

The Semi-Weekly Sentinel.

DAILY, $100 PER YEAR.
WEEKLY, $500 PER YEAR.
WEEKLY, $200 PER YEAR.

THE SENTINEL

PHILLIPS AND HOLDEN.

Mr. Phillips succeeds Holden as chairman of the republican executive committee. Mr. Phillips has issued a lengthy address, which cannot be read by one in many of his followers.

Phillips has fallen suddenly in love with our strenuous township system, which enables his friend, Calvin Rogers, and all other radicals, to plunder the people by swearing to, and proving mileage when it is not due. Let the people of Wake and the state remember, when they read Phillips on townships, that his friend, Calvin Rogers, is indicted for swearing to, and proving mileage when it is not due.

Let the people of Wake and the state remember, when they read Phillips on townships, that his friend, Calvin Rogers, is indicted for swearing to, and proving mileage when it is not due. Let the people of Wake and the state remember, when they read Phillips on townships, that his friend, Calvin Rogers, is indicted for swearing to, and proving mileage when it is not due.

We had two motives in noticing them one was, we did not care to defend ourself against such harmless assailants. The other was, to notice them well to advantage and give them the importance they sought but did not merit.

There are several papers of the state whose editors intended to be radicals, but that party carried the state in August last. They constantly talked about the SENTINEL, and seemed anxious to engage us in personal dispute. We gave them no opportunity for making no reply. We declined either to quarrel or exchange with them. We got on quietly and harmoniously now, and it is all our fault that we do.

The Standard and its editors were engaged in aiding Littlefield and his associates to rule and plunder the people, in which they succeeded. We had necessary cause to speak of them in plain terms sometimes it may have been rough, but it was always honest and just.

It is the duty of every man to inform and rob, to have spoken of them in terms of moderation and civility.

Please to leave the house. To have spoken of them mildly was to have winked at crime.

The Telegram has read us several lectures on editorial etiquette, and denies having said anything offensive to us, after publishing cards with and without the names of the authors, that were false and really abusive of us. The notices of the Telegram have been in style to copy from it, and only occasionally that its political proclivities might be known to the leaders of the SENTINEL.

We have thought, and think now, it is published in the interest of the radical party. For proof of it we refer to its columns. As the editors are not aware of this they should be told of it. It never does harm to those who act together to understand each other thoroughly.

U.S. CIRCUIT COURT.—Wednesday June 21st. The court assembled at the usual hour.

The case of Hill, of Minnesota, vs. Cyrus Mendenhall, N. C., upon the sufficiency of a record growing out of a suit in a court in the state of Minnesota, was dismissed by the court, and the defendant, W. T. Moseley, and Wm. Phillips & Merriman for the defendant. After argument by counsel as to the jurisdiction of the court which gave judgment against the defendant, the court announced it would re-examine its opinion for the present.

The case of Daniel McNamee, of Baltimore vs. Cyrus Mendenhall, N. C., action in assumpion of bill of exchange; Scott & Scott for plaintiff, and Phillips & Merriman for the defendant. After argument by counsel as to the jurisdiction of the court which gave judgment against the defendant, the court announced it would re-examine its opinion for the present.

Mr. Phillips' address contains calumny and falsehood against his neighbors and old political associates, he knows it, and feels it, and hangs his head when he meets them.

In Patterson township, in Orange, where every white man had voted for Mr. Phillips, in times past, in his late election for attorney general, not a white man voted for him, and many of the negroes followed the example of his Presbyterian brethren.

Mr. Phillips' address proves that he is a fit associate for Billy Henderson, Red Eye Albright and Holden's detectives, whose admiration for him is only equalled by the contempt his old associates feel for him.

CANVASS IN MARTIN.

We are requested to announce that Capt. George H. Gregory, and other prominent gentlemen, will open the convention hall, at FLAT SWAMP, MARTIN COUNTY, on the FOURTH OF JULY. All the friends of convention, law and reform from the counties of Pitt and Edgecombe are invited to meet their Martin friends there on that day.

Capt. Gregory will on that occasion enter the field and remain in it till the election closes in the triumph of Martin's candidate, E. T. Crawford, Esq., and the success of the cause. There will be few able advocates on the stump during this campaign than Capt. Gregory.

