Entron: Last Baturday was the opening day for the People of Davidson counts to need at the county site to in truct their very conscientions representatixe, Jake Brown that he might be euaxe, Jake Brown, that he might be concalled to tote intelligently upon the concention question, but owing to extreme paid by the Trensurer upon any other execention question, but owing to extreme paid by the Trensurer upon any other excention unsatisfied.

Sec. 3. That this act shall be in force unds, there were very few out, and in act the weather was so had that no one thought there would be any action taken. Your correspondent however, ventured Auditor, had been for several days budtaking advantage of the absence of the people to adopt anti-convention resolu-tions, but thanks to Mosers, M. H. Pinnix and Dr. Meares, they made an ignomini one failure. They succeeded however, in organizing (after a manner) by calling Mr. John Michael to the chair and Mr. Simmions as Holding over Jake then called vecifer-ously for Jake Brown, (who we supposed was at Raleigh attending to his legitia-tive duties) who came forward and, after explaining to his benighted andience the In the statements as to the contents and phosphoto of the convention hall from beginning to end, and wound up by calling for the volc, when no resolution had ever been submitted, nor had the other adde been heard, and then it was that we acceptable of that these were just ton white radicals to vote with him? This outraresous proceeding was soundly denounced by Dr. Meares, who, at the same time, reminded Mr. Brown that his place in the made is a consecution of the respection to their different salaries. This house, says this consecution that his place is not been also been the work men, according to their individuals and not in regular proportion to their different salaries. This house, says this consecution that his place is not been also been the way. Mr. Thurston's recent report, has fall this consecution. Meares, who, at the same time, reminded Mr. Brown that his piace was in the Legislature to carry out instructions, and not here to lend his support to an effice-holding ring, pointing the finges of scern and contempt at Sowers and Henderson. At the conclusion of Dr. Mearon remarks Henderson, Brown, Sowers and the chairman, all took the floor, and during the confusion Mr. M. H. Pianix moved an adjoint ment, and "white and klack" left. confusion Mr. M. H. Pinnix moved an addition ment, and white and black hot. The House is perfect dissider.
