

The Semi-Weekly Sentinel.

RALPH, N. C., SATURDAY, MAY 13, 1871.

THE SENTINEL.

MEMORIAL DAY.

Yesterday, throughout all the land lately known as the Confederacy, is to be observed the anniversary of the day when our countrymen, by the adoption of the Declaration of Independence, proclaimed their independence of the British crown.

Three years ago there were those who gloried in this day's proceedings and who actually looked upon the day as one of glory and triumph, and who were not ashamed to wear the colors of the South.

We can recall to mind only two instances in history where the offenses of war were not obliterated by peace: one was when the Republicans ruled France, and the other when these Republicans ruled America.

When we stood on the summit of the beautiful Green Hill in the Confederate cemetery one year ago, as we hoped to do yesterday, and beheld all the beauty, industry, virtue and manhood of the City of Raleigh, we felt as if we were looking upon the ruins of a once glorious city, and we were filled with a sense of the magnitude of the crime which had been committed against the people of this State.

I could picture, passing where a street was teaching boys mathematics, or in an act of memory, cried out, "Teach me to forget." We would not, if we could, be taught to forget all that is valued, good or great, in connection with the late war.

And the proceedings of the day and night were so conducted as to be a fitting memorial to the brave men who gave their lives for the South, and who were not ashamed to wear the colors of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

BENCH AND BAR.

OUR JUDICIARY HAS BECOME JUSTICE.

Our Judiciary has become justice, our politicians the Chief Justice and the Supreme Court, and the people the judges. The Bench has become the Bar, and the Bar has become the Bench. The people are the judges, and the judges are the people.

Judge Logan wrote that he was afraid to hold court in Cleveland county, and for two days failed to attend, as if he was afraid. The people assembled, and Judge Logan was not there.

Mr. David Schick, a member of the Bar, was called upon to give an opinion. He said that he was afraid to hold court in Cleveland county, and for two days failed to attend, as if he was afraid.

When these observations were made after the close of the war, they were objected to, as conducing to keep alive the spirit of civil strife by the preservation of the memories of the victims.

The Legislature had done its whole duty in the matter of impeachment. Logan could have been impeached for incompetence, and he had.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

MEMORIAL DAY.

YESTERDAY, according to the beautiful custom which now prevails among us, we gathered to the graves of our departed heroes.

The solemnity of the occasion was heightened by the presence of the brave men who had fought for the South, and who were now lying in their graves.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

It is a sad thing that the people of this State should be so ignorant of the history of their own country, and that they should be so proud of the name of the South.

THE NORTH CAROLINA JUDICIA.

A NORTH CAROLINA correspondent of the New York News complains that the Ku Klux Klan is doing more harm in North Carolina than in any other State.

He gives a lively picture of the Ku Klux Klan in North Carolina, and how they are doing more harm than in any other State.

He gives a lively picture of the Ku Klux Klan in North Carolina, and how they are doing more harm than in any other State.

He gives a lively picture of the Ku Klux Klan in North Carolina, and how they are doing more harm than in any other State.

He gives a lively picture of the Ku Klux Klan in North Carolina, and how they are doing more harm than in any other State.

He gives a lively picture of the Ku Klux Klan in North Carolina, and how they are doing more harm than in any other State.

He gives a lively picture of the Ku Klux Klan in North Carolina, and how they are doing more harm than in any other State.

He gives a lively picture of the Ku Klux Klan in North Carolina, and how they are doing more harm than in any other State.

He gives a lively picture of the Ku Klux Klan in North Carolina, and how they are doing more harm than in any other State.

He gives a lively picture of the Ku Klux Klan in North Carolina, and how they are doing more harm than in any other State.

He gives a lively picture of the Ku Klux Klan in North Carolina, and how they are doing more harm than in any other State.

He gives a lively picture of the Ku Klux Klan in North Carolina, and how they are doing more harm than in any other State.

He gives a lively picture of the Ku Klux Klan in North Carolina, and how they are doing more harm than in any other State.

