SENATE CHAMBER, April 1.

Messrs. Editors: I witnessed a spirited debate in the Senate on Friday, upon the bill calling a Convention. Our Legislature has been too slow on this question. It is the all absorbing question with the people.

Some members seem to be afraid that the leaders will pop the whip over them. I heard Senator Edwards on that point in the debate on Friday. His style and manner impressed what he said so forcibly upon my mind that I can write it almost as he said it.

Mr. Edwards said:

The Senator from Craven (Mr. Moore) tells us, that the bill is levelled at the judiciary, and that when we strike down the judiciary, the State is destroyed. I say to him, that this bill is not levelled to use his expression—at the judiciary alone. It is intended, not merely to rid the people of a confessedly corrupt and venal judiciary, but to rid them, likewise, of an expensive and oppressive system which ramifies and permeates every department of the State government. I would not burn my house to destroy rats; neither would I fling cheese to vermin which infest my barn.

The Senator from Jackson, asks in a tone not to be mistaken, if the Senate is to be driven from its propriety by the "lash of a few of the party leaders, cracked over their backs; will the Senate crouch and come before this whip!"

Such language is unbecoming the dignity of the Senate, no matter where he is, and whom he is addressing. This body is composed of men of individual honor and character, we know no cassals, we acknowledge no dictator." We "crouch and come" before no tinders. And most certainly we crouch and come before no would be leader. I tell the Senator so to his beard.

Here Mr. Troy of Cumberland interrupted the speaker for the purpose of reporting certain bills from the committee on enrolled bills. Mr. Troy's purpose was no doubt to check the debate, but I was sorry Mr. Edwards did not finish his say.

LOOKER ON.

AN ACT TO CHANGE THE TIME OF HOLDING THE SPRING TERM OF THE SUPERIOR COURTS OF BEAUFORT AND PITT COUNTIES FOR THE YEAR 1871.

SECTION 1. The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact, That the Spring Term of the Superior Courts of the counties of Beaufort and Pitt for the year 1871, shall be held as follows, to wit: the Court of Beaufort on the fourteenth Monday after the Term of said Courts of Beaufort and Pitt, in the year 1871, shall be deemed and held returnable to the terms of said Courts as now fixed by this act, and all persons who have been recognized or bound and summoned to appear at the Spring Term of said Courts for the year 1871, are hereby required to appear at the terms thereof as prescribed in this act; and the Secretary of State shall forthwith cause this act to be published, and furnish the Sheriffs and Clerks of the Superior Courts of Beaufort and Pitt with a copy of this act.

SEC. 3. That all laws and parts of laws inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

Ratified this 31st day of March, A. D. 1871.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
OFFICE SECRETARY OF STATE,
Raleigh, April 1st, 1871.

I, HENRY J. MENNINGER, Secretary of State, hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy from the original act on file in this office.

H. J. MENNINGER,
Secretary of State.

SENATE.

MONDAY, April 3, 1871.

Leave of absence granted Messrs. Cowles and Flemming, for the remainder of the session.

Message from the House, announcing the passage of various bills.

Mr. Waddell was allowed to record a vote in the affirmative on the convention and revenue bills.

Mr. Robinson of Davidson, was also permitted to record his vote in the affirmative on the convention bill. He said:

MR. PRESIDENT: I rise to a question which is somewhat a question of personal privilege. I was absent on Friday when the convention bill was passed. Having no doubt and never entertaining any doubt of the constitutionality of such a bill, I wish to have myself put on the record in favor of that measure. Believing the best interests of North Carolina will be subserved by the call of a convention at an early day, I am most heartily for this plan of submitting the question to the people. I propose to stand square and shoulder to shoulder with those who contended for the rights of the people against those who are afraid of the people's voice. I ask that my vote may be recorded for the bill.

Mr. Troy arose to a question of privilege. Said that he had been reported in the SENTINEL by some one, as acting discourteously towards the Senator from Granville, (Mr. Edwards,) on Friday. He denied any such intention. Owing to the accumulation of matter in the hands of the enrolling clerk, and of bills which are important, it was necessary that proper reports be made in many instances. At the time alluded to, there were two bills concerning sheriffs who were then wanted to have them enrolled and sent to the other House. This is why he interrupted Mr. Edwards and not as reported, to interfere with him in his debate.

Mr. Edwards said he was sure that Mr. Troy would be the last man on the floor who would treat him discourteously.

Mr. Edwards, from judiciary committee, reported

Bill authorizing commissioners of Columbus, Cumberland, Beaufort, Cassell and Gates, to levy special taxes, passed.

Bill authorizing commissioners of Franklin to issue bonds, passed second reading.

Bill to amend sections 266, 268, 9, 270 and 271, of code of civil procedure, passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Graham, of Orange, the rules were suspended and a bill to cure proper returns, monthly, of sales of taxes and of all taxes collected during the preceding month by sheriffs passed its several readings.

Mr. Merrimon moved suspension of the rules to introduce a bill.

A bill to prevent the Judges of the Supreme and Superior Courts from giving or delivering extra judicial opinions, imposes a penalty of $3000 upon any Judge who shall give an extra-judicial opinion, and makes it an impeachable offence.

After passing its second reading, Mr. Gilmer moved to refer it to the Judiciary committee.

