

The Semi-Weekly Sentinel.

RALEIGH N. C. SATURDAY, JULY 23, 1870. NO. 100

THE SENTINEL.

Published weekly, except on Sundays and public holidays, at Raleigh, N. C., by J. M. WARD, Proprietor.

TAXPAYERS REMEMBER!

When the session of North Carolina opens in the fall, the tax on the 31st day of August next, let from November the following laws.

Under the last year of Gov. Worth's administration, the entire expenses of the State government were, in round numbers, $304,000.

Under the first year of Gov. Holden's administration, the expenses of the State government were, in round numbers, $746,000.

And you had to pay it!

Under the last year of Gov. Worth's administration, the expenses of keeping the Capitol Square here in Raleigh were $464.25.

Under the first year of Gov. Holden's administration, the expenses of keeping the Capitol Square here in Raleigh were $1,004.17.

The Superintendent of Public Buildings, under the last year of Gov. Worth's administration, got for his services $500.00.

The keeper of the Capitol under the first year of Gov. Holden's administration, got for his services $1,004.17!

We just give these items of expense as samples of the increase in all departments of the State government, and the taxpayers have to bear the burden. If your wives and children have to eat bread alone, and you have to go to the State prison, think of this when you go to vote.

And think also of the increased amount that will be laid on you next year to pay the expenses of the State government.

Let your men, think of these things. Taxpayers, men who have to dig your money out of the ground, think of the heavy taxes they will heap on you, and then vote.

THE DUTY OF GOOD MEN.

It is now manifest beyond a doubt that the object of Holden, Pool & Co., is to carry the approaching election by intimidation and force, and to this end an army in express violation of law, at the cost of tens of thousands of dollars of the people's money has been organized and sent out to arrest many of the more prominent and best citizens of the State.

We trust the people of all parties recognize this despotic purpose, and will quietly and with unwavering determination go to the polls and vote for good and true men to fill the offices of the State, who pledge themselves not to vote a dollar to pay for this army of despotism, and will vote to hold Holden and his co-workers to rigid account for their infamous crimes. It is matter of highest moment, that the people, at least all good men of all parties, should stand shoulder to shoulder in this emergency. It is not a question of party, the simple question is shall dishonest, corrupt and irresponsible men be turned out of office, and honest capable ones be put in office to administer the State government. That is the issue, no matter who the man is or what his party notions, if he is fairly resolved to turn out of office in the strictest way all who have robbed and disgraced the State, again we say to the people of all parties, be firm and quiet, and go to the polls and vote against the greedy scamps who loot, outrage and plunder the State.

THE NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD BOND TRANSACTION.

It may be well to refresh the recollection of our readers in reference to the sale of certain Railroad bonds which belonged to the State, during the present administration of the State government. The facts are these, substantially: The State owns $3,000,000 stock in the North Carolina Railroad Company. Just before Holden and Company came into power, this Company declared a dividend of 6 per cent to be paid in the mortgage bonds of the Company. So the State got $180,000 of the bonds. These bonds were and are to day, the best public bonds in the State; they have always been worth 90 cents in the dollar.

The Governor and Treasurer sold them and for what? Just 65 cents in the dollar! The State, in this transaction, lost $54,000. Some body made that sum. To whom did the Governor and Treasurer sell these bonds? To George W. Swopes!! Do the people see the milk in the coconut?—The Ring? Ah, the slightly "Ring."

It has done more to impoverish the State and ruin its credit than all things else, not Holden's lawless army excepted.

Let the people, Conservatives and Republicans, white people and black people, all remember that the effort of the "Radicals," at the approaching election, is to keep Holden & Co. and the Ring in power. The Radical Convention that nominated Mr. Phillips expressly endorsed Holden and his administration, and Phillips goes in on this resolution. Nobody knows better how Holden & Co. and the Ring have availed the State than Mr. Phillips, and yet he goes for the resolution endorsing Holden, Ring and his co-conspirators, and keeping him in power to commit more crimes against the people. By the way, does Mr. Phillips endorse Holden's military policy? Let some one call him out at once.

REVIEWING THE TROOPS.

Dad walked down to the Baptist Grove where a portion of his negro troops from Newbern were quartered. He went to review them and was heard to say to one of his surgeons that "we are now to have a second rebellion; let it come on, I am prepared for it."

Dad can't get it up even with the assistance of Kirk, Dr. Aredell and Eldredge Dick. "Let us have peace."

KIRK IN THE WEST.