He gives a lively picture of the Ku Klux Klan in North Carolina, and how they are doing more harm than in any other State.

He gives a lively picture of the Ku Klux Klan in North Carolina, and how they are doing more harm than in any other State.

MEMORIAL DAY.

THE CHIEF MARSHAL.

At the close of the oration, which occupied some forty minutes in its delivery, the Chief Marshal then announced the names of those who were to be buried in the cemetery of the Confederate soldiers.

At the close of the oration, which occupied some forty minutes in its delivery, the Chief Marshal then announced the names of those who were to be buried in the cemetery of the Confederate soldiers.

At the close of the oration, which occupied some forty minutes in its delivery, the Chief Marshal then announced the names of those who were to be buried in the cemetery of the Confederate soldiers.

At the close of the oration, which occupied some forty minutes in its delivery, the Chief Marshal then announced the names of those who were to be buried in the cemetery of the Confederate soldiers.

At the close of the oration, which occupied some forty minutes in its delivery, the Chief Marshal then announced the names of those who were to be buried in the cemetery of the Confederate soldiers.

At the close of the oration, which occupied some forty minutes in its delivery, the Chief Marshal then announced the names of those who were to be buried in the cemetery of the Confederate soldiers.

At the close of the oration, which occupied some forty minutes in its delivery, the Chief Marshal then announced the names of those who were to be buried in the cemetery of the Confederate soldiers.

At the close of the oration, which occupied some forty minutes in its delivery, the Chief Marshal then announced the names of those who were to be buried in the cemetery of the Confederate soldiers.

At the close of the oration, which occupied some forty minutes in its delivery, the Chief Marshal then announced the names of those who were to be buried in the cemetery of the Confederate soldiers.

At the close of the oration, which occupied some forty minutes in its delivery, the Chief Marshal then announced the names of those who were to be buried in the cemetery of the Confederate soldiers.

At the close of the oration, which occupied some forty minutes in its delivery, the Chief Marshal then announced the names of those who were to be buried in the cemetery of the Confederate soldiers.

At the close of the oration, which occupied some forty minutes in its delivery, the Chief Marshal then announced the names of those who were to be buried in the cemetery of the Confederate soldiers.

At the close of the oration, which occupied some forty minutes in its delivery, the Chief Marshal then announced the names of those who were to be buried in the cemetery of the Confederate soldiers.

At the close of the oration, which occupied some forty minutes in its delivery, the Chief Marshal then announced the names of those who were to be buried in the cemetery of the Confederate soldiers.

MEDICAL SOCIETY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

MEMORIAL DAY.

On motion of Dr. Sharpe, the report was adopted. The report was adopted by a unanimous vote of the Society.

On motion of Dr. Sharpe, the report was adopted. The report was adopted by a unanimous vote of the Society.

On motion of Dr. Sharpe, the report was adopted. The report was adopted by a unanimous vote of the Society.

On motion of Dr. Sharpe, the report was adopted. The report was adopted by a unanimous vote of the Society.

On motion of Dr. Sharpe, the report was adopted. The report was adopted by a unanimous vote of the Society.

On motion of Dr. Sharpe, the report was adopted. The report was adopted by a unanimous vote of the Society.

On motion of Dr. Sharpe, the report was adopted. The report was adopted by a unanimous vote of the Society.

On motion of Dr. Sharpe, the report was adopted. The report was adopted by a unanimous vote of the Society.

On motion of Dr. Sharpe, the report was adopted. The report was adopted by a unanimous vote of the Society.

On motion of Dr. Sharpe, the report was adopted. The report was adopted by a unanimous vote of the Society.

On motion of Dr. Sharpe, the report was adopted. The report was adopted by a unanimous vote of the Society.

On motion of Dr. Sharpe, the report was adopted. The report was adopted by a unanimous vote of the Society.

On motion of Dr. Sharpe, the report was adopted. The report was adopted by a unanimous vote of the Society.

On motion of Dr. Sharpe, the report was adopted. The report was adopted by a unanimous vote of the Society.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.

MEMORIAL DAY.