AND THE RESERVE OF WASHANDS Gov. Holden and his truculent Judiciary have a great aversion to the old mode of arrest by bench warrant, except in cases where they will subserve the interests and the marcos to 1856, in which tar, pitch purpose of state awa party, and the Radias he wanted them. INVOCATION TO THE GOD OF TURPENTINE are told by those who heard him that the Governor's candidate for Congress, who is, no less a personage than his own son, Joe, made an inflamatory spreed to cal administration. The Governor arrested nearly one hundred men in the countries of Alemance and Caswell, with the aword and Address, w. Itan by Judge Reade and John beyonet, three of whom he had imag by Fool, appro d and signed by the little the neck like dogs to torce them to restify god of turp to loe, himself, many bares, dwellings, trans tobacco factories were of the Longue. fa Grant is pourty. Dr. Hicks could stand in his dust at midnight and see the

tion in the "insurrectionary counties" as night, the horizon was red with the glare long as they are against a certain class of burning buildings, lighted by the torch

Then began the work of retribution Three lenguemen of Orange, against whom it is said the proof was constusive, were hung for the barn burnings in that courtyin other words, hung for tollowing the advice of the Legislative Address, and the teaching of the little "god of turpentine." John Ragland, late Republican member of the Legislature from Granville, says the CHESKLEINS BOND WEST 18 Liche was right. He has said publicly and privately that every member of the Legisla-ture who signed that address, (and Joe Holden was one of them) "eight to be bung with a grape vine matrimmed." We do not endorse John's summary plan for dealing with these men, but we do say that no man who signed that address and invoked "the god of turpentine" is a fit reperesentative to send to Congress.

The man who was elected Sheriff o lifax, James Goodwin, and who was unable to give his bond and thereby failed to get the office, is now a candidate for the Legislature, to fill the vacancy caused by Renfrow's resigning a seat he could not have held. In that county, on Monday night last, home Leaguer, following the advice and teachings of the Radical Legis-Address, set fire to the gin of Scotland Neck, conten. On the night before, the house of Mr. discovered in time to extinguish it before serious damage was done.

Indeed, it has been almost invariably the case in this State, that as soon as a heated political contest arises, we hear of the property of Democrats and Conservatives being destroyed by the mi inight incoadi away with carpet baggers; and then we shall bear no more of flumes being kindled nader barns and gin houses.

DISABILITIES,

Major Smith, whose scat in the Senate from Alamance and Guillord, is contested by Dr. Moore, is not eligible to the seat, even if there were no contest. The Justices of the Supreme Court have already adjudicated the question against the Major.

Chief Justice Petrson, in the case of Kerr et al., said that George Williamson, a citizen of Caswell, could not serve a writ on Kirk, because he (Williamson) was an insurgent, and the Chief Justice had to denutile David Wicker, the Marshal of his Court, not only ton more the writ on Kirk, but to summon witnesses,

Noteher the Shoriz nor any citizen of Alamance but even Major Smith, himself, could have executed a writ or summonsed

a writers in that county, during the ex-istence of the proclamation; so says Chief Justice Pearson. Then if neither the off-cess nor citizens of Alamanus could per-form the inferior duty at serving, an ordinary process of law, of course they could not berform the higher and more recensible duty of electing Major Smith to the important position of a sent in the Senate to make laws for the people of the State, sp-propriate bonds and ferry special taxes to pay the interest on them.

According to the ruling of Chief Justice Pearson, the votes of Alamance and Caswell eannot, be counted—"issurgents" cannot vote. We suppose a new election will be ordered for the House of Commons in Alamance. manos and for both Houses in Conwell,

The citizens of the place, through Mayor Parham, waited on Joseph to see it he would divide the time with George Badger Harria, Esq., representing Mr. Manning. After consulting his triends the answer came back, through a Committee of two colored persons, "not for Joseph if he known is," alleging that he wanted all the time himself. White and colored Radicals here are thoroughly disgusted with Joseph, if the indications are to be believed from yesterday's proceedings at this place, and the primarph of Massing in the contest is sixeady agreed, if the Conservatives will turn out at the prils.—We would suggest that Mr. Mausing spend the most of his time in Nash, Warren, Franklin and Granwille, where he is not so DEAR SENTINEL: -On yesterday the 14th

The attention of many of those seeking new homes has, by these letters been turned towards North Carolina, and several families have secontly arrived di-rectly from that country and located in this vicinity, and other parts of the State,

Mr. Scott was induced, by the representations of Mr. Stuart, to visit our State with a view to making it his permanent abode, and from an extensive tour through the middle and western part of the State. finds that the statements in Mr. Stuart's letters are not only borne out, but far exceeded by the reality.