A prominent Republican in the West writes as follows to a gentleman in this city. We are gratified to learn that hundreds of Republicans in the mountains disapprove of and denounce openly Gov. Holden's lawless usurpation and military schemes and outrages, and many of them openly proclaim that they will vote with the Conservatives. There is a distinction between Radicalism and Republicanism, and the prospect is that the Republicans will utterly repudiate Holden and company as General Dockery has done. The truth is, this Kirk movement ought to damn, forever, every man who suggested, aided, endorsed or connived in any shape or form. It is a deliberate conspiracy to overturn the constitution and laws and substitute in power, by force of arms, a man whom the people justly detest. Pool pretends to dislike "carpet baggers," as we learn, and yet he presided at the last Radical Convention in this city, which endorsed Holden and his administration, while Pool knew that Holden had kept up the "carpet baggers" and sustained them from the beginning. But for Hold, a "carpet bagger" could never have plundered the States as they have, and Pool endorses Holden. They are fit persons to fraternize.

They are fit persons to fraternize, and to be in the same room with the people's just detest. Pool pretends to dislike "carpet baggers," as we learn, and yet he presided at the last Radical Convention in this city, which endorsed Holden and his administration, while Pool knew that Holden had kept up the "carpet baggers" and sustained them from the beginning.

But for Hold, a "carpet bagger" could never have plundered the States as they have, and Pool endorses Holden. They are fit persons to fraternize, and to be in the same room with the people's just detest.

Pool pretends to dislike "carpet baggers," as we learn, and yet he presided at the last Radical Convention in this city, which endorsed Holden and his administration, while Pool knew that Holden had kept up the "carpet baggers" and sustained them from the beginning.

But for Hold, a "carpet bagger" could never have plundered the States as they have, and Pool endorses Holden. They are fit persons to fraternize, and to be in the same room with the people's just detest.

Pool pretends to dislike "carpet baggers," as we learn, and yet he presided at the last Radical Convention in this city, which endorsed Holden and his administration, while Pool knew that Holden had kept up the "carpet baggers" and sustained them from the beginning.

But for Hold, a "carpet bagger" could never have plundered the States as they have, and Pool endorses Holden. They are fit persons to fraternize, and to be in the same room with the people's just detest.

Pool pretends to dislike "carpet baggers," as we learn, and yet he presided at the last Radical Convention in this city, which endorsed Holden and his administration, while Pool knew that Holden had kept up the "carpet baggers" and sustained them from the beginning.

But for Hold, a "carpet bagger" could never have plundered the States as they have, and Pool endorses Holden. They are fit persons to fraternize, and to be in the same room with the people's just detest.

Pool pretends to dislike "carpet baggers," as we learn, and yet he presided at the last Radical Convention in this city, which endorsed Holden and his administration, while Pool knew that Holden had kept up the "carpet baggers" and sustained them from the beginning.

But for Hold, a "carpet bagger" could never have plundered the States as they have, and Pool endorses Holden. They are fit persons to fraternize, and to be in the same room with the people's just detest.

Pool pretends to dislike "carpet baggers," as we learn, and yet he presided at the last Radical Convention in this city, which endorsed Holden and his administration, while Pool knew that Holden had kept up the "carpet baggers" and sustained them from the beginning.

But for Hold, a "carpet bagger" could never have plundered the States as they have, and Pool endorses Holden. They are fit persons to fraternize, and to be in the same room with the people's just detest.

Pool pretends to dislike "carpet baggers," as we learn, and yet he presided at the last Radical Convention in this city, which endorsed Holden and his administration, while Pool knew that Holden had kept up the "carpet baggers" and sustained them from the beginning.

But for Hold, a "carpet bagger" could never have plundered the States as they have, and Pool endorses Holden. They are fit persons to fraternize, and to be in the same room with the people's just detest.

Pool pretends to dislike "carpet baggers," as we learn, and yet he presided at the last Radical Convention in this city, which endorsed Holden and his administration, while Pool knew that Holden had kept up the "carpet baggers" and sustained them from the beginning.

But for Hold, a "carpet bagger" could never have plundered the States as they have, and Pool endorses Holden. They are fit persons to fraternize, and to be in the same room with the people's just detest.

Pool pretends to dislike "carpet baggers," as we learn, and yet he presided at the last Radical Convention in this city, which endorsed Holden and his administration, while Pool knew that Holden had kept up the "carpet baggers" and sustained them from the beginning.

But for Hold, a "carpet bagger" could never have plundered the States as they have, and Pool endorses Holden. They are fit persons to fraternize, and to be in the same room with the people's just detest.