Mr. Lehman moved to indefinitely postpone, and opposed the bill, as conflicting with the Constitution of the United States.

Mr. Edwards said he was opposed to the bill, as handing down to posterity the infamy which characterized the Judiciary of North Carolina in these days. It left alone they would be responsible for their opinions, and one respected them for doing anything that he was 99th them, in any way, pon the world of the history of the Sate. He was in favor of a Convention the would give us a good judiciary, and then that was accomplished, such a law as this will not be necessary.

Mr. Moore thought the bill unnecessary and should not be adopted. Ellis cited Chief Justice Pearson.

Mr. Love said he agreed with the Senator from Craven that the bill was redundant, that is, if viewed from a certain point the position of a judiciary elected by the people, was ordered like a political.

By Mr. McClenny: a resolution that the General Assembly adjourn on Thursday at 12 m.

Mr. Cowles moved to amend by striking out Thursday, and insert Tuesday.

Mr. Love called previous question on the resolution, which was sustained.

Mr. Robinson of Rowan called for yeas and nays which were ordered, and the amendment was lost by 16 yeas, 33 nays.

Resolution adopted, and sent at once to the House.

Adjourned.

Resolution concerning the contest in the Board of Education with D. P. Ellis and S. F. Carrow, relative to the sale of the swamp lands, requires the payment of the instalments due for the year 1871. Lost, yeas 12, nays 18.

Mr. Warren (Mr. Graham, of Orange, in the chair) asked a reconsideration. Said publications were introduced in the early part of the session, looking to the examination of the case, and to see if the contract had become vacated. The Judiciary committee decided that it was not vacated, and that it was still in force, and fulfillment could be enforced. The Governor and educational board having decided that the contract was vacated, and prevented the sale of lands to emigrants, and thereby all parties are injured. He took this move for the benefit of emigrants who were coming to the State, one of whom was insolvent, and the other (Bibles) a villain, money for these lands for which, as things now stand, they cannot get titles. Therefore he thought some legislation necessary. He thought, and always had believed, that the price agreed upon for the lands was a very good one.

The motion to reconsider prevailed.

Mr. Speed was satisfied that the lands were worth very much more than the price agreed upon, but with the provisions agreed upon to be added would vote for the bill.

Mr. McCotter had some acquaintance with the lands, and was satisfied that if the sale could be effected, and the contract consummated, it would be well for the State.

The motion recurred upon the bill on its third reading, passed.

Bill to amend chapter 106 of Laws of 1869-'70, relative to the Shelby and South Carolina Railroad, passed its second reading.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., June 29, 1870.

To His Excellency, W. W. Holden:

SIR: We deem, respectfully, to call your attention to the enclosed circular and state a few facts connected with it. We, one and all heartily desire swift and exemplary punishment to be visited upon the perpetrators of the outrages denounced in the circular, and we think that every loyal man in North Carolina should rally to the support of the authorities in accomplishing this. But the only hope of doing it effectually, in our opinion, is the perpetuation of Republican rule in the State of North Carolina. Whoever proposes that establishes the kuklux ascendancy.

The prospects of the Republican party in this section from Cherokee throughout the whole trans-montane region could not be better than it is. Peace order and quiet prevail everywhere. The civil law is competent in the execution of its decrees and through the political excitement is gaining to run high and public discussions are becoming frequent, we have no apprehension that any disturbances will be occasioned thereby. We can beat our adversaries in a plain straight out fight upon the stump and at the polls, and if they see proper to resort to other means we can take care of ourselves. This we believe to be the general and confident feeling of the party.

We do not understand that the troops called for are to be stationed in the mountains, as we suppose no one could have suggested that there was a necessity for it, but we look upon their assembling and moving through the country with apprehension and alarm. It will furnish our adversaries with a weapon which we are satisfied they can use with great effect against us, perhaps defeat our candidate for Congress, and cause us to lose eight or ten members of the Legislature and many of our county officers. But, more than this, it may re-light the almost extinguished fires of the late war, and make this country, now quiet and prosperous, again the theatre of the bloody scenes which were enacted all over it during the latter year or two of the war.

We have stated these facts that no detriment may come to the Republican party in this section, and that, we may in some way be preserved, from the frustration of scenes of violence and bloodshed, which we are apprehensive the assembling of troops might occasion. If a necessity for their coming here existed, of course that is a risk we would freely run and ask for them. We cannot presume to make any suggestions to your Excellency, and only state these facts that you may know the condition of things here. There is no opposition to the organization of the militia and will be none. And their aid, we think, with the general disposition of our people for quiet and repose will protect us in any contingency in the future.

Wm. GILLHAM, President and Chemist.

Guaranteed to be always up to the standard.

The testimony of the Tobacco-Growers of Virginia and North Carolina, after the fourth year of its trial, shows that this Fertilizer is superior in effects to all other fertilizers used, including Peruvian Guano. They claim that it improves the crop earlier, makes the Tobacco heavier, tougher and more easily cured, that it stands dry weather better, and more, that the increase in the yield of wheat following the tobacco crop, is the yield of wheat following the tobacco crop, is the main land will pay for the fertilizer, to say nothing of the crop of clover following the wheat. It therefore, meets every demand of the planter, in giving a superior yield to his tobacco, and permanently improving his land.
