CONVENTION.

Election First Thursday in August.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 19, 1871.

SECRET OF SUCCESS.

The great secret of success in English and German agriculture, lies in the quantities of manure and fertilizers used. The great cause of failure in North Carolina, is shallow ploughing and a criminal neglect of the use of manure. Mr. Queen states that the value of animal manure annually applied to the crops in England at the current prices, surpasses in value the whole amount of its foreign commerce. The capacity of our soil is not to be questioned; yet we have no great success in farming. It is all for want of industry, energy, skill, care and manure—all of which can be commanded, and are in the reach of the poorest farmer that runs a plough.

PROSPECTING FOR A JUDGE.

Gov. Caldwell is said to be in search of a judge in fact of two of them, to fill the places made vacant by the resignation of Messrs. Settle and Jones. The Governor, assuming some show of propriety in the election of a man to fill the place of Judge Hilliard and Judge Martin, for they are now all to be called judges, with "my son Lewis."

Our Governor is not like our late "easy" beloved—a Christian man—who takes encouragement from the text "Seek and ye shall find." He says seek the judiciary and ye shall not find, and actually swears no man who applies for the place shall have it. This declaration has well shut out the whole radical family, for they had put in bids.

If the Democrats and Conservatives shall refuse to accept office under a seal-swag governor, Mars Tisd will make to make choice of a man. A sober, intelligent negro would not degrade the present incompetent, bribed, drunken judiciary. If the Governor should favor a negro, we will support his choice will be "Hon. James Harris, his having exceeded all the other negroes in his abuse of Southern men until the late legislature through its commissioners gave him a salary paid.

It may be the Governor has gone to see Col. Blynn, who in a letter to Holden put himself fully on the Kirk platform. The Colonel did good service by his testimony before the outrage committee, in getting Congress to pass the knicker bill, for his voice was for war.

All the Radicals seem to be for war, if they can only get Kirk to wage it, and keep their sons out, as treasurer Dave did his boy. He would get fifty or one hundred men of desperate character if the Governor would excuse and relieve his son, who had been commissioned without the father's knowledge.

If Governor Caldwell will try the treasurer for judge, and Judge Jones or Caldwell for treasurer, it might elevate the bench and replenish the treasury. Certainly it could hurt neither.

Remember, Governor, that Lincoln kept swapping and changing until he fell on Grant. The man least likely of all to accomplish anything accomplished all.

ERROR WHICH IS NO ERROR. We learn that the report that Judge Logan was afraid to go to Cleveland to hold court is an error. The Judge was detained at home on Monday last by official duties, but went to Shelby as soon as he could.—Charlotte Democrat.

It is the Democrat that is in error. Judge Logan is responsible for not holding court on Monday, and he is also responsible for the report that he was afraid to hold court in Cleveland.

The Judge wrote to this city that he feared to hold court—that he could not think of going there. He sent a radical messenger here to the Governor, who made his way to Washington, where he arrived in time to inform Pool and Holden that the Judge could not hold court in Cleveland. This news reached Washington two days before the amnesty bill was defeated.

The Judge now opens and holds court in Cleveland, having given the party the benefit of the amnesty, that knicker was stronger than the judiciary. Will the Democrat now correct its error?

AMNESTY BILL DEFEATED. The Senate by a vote of twenty to sixteen have defeated the amnesty bill. A universal amnesty and universal suffrage was the cry of our northern brethren, and by it they enfranchised the ignorant negro. We all feel the universal suffrage, but where is the amnesty which was to accompany it? Pool and Holden will continue their trade in amnesty, procuring it for such as will give promise of supporting the radical cause. Pool thinks Enkluking has defeated amnesty. No, John; it was carpet-baggers and scoundrels—they were the men.

Third, Stephens, Bingham, Greeley and the bitterest men north against the south, have long been for amnesty. John Pool, Devereux and the radical carpet-bag delegation were for giving it to Clayman, Canwell, Hodman, Gooch, Hargrove & such like Confederate loyalists.

SPEECH OF HON. JAMES M. LEACH, OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Delivered in the House of Representatives, Wednesday, April 13, 1871, on the Enforcement of the Reconstruction Act.

Mr. Speaker, The Constitution of the United States, when it was adopted, was administered in its original meaning, and in the original meaning, it is more than all the political and social changes of the world. Parties and party organizations have been formed, and the original meaning of the Constitution has been perverted, and the original meaning of the Constitution has been perverted, and the original meaning of the Constitution has been perverted.