Pool pretends to dislike "carpet baggers," as we learn, and yet he presided at the last Radical Convention in this city, which endorsed Holden and his administration, while Pool knew that Holden had kept up the "carpet baggers" and sustained them from the beginning.

But for Hold, a "carpet bagger" could never have plundered the States as they have, and Pool endorses Holden. They are fit persons to fraternize, and to be in the same room with the people's just detest.

Pool pretends to dislike "carpet baggers," as we learn, and yet he presided at the last Radical Convention in this city, which endorsed Holden and his administration, while Pool knew that Holden had kept up the "carpet baggers" and sustained them from the beginning.

But for Hold, a "carpet bagger" could never have plundered the States as they have, and Pool endorses Holden. They are fit persons to fraternize, and to be in the same room with the people's just detest.

Pool pretends to dislike "carpet baggers," as we learn, and yet he presided at the last Radical Convention in this city, which endorsed Holden and his administration, while Pool knew that Holden had kept up the "carpet baggers" and sustained them from the beginning.

But for Hold, a "carpet bagger" could never have plundered the States as they have, and Pool endorses Holden. They are fit persons to fraternize, and to be in the same room with the people's just detest.

Pool pretends to dislike "carpet baggers," as we learn, and yet he presided at the last Radical Convention in this city, which endorsed Holden and his administration, while Pool knew that Holden had kept up the "carpet baggers" and sustained them from the beginning.

But for Hold, a "carpet bagger" could never have plundered the States as they have, and Pool endorses Holden. They are fit persons to fraternize, and to be in the same room with the people's just detest.

Pool pretends to dislike "carpet baggers," as we learn, and yet he presided at the last Radical Convention in this city, which endorsed Holden and his administration, while Pool knew that Holden had kept up the "carpet baggers" and sustained them from the beginning.

But for Hold, a "carpet bagger" could never have plundered the States as they have, and Pool endorses Holden. They are fit persons to fraternize, and to be in the same room with the people's just detest.

Pool pretends to dislike "carpet baggers," as we learn, and yet he presided at the last Radical Convention in this city, which endorsed Holden and his administration, while Pool knew that Holden had kept up the "carpet baggers" and sustained them from the beginning.

But for Hold, a "carpet bagger" could never have plundered the States as they have, and Pool endorses Holden. They are fit persons to fraternize, and to be in the same room with the people's just detest.

Pool pretends to dislike "carpet baggers," as we learn, and yet he presided at the last Radical Convention in this city, which endorsed Holden and his administration, while Pool knew that Holden had kept up the "carpet baggers" and sustained them from the beginning.

But for Hold, a "carpet bagger" could never have plundered the States as they have, and Pool endorses Holden. They are fit persons to fraternize, and to be in the same room with the people's just detest.

Pool pretends to dislike "carpet baggers," as we learn, and yet he presided at the last Radical Convention in this city, which endorsed Holden and his administration, while Pool knew that Holden had kept up the "carpet baggers" and sustained them from the beginning.

But for Hold, a "carpet bagger" could never have plundered the States as they have, and Pool endorses Holden. They are fit persons to fraternize, and to be in the same room with the people's just detest.

Pool pretends to dislike "carpet baggers," as we learn, and yet he presided at the last Radical Convention in this city, which endorsed Holden and his administration, while Pool knew that Holden had kept up the "carpet baggers" and sustained them from the beginning.

But for Hold, a "carpet bagger" could never have plundered the States as they have, and Pool endorses Holden. They are fit persons to fraternize, and to be in the same room with the people's just detest.

Pool pretends to dislike "carpet baggers," as we learn, and yet he presided at the last Radical Convention in this city, which endorsed Holden and his administration, while Pool knew that Holden had kept up the "carpet baggers" and sustained them from the beginning.

But for Hold, a "carpet bagger" could never have plundered the States as they have, and Pool endorses Holden. They are fit persons to fraternize, and to be in the same room with the people's just detest.

Pool pretends to dislike "carpet baggers," as we learn, and yet he presided at the last Radical Convention in this city, which endorsed Holden and his administration, while Pool knew that Holden had kept up the "carpet baggers" and sustained them from the beginning.

URGENT FOR DARE.

The Governor, it is apparent, furnishes editorial matter to the Standard. His can't disguise his anger and style. The impudence and want of truth clearly point to the article as from the pen of the Governor. The Governor says if an attempt be made to rescue the men held as prisoners by Kirk they will be shot, and Kirk says if attempt is made to enforce the writs, the prisoners shall be shot.

