THE NEURO CLAIM UPON THE RADICALS

The unjust and determined effort of the white Radical leaders to exclude colored men from office of trust and profit among them, who can be done with safety to the party, is too bad and is only equalled by their seditious, blighting conduct in general.

As a matter of sheer justice and right therefore, to the colored people, we contend that Sykes, Pasquotank, or any other decent negro in the first District, is more entitled to the nomination for Congress than Cobb or Pool or any other white scalawag or carpet-bagger.

So in the fourth District, such colored men as J. H. Harris or Hyman, or any decent negro, is more deserving of the nomination than Lassiter, our kilted man, or Cook, of Johnston, or Mason, of Orange, or any other white scalawag or carpet-bagger.

James Harr, a radical speaking, is the right man in the right place. If we are to elect, (which, however, we don't think will be done) we are for James, we prefer him to any man of his party, not excepting Badger, Hargrove or Phillips.

"BIRDS OF A FEATHER," &c. In old times the characters of men were determined pretty much by the company they kept.

Who ever heard before of a Governor of a State being the head of a secret political organization? Who ever heard before of a Governor of a State going into a party Convention and attempting to control its action?

These things are reported on. It is also reported to us that Billy entertained Messrs. Phillips, Badger, Hargrove, Barstinger, (Vic.) and the whole Convention, including the convicted and unconvicted felons, by deouncing us as "bar, coward, villain," &c.

Now, we would want a better report than to run Billy down when he left Lexington on a certain occasion, with the sharp end of a pitch fork.

Mr. Everett:—Has the Hon. T. L. Clingman advertised again in the Standard? I have not heard a word from him since his "advertisement" of the 23d ult. He seems a little tardy.

I asked a friend, a few days ago, why Mr. Clingman's address had never been noticed by Gov. Graham or Gov. Vance. He replied, "they would have to stoop too low to reach it."

Perhaps it is proper for me to state in this connection, that in former days, Mr. Clingman was my political school teacher, and as such, I admired him, though I always knew he was not particularly great for his education as a politician.

It is my duty to state, when Mr. Clingman got to be a Democrat, how I distinguished him from the "radical king" to which Mr. Clingman has referred. Among other things he said "the Democratic party was left together by the collective power of public opinion."

At first the doctrine of secession, which may have been right under certain circumstances, met with formidable opposition, but soon it gained a hold on the public mind, which promised to overcome all opposition to it.

The election of Mr. Lincoln was seized upon by Mr. Clingman and his secessionist friends as the occasion to test the practicability of this doctrine. The desire was to secede peacefully if we might, but force if we must; in other words, the time and now come when the secession doctrine must be entered at the point of the sword, unless our right to secede was acknowledged by the government at Washington.