PRISON FOR CONVENTION.—Our old friend Joseph Pointier, of Person, is in the city, and says Person will give a larger majority for convention than she gave for Shipp; Shipp's majority was over 300. James Holman, Sr., is the conservative candidate and Horace Pumphrey the scalawag. It will do the weak-kneed good to talk with Pointier. It was said of Webster on one occasion, that each word weighed a pound, some of Tolson's weigh two.

QUESTION is not afraid of the majority ruling—either in the legislature or among the people. The following is the manner in which state amends her constitution.

"Amendments may be submitted by the legislative assembly to the electors, and adopted by a majority of voters, shall become a part of the constitution."—Constitution of 1857, art. 17.

CONVENTION IN THE EAST.—A staunch friend for convention writing us from the east says we may rely upon that section of the state doing better than last summer. In response we can assure our friend that the west and centre will follow suit.

JOURNALISTIC PROPERTY.

Many of our editors are given to pride about "journalistic property," and have been reading its lectures on editorial manners for two years or more.

Two-thirds of the radical papers in the state are edited by carpet-baggers. We have studiously avoided the mention of their names or papers. Except on one occasion we have not noticed their continuous course attacks upon us. Occasion ally our Associates have named and alluded to the carpet bag editors.

We had two motives in noticing them one was, we did not care to defend ourself against such harmless assailants. The other was, to notice them well to advantage and give them the importance they sought but did not merit.

There are several papers of the state whose editors intended to be radicals, but that party carried the state in August last.

They constantly talked about the SENTINEL, and seemed anxious to engage us in personal dispute. We gave them no opportunity for making no reply. We declined either to quarrel or exchange with them. We got on quietly and harmoniously now, and it is all our fault that we do.

The Standard and its editors were engaged in aiding Littlefield and his associates to rule and plunder the people, in which they succeeded. We had necessary cause to speak of them in plain terms sometimes it may have been rough, but it was always honest and just.

It is the duty of every man to inform and rob, to have spoken of them in terms of moderation and civility.

Please to leave the house. To have spoken of them mildly was to have winked at crime.

The Telegram has read us several lectures on editorial etiquette, and denies having said anything offensive to us, after publishing cards with and without the names of the authors, that were false and really abusive of us. The notices of the Telegram have been in style to copy from it, and only occasionally that its political proclivities might be known to the leaders of the SENTINEL.

We have thought, and think now, it is published in the interest of the radical party. For proof of it we refer to its columns. As the editors are not aware of this they should be told of it. It never does harm to those who act together to understand each other thoroughly.

U.S. CIRCUIT COURT.—Wednesday June 21st. The court assembled at the usual hour.

The case of Hill, of Minnesota, vs. Cyrus Mendenhall, N. C., upon the sufficiency of a record growing out of a suit in a court in the state of Minnesota, was dismissed by the court, and the defendant, W. T. Moseley, and Wm. Phillips & Merriman for the defendant. After argument by counsel as to the jurisdiction of the court which gave judgment against the defendant, the court announced it would re-examine its opinion for the present.

The case of Daniel McNamee, of Baltimore vs. Cyrus Mendenhall, N. C., action in assumpion of bill of exchange; Scott & Scott for plaintiff, and Phillips & Merriman for the defendant. After argument by counsel as to the jurisdiction of the court which gave judgment against the defendant, the court announced it would re-examine its opinion for the present.

Mr. Phillips' address contains calumny and falsehood against his neighbors and old political associates, he knows it, and feels it, and hangs his head when he meets them.

In Patterson township, in Orange, where every white man had voted for Mr. Phillips, in times past, in his late election for attorney general, not a white man voted for him, and many of the negroes followed the example of his Presbyterian brethren.

Mr. Phillips' address proves that he is a fit associate for Billy Henderson, Red Eye Albright and Holden's detectives, whose admiration for him is only equalled by the contempt his old associates feel for him.

CANVASS IN MARTIN.

We are requested to announce that Capt. George H. Gregory, and other prominent gentlemen, will open the convention hall