He begins and concludes an article "resist if you dare." He has a hundred negro from Newbern in camp on Nash Square, which is just across the street from his house and he is hallooing to the white people "resist if you dare." You want resistance, and as soon as Judge Pearson speaks you will be resisted by the down Kirk, Holden and the wicked who refuse to live in peace under the constitution and the law.

While the counsel for Kirk's prisoners were arguing the case, one of the prisoners, Boyd, appeared in the Governor's room, wrote his own bond, giving him in the sum of $50,000 to appear before Holden's friend Kirk, upon five days notice being given.

Gov. Pearson in his arrogant assumption of power, has thrown his eyes upon the door.

As soon as Mr. Boyd's campaign is over, we hope he will surrender to Kirk and go back to prison. We hope so other prisoners will give bail to Kirk or Holden, until a warrant is sued out and proof made against him sufficient to bind him over.

We want our old friend, Henderson Scott, with the faith of a true Presbyterian, to remain in prison until discharged by law. Give no bail until required by a magistrate and the law. If those old Presbyterians, of blessed memory, Dr. Mitchell, Dr. Phillips and Dr. Wilson, were here, you would have their prayers not to give bail, and if Judge Pearson, as the law demands that he should do, will order the arrest of Kirk for contempt, these old fathers of the Church would add a musket to their prayers and march to your relief. There is one churchman from whom you need look for no prayers, and that is Samuel Phillips. His failure to denounce your arrest is an approval of it, his prayers therefore would be hypocritical or of no other value.

When you are released from prison, as you will be, your false brother Phillips comes to tell you how sorry he was for your imprisonment, lest him over the head with your stick. We know you are not able to stand without your stick, but take a seat and use your stick upon him.

We know you were not allowed to talk to your friends. If Holden, the devil incarnate, will order Kirk to allow you to receive it, your friends in the Hawfields will telegraph to Danville to start a load of ice with other things necessary for the comfort of yourself and friends. We know how sorely you are afflicted, but we say in the name of God, Liberty and the Presbyterian Church, give no bail to Kirk or Holden. If Kirk will take a substitute for you, we are authorized to say that your pastor, Rev. Anderson G. Hughes, will take your place in prison, and every male member of his congregation will go with him. We believe there are no two Presbyterians of your acquaintance in the State who would not do so, except Samuel Phillips and Wm. L. Scott.

SLY AND SNEAKING.

The Radical party of this State; we mean the leaders and guiding spirits of it, have so long habituated themselves to sly, sneaking operations that it seems impossible for them to come out in the open day and do anything frankly and aboveboard.

Their party was organized in the dark and midnight assemblies of the leagues. Their plans and machinations were concocted, and their orders issued, in these secret, midnight conclaves.

Their legislation was all planned, cut and dried in secret sessions before it was brought before the body publicly; and the same of their members selected to vote according to the secret direction.

The Executive has carried on his administration by secret, sneaking agencies. He sold the school lands secretly, without advertising; he employs, speaking secret detectives to go about as spies among the people; he gets information from lying, unreliable secret agents, grocers and others, behind closed doors.

In short, nothing is done, secretly, but by sly, sneaking, underhand means; and now that the election is coming on, they can't even print their tickets like honest folks, but have the work done with closed doors and great mystery.

They are a sly, material, sneaking, unscrupulous set, that can't do anything in a straight forward, open manner.

The Findsider says, the canvass is progressing most satisfactorily in Rutherford county. The people are aroused there, as everywhere, at the recent rapid strides towards despotism on the part of Radical leaders.

Mr. Phillips had not a small crowd out to hear him at Rutherford.

John T. Wainwright, Esq., is announced as a Conservative candidate for the House of Representatives in Rutherford county, with good prospects being elected.

A CARD.

I learn that it has been reported on the streets in Raleigh that I had been liberated from my confinement by Col. Kirk because I had given information as to crimes committed in Alamance involving the guilt of other parties. I take this method of correcting this report. I have neither given nor promised to give any such information and possess none such that I could communicate. I was liberated upon such grounds, but upon giving a bond for my appearance and keeping the peace prescribed by military authority.

JAMES E. BOYD.

July 20th, 1870.

THE CAMPAIGN OPENS IN GRANVILLE.

The campaign in this county opened today. It will be lively and spirited. Some excellent speaking talent is enlisted on both sides, and the general opinion is that the contest will be close.

