to his old home, offers his professional services to the citizens of Hillsboro and vicinity. 3w

POOR LEE'S LECTURE LAST NIGHT.—Tucker Hall was visited by a good audience last night to hear the Lecture of Prof. S. Adams Lee, on "God in the Ocean," a subject which was treated in eloquent style by the Lecturer. The audience, though not as large as it ought to have been, was composed mainly of that class of persons most capable of appreciating the sublime and beautiful, and we believe the universal sentiment was, that the subject was beautifully, eloquently, and gracefully handled.

THEY WON'T STAND IT.—The House of Commons resolved itself into a Committee of the Whole on yesterday, for the purpose of investigating alleged frauds in regard to certain Railroad bonds. Treasurer Jenkins was called to the Bar of the House, and on examination stated he had issued to the different Companies the bonds appropriated to them.

But Treasurer Jenkins was the wrong witness to call first. Gen. Littlefield should have been sent for; as, we have no doubt, when he is called he will be in Florida, or somewhere else outside of North Carolina. Mark the prediction.

We fear the House will not investigate this matter as it should. Mr. Moore, of Chowan, by his quibbling questions, seems disposed to throw difficulties in the way.

If the House continues the investigation in Committee of the Whole, it will produce a considerable stampede; we fear it will give even the Governor a nervous headache.

PERSONAL.—We have hitherto inadvertently omitted to notice the arrival in the city of Hon. Ed. Cantwell, the man who wore the first secesh cockade ever seen in Raleigh, and who was afterwards Confederate military Governor of the city of Norfolk, and now, by the grace of Radicalism, Judge of the Special Court of Wilmington. He visits the city, we presume, to induce the Legislature not to plug up the snug hole that was made for him at Wilmington, but to continue to afford him an opportunity of procuring his rations, which the Legislature has shown some disposition to cut off.

SOMETHING WRONG.—"Something has got into the sun, moon, stars and earth, which has upset their usual line of conduct." Standard, 26.

We thought something of the sort had happened when we saw Pike and his friend going from Fraps' toward the Standard office, the previous afternoon.

We were yesterday shown by Mr. S. D. Wait, General Agent of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co., a receipt for three thousand eighty-two dollars and ninety-eight cents, from a widow of a prominent citizen of Newbern, who died quite suddenly, from the bursting of a blood vessel. Mr. Wait tells us, although the party was insured but one year and one month, yet the company paid the $3,000 insurance and two dividends $82.98. He also states that this payment makes over twenty-three thousand dollars paid by the company in this State within less than one year. This shows how all important it is for the good people of North Carolina to be well assured, and that in a good and reliable company, like the Connecticut Mutual, which has passed the period of probation and experiment, and stands now strong in itself, and imparting strength instead of needing it. See new advertisement.

Self Advertised.—PHALON'S VITALIA OR SALVATION for the Hair carries with it its own best advertisement. As the light shines through the bottle you see that the liquid is clear as the azure of heaven. You smell it and find the odor agreeable. You apply it and it changes gray hair to any natural shade without scaling the scalp or producing headache. Nothing can be more harmless.

In selecting a company in which to take a policy of life insurance, "he is the wisest man who, apart from all glitter and show, to say nothing of false pretence, reasons to himself, 'which one of all the companies affords, by reason of past experience and present inducement, the strongest and surest guarantee that my insurance shall be productive of the largest possible benefit?' The necessity of the pointing out the wisdom or the advantage of insuring one's life, no longer require exhortation. The problem is not whether a life insurance is desirable, but, given the amount which every man can afford to pay for a policy, the question which presents itself is, 'which company will give the best and cheapest guaranty?' That company is the CONNECTICUT MUTUAL.

A SPLENDID PUMP.—By reference to an advertisement in another column, it will be seen that Mr. J. L. Kitchen, of Pitt co., has obtained the exclusive right to sell Balding's Patent Glass submerged Double-Acting Force Pump throughout the States of North and South Carolina. He is now getting ready to manufacture these pumps, and will furnish them to the public in any section. The reputation this pump has obtained over all others is sufficient evidence of its merit. The great virtue in it is that it has no friction, and it worked in a well in which there is no sand the packing will last fifteen years, and it will never get out of order.

Ladies suffering from any disease peculiar to their sex, can be restored to health by using Dr. LAWRENCE'S "WOMAN'S FRIEND." It purifies the secretions, and restores the system to a healthy condition.

SELLING OUT.

The introduction of a bill by Mr. Samuel Barnett of Person, for the sale of the State's interest in Railroads, will bring from Wall Street certain bond holders, who have been operating through General Littlefield for four years in the "Province of North Carolina." It was said by some who favored the late fraudulent lease of the North Carolina Road, that Littlefield and the Ring defeated the lease that they might buy the Road. It was actual grabbing in the Stock holders, meeting to consider the lease, that McClure's bid, offering twenty-five thousand a year more than the Raleigh and Gaston Road had agreed to give, was in fact, a bid of the Ring, that they might defeat the lease. We stated last session that Sweet's Committee on bribery and corruption had kept Littlefield out of the city, and therefore he did not have a fair chance to get the bill through for a sale of the Road.

We hardly think that Littlefield, now that he is present, will be able to buy up enough members for the sale of the Road, there were less than twenty for it last session.

The committee who located the Penitentiary on Deep river, we would put down as for it. Willie D. Jones and some members along the line of the Raleigh & Gaston Road we would put down as for it, also.