Mr. Scott has been engaged for years, in the coal and iron business in his native country, and expects to turn his attention to the min eral resources of this State. The N. C. Land Company has been indefatigable in its exertion to induce immigration

Mr. Scott has written several letters to the Advertiser, published at Hamilton, Scotland, since his sojours in the State, two of which we have had the pleasure of perusing We should be glad to lay these letters before our readers, but want of space forbids, at present. They take a compre-hensive view of the status of affairs here and give a fair exposition not only of the true state of society, but of the matural resour-ces and capabilities of the State. They are calculated to do us much good absord, wherever they may be read,

We have not together, on the present cocasion in order to nominate a candidate of the Conservative party, for the House of Representatives of the United States, in the place of Judge Gilliam, who died at his residence in Ontord on the 18th, of Octoriast. I cannot allow the occasion to without of ring to the memory of the Hon. Robert B. Gilliam, a tribute of respect and regard. My acquaintance with him commenced in the clara of my bey-hood when we were students at the Ox-ford Academy. He was then a youth of fee promise; and likely to do come a distinguished and use at member of society.—

I practised Law with him for upwards of a quarter of a contury. I served with him is the House of Commons in 1888, and in 1840 during which year he was elected Speaker; and also in the Convention of 1363. I have had ample opportunities of observing how he acquitted himself when adorsed with the ermore. I mingled free ly withhim/in the social eigele, and we rere upon intimate relations of friendship

It a would be remembered to his benes, that he always asimicustered justice in morey. Judge Gilliam certainly left a yery fav rable impression upon the public murit. The high restoutes of praise paid to him as a Judge, by the Press is every part of the State, must be exceedingly gratifying to his family and friends. As a lawyer, be distinguished himself by ability and learning, by a delicate sense of propriety, and by his unexceptionable conduct. In some respects his example was peculiarly worthy of the imitation of his brothren; he was fair and logentous in the management of his causes, and uniformly respectful in his language and demonstro to serving of commendation, and has been much admired by discriminating of servers. In his domestic relations he was tender and affectionate; and he was an upright, affectionate; and he was an upright, aminable and accomplished gentleman in all the paths of private life, and a brilliant ornament of society. Aminability and self-command were striking features of Judge Gilliam's character. When convening for p puts favor during periods a the deepeat political excitement, he softened the asperity of party spirit, by his moderation and liberatry towards his political epponents, by the suavity of his manners, and by his gentlemanty deportment. His death has been a serious calamity to the State, and e-pointly to this Congressional District.

Since we last met North Carolina has had to deplore the death of a noble son of Virginia. I allude to General Robert Ed-ward Lee-the ablest military commander of the age; the shrinting here of the South; and the second Washington that America of the age; the shristing here of the South; and the second Washington that America has produced. His native State mourns over her illustrious son, but not alone,—Allied the rest of the Southern States share in her and affliction, and mingle their tears with those of weeping Virginia, as they bend in sorrow like sympatitizing states over the grays of Lee, Many of those who one-untered lim upon the bloodiest fields which this world has ever known, have yielded to his genius and virtues their estrom and admiration. I do not desire to detain the Convention made I will, therefore, only add a very few words as to the business before us. When this Convention assembled on the 7th of June last, I never know a body of the kind to discharge its duties in a more agreeable and satisfactory manner. There were exhibited in this Halls devotion to principle, a feeling of patriotism, and a sprirt of harmony and coefficients as of all prains.

a feeling of patriotism, and a spirit of har-more and concillation worths of all praise moch and conditation sorthy of all prains, and which seemed to me to forestiadow the spleadid vicebry which was afterwards won. If similar feelings and sentiments shall now assent the bosons of the members of the Convention and shall also reach the hearts of the Conservatives throughout the District. I regard our see case in the approaching election as a matter of stemath containing. Bit us exert all of our esserbles in the approach of our nobles and particular mass. By all means let us set.