The Democrats and Conservatives have, in the person of Col. L. C. Edwards, a distinguished and eloquent champion of reform and constitutional government. His speech, this evening, in reply to K. W. Laster was unanswerable. The whole official conduct of that gentleman was laid open and laid to the compass.

It is a pity that I did not have the opportunity to see him, but I thought it best under all the circumstances, in order to give the people of this county a fair view of the oratory of Col. Edwards. There was a candor of thought, a sobriety and moderation of statement, which surprised even his warm admirers, who, carried away with his splendid abilities, never for a moment before to-day claimed for him these qualities which his speech, this evening, so admirably developed. Edwards is the star orator of Granville. For dash, energy, freedom and grace, he has no rival in the county. As a brilliant and scholarly speaker there is no man in active political life in the county at all comparable to him. Speeches like those he made this evening cannot fall off effect upon the colored voters. I cannot even attempt to sketch its outlines. It is sufficient to say it was masterly conceived and brilliantly delivered.

Col. Tazewell Hargrove made an address to the colored voters, which was as well calculated to win the vote of the colored voter as any address he has ever made. He was a violent Democrat and Secessionist in days past and gone, but that this fact should not be pleaded in bar to his present political position. When he was against them, he told them so; when he was for them, he told them so. At all times he has been sincere. Hargrove was a whole harangue was of excellent, though not, as was expected, violent. He flared about for the old time Democratic vote of this precinct, but I am happy to say his flaring seemed to be without results. The Democrats like Col. Tazewell Hargrove, will be well repaid for their support. Having already given me considerable labor in the canvass in the different counties, I shall continue to devote all the time possible to secure the victory of the Democratic party on the 4th day of August next.

I have the honor to remain your obedient servant.

W. H. MALONE.

Lenoir, July 19th, 1870.

FOR THE SENTINEL.

A meeting of the citizens of Nash county was held at Nashville, on Monday the 11th inst. for the purpose of reconciling conflicting interests and harmonizing the party which was in danger of a split between the two Democratic candidates for the House of Representatives in the next Legislature.

A motion of L. N. B. Baulie, Esq., the Hon. A. H. Arrington was unanimously adopted to the Chair, and R. B. Baulie and L. M. Conyers were requested to act as Secretaries.

The Chairman, on being conducted to his seat, explained the object of the meeting and explained the subject of the meeting in his usual clear and lucid language, when the motion of D. A. T. Baulie, Esq., the Chair appointed as a nominating committee from:

Washington Township—L. N. B. Baulie and Wm. Baulie.

Liberty Township—B. Baulie and J. J. Drake.

Union Township—C. W. Ward and J. H. Baulie.

Middleton Township—Orren Cobb and G. W. Cooper.

Springfield Township—George Baulie and Wm. Baulie.

Charlottesville Township—Bennett Baulie.

On the retirement of the committee B. H. Baulie, Esq., was called on to entertain the meeting. He responded in a most eloquent and forcible manner, showing the necessity of the meeting and the general unpopularity of the Radical party and pledging his word that nothing was wasted but a vigorous effort of the Democratic and Conservative party to burst them from place and power.

Pending his speech the committee returned and reported the nomination of C. W. Ward, Esq., for the House of Representatives, which nomination was unanimously confirmed by the meeting.

Mr. Woodard (who was in the house) called for a vote on the nomination of C. W. Ward, Esq., for the House of Representatives, which was carried by a large majority.

On motion of L. N. B. Baulie, Esq., the meeting adjourned.

R. B. Baulie, Secretary.

Wm. Baulie, Secretary.

There was a North German Signal, the Anson, of twenty eight guns, now in our waters, and there are two French war vessels, the Semiramis and the Scholar, in the harbor of New York. This is not absolutely impossible.

There is a North German Signal, the Anson, of twenty eight guns, now in our waters, and there are two French war vessels, the Semiramis and the Scholar, in the harbor of New York. This is not absolutely impossible.

There is a North German Signal, the Anson, of twenty eight guns, now in our waters, and there are two French war vessels, the Semiramis and the Scholar, in the harbor of New York. This is not absolutely impossible.

There is a North German Signal, the Anson, of twenty eight guns, now in our waters, and there are two French war vessels, the Semiramis and the Scholar, in the harbor of New York. This is not absolutely impossible.

There is a North German Signal, the Anson, of twenty eight guns, now in our waters, and there are two French war vessels, the Semiramis and the Scholar, in the harbor of New York. This is not absolutely impossible.