Gen'l. Phill Hawkins was elected, we think, with the view of selling or leasing the Road. General Phillips a working man and he will not hesitate to use the necessary ways and means to accomplish the sale or lease.

There was enough State bonds out to make the Wall Street swindlers rich, they would have made no great effort to sell the Road but their fruit ripened before it was ripe. State bonds are not in. A gentleman from New York tells us so far from State bonds being worth 33 they are actually not worth 25. There is no market or sale for them, not bonds are quoted yesterday at 44¼ bid. It is fear Wall street and Littlefield must have your Railroad property. Your bonds, we say, have rotted in their pockets, the Railroads will give to these Shylocks the power for all time to come to rob the people of the State who travel, or ship more than all of North Carolina.

We look up in the sale of Railroad property of the State as the last calamity that can fall upon a conquered, spirit-broken, bankrupt people. The honor and credit of the State is by corruption and the sword been taken from the active born and given to the unholy keeping of Littlefield, Littlefield, Abbott, I. Hinton, Dowdney, Heaton, Ashley and the defaulter Ed's with their carpet bag allies. Her honor and her credit lie prostrate in the dust.

The fruit the people now eat is of the tree those ingrates planted, its thorns tear them and they can not break, the people should have known what fruit would spring from such a seed.

For the Sentinel.

EUREKA!

MR. TURNER:—The ancient Romans cultivated the science of Legislation with so much care and refinement that they had laws to instruct them how to make laws; we have borrowed many valuable suggestions from the Roman Jurisprudence, but would appear to have neglected this sagacious provision to our sorrow.

Ignorant and unconstitutional legislation, has already cost the State tens of thousands of dollars, and the costly blundering still continues. It is a matter of public notoriety that one half the members of the General Assembly are destitute of a solitary qualification for the important duties devolving upon them; and as there is no likelihood of any general improvement, so long as the Radical party maintains its grip on the government, which may be for years, every good citizen ought to be looking about for a remedy suitable to the unhappy dilemma. I have found one—an excellent one!—and as you have great influence with the Governor and his "boys" in the Capitol, I'll thank you to mention it to them.

Let the Constitution be amended so as to provide for the election of State officers, and Representatives, eighteen months in advance of their term; let each member elect be required to report to Prof. Pool, at Chapel Hill—if he dont report, send a colored militiaman after him; let the assembled officers and Representatives be penned up in the halls and dormitories of the University, and authority be given the illustrious faculty of the Institution, to experiment, to the best of its ability in developing "young ideas," during the eighteen months. The State, of course, to bear all expense. Dont you see the wisdom and sagacity of this plan at a glance? If not I will explain further.

By this method, triplicate jects would be accomplished. Every legislator would be taught to read, write, and cypher; the University would be sustained, and Solomon's heart made glad; and the people might feel satisfied that their Representatives had been in the State at least eighteen months, previous to entering upon their duties, and that they hadn't been at any mischief during that period. The session might terminate three weeks before the assembling of the Legislature in order to allow any members residing in the State, to go home to their wives. The benefits of the method might be extended by providing for a course of lectures, by distinguished living orators, jurists, and sages. Let Judges Tourgee, Watts, and Jones be appointed to expound the principles of constitutional law, twice a day, six days in the week, for the benefit of the graduating class. Maj. Marcus Erwin might open the course with an address entitled "Omnia reliquit servare Republicam" he left all things to serve the Republic (in office); to be followed by Prof. Ashley's great apostrophe to the carpet-bagger—"Quibus mea mecum porto!" (all that is mine I carry with me.) Hon. Wm. Coleman, whose narrow escape from an infuriated colored female in Cabarrus county is well known by the public, would doubtless contribute an "opinion" throwing much light upon that dark transaction. Maj. Smith might read an essay on the "science of Railroading, as applied to personal interests;" or if otherwise engaged, perhaps Gen. Littlefield might find time to treat that subject. Senator Stephens would take pleasure in illustrating the "triumphs of virtue," by sketching the career of a modest colored man from the chicken coops of Caswell to the floor of the Senate. The season closing with a grand panoramic view of the political history of North Carolina, by W. W. Holden & Son, entitled, "The Summersault, or How to be always turning and always right side up."

But this is a mere out line of the plan I would suggest. Doubtless, it could be improved, and would be very popular with the Legislature. Please urge it.

WIDE AWAKE.

Tribute of Respect.

At a special meeting of Johnston Caswell Lodge No. 10, held Nov. 10th, 1869, a committee was appointed to draft resolutions to the memory of Brother WILLIAM A. JENKINS, who reported the following which was unanimously adopted.

WHEREAS it has pleased Almighty God, the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, to remove from our midst, our lamented brother COL. WILLIAM A. JENKINS, therefore be it,

Resolved, That in this all wise visitation of Divine Providence in the death of our beloved friend and member, we yield with the keenest regret and most heartfelt sorrow.

Resolved, That by this bereavement the community has lost one of its best citizens, his profession one of its brightest ornaments and our fraternity a true and consistant member.

Resolved, That we will ever revere the memory of his many virtues, and strive to emulate his bright example in our daily walk and conversation.

Resolved, That to the afflicted family we offer our tenderest sympathy, and gently point the sorrowing widow to Him who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb, for consolation in this her irreparable loss.

Resolved, That the members of this Lodge wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased and to the Living Present and Raleigh Sentinel for publication.

COMMITTEE.—Jno. M. Waddill, W. A. White, J. R. Johnson.