There is a North German Signal, the Anson, of twenty eight guns, now in our waters, and there are two French war vessels, the Semiramis and the Scholar, in the harbor of New York. This is not absolutely impossible.

There is a North German Signal, the Anson, of twenty eight guns, now in our waters, and there are two French war vessels, the Semiramis and the Scholar, in the harbor of New York. This is not absolutely impossible.

There is a North German Signal, the Anson, of twenty eight guns, now in our waters, and there are two French war vessels, the Semiramis and the Scholar, in the harbor of New York. This is not absolutely impossible.

There is a North German Signal, the Anson, of twenty eight guns, now in our waters, and there are two French war vessels, the Semiramis and the Scholar, in the harbor of New York. This is not absolutely impossible.

There is a North German Signal, the Anson, of twenty eight guns, now in our waters, and there are two French war vessels, the Semiramis and the Scholar, in the harbor of New York. This is not absolutely impossible.

There is a North German Signal, the Anson, of twenty eight guns, now in our waters, and there are two French war vessels, the Semiramis and the Scholar, in the harbor of New York. This is not absolutely impossible.

There is a North German Signal, the Anson, of twenty eight guns, now in our waters, and there are two French war vessels, the Semiramis and the Scholar, in the harbor of New York. This is not absolutely impossible.

There is a North German Signal, the Anson, of twenty eight guns, now in our waters, and there are two French war vessels, the Semiramis and the Scholar, in the harbor of New York. This is not absolutely impossible.

TO THE VOTERS OF CALDWELL COUNTY.

Since Col. James G. Harper has accepted the nomination for Congress in the 7th Congressional District it becomes necessary to hold a Convention for the purpose of suggesting a name for the House of Representatives from this County. I see that the 23rd inst. has been fixed as the day. And as quite a large number of my friends have signified a purpose to place my name before the Convention, I take this method of saying, that while I fully appreciate the confidence of my friends, and feel thankful for the honor and trust heretofore bestowed upon me, I cannot consent to become a candidate, and let my friends will not place my name before the Convention.

Professional engagements of an important character will require my absence from the State several days during the canvass, so that I might not be able to devote the necessary time. And in addition to this, I am not desirous of the position.

My clients demand my personal attention. I will not therefore be a candidate.

One other reason: I could not become a candidate this late in the canvass, as I should desire to explain my votes on the various Rail Road bills in the last Legislature. I have heard objections to my votes on these measures. But I am sorry to say that the objections come principally from those Conservatives who urged and advised me to vote for them. It is well known that I did not vote for these measures because I endorsed the very extravagant estimates of the Rail Road bills.

It is well known that I did not vote for these measures because I endorsed the very extravagant estimates of the Rail Road bills.

It is well known that I did not vote for these measures because I endorsed the very extravagant estimates of the Rail Road bills.

It is well known that I did not vote for these measures because I endorsed the very extravagant estimates of the Rail Road bills.

It is well known that I did not vote for these measures because I endorsed the very extravagant estimates of the Rail Road bills.

It is well known that I did not vote for these measures because I endorsed the very extravagant estimates of the Rail Road bills.

It is well known that I did not vote for these measures because I endorsed the very extravagant estimates of the Rail Road bills.

It is well known that I did not vote for these measures because I endorsed the very extravagant estimates of the Rail Road bills.

It is well known that I did not vote for these measures because I endorsed the very extravagant estimates of the Rail Road bills.

It is well known that I did not vote for these measures because I endorsed the very extravagant estimates of the Rail Road bills.

It is well known that I did not vote for these measures because I endorsed the very extravagant estimates of the Rail Road bills.

It is well known that I did not vote for these measures because I endorsed the very extravagant estimates of the Rail Road bills.

It is well known that I did not vote for these measures because I endorsed the very extravagant estimates of the Rail Road bills.

It is well known that I did not vote for these measures because I endorsed the very extravagant estimates of the Rail Road bills.

It is well known that I did not vote for these measures because I endorsed the very extravagant estimates of the Rail Road bills.

It is well known that I did not vote for these measures because I endorsed the very extravagant estimates of the Rail Road bills.

It is well known that I did not vote for these measures because I endorsed the very extravagant estimates of the Rail Road bills.

It is well known that I did not vote for these measures because I endorsed the very extravagant estimates of the Rail Road bills.

It is well known that I did not vote for these measures because I endorsed the very extravagant estimates of the Rail Road bills.

It is well known that I did not vote for these measures because I endorsed the very extravagant estimates of the Rail Road bills.

It is well known that I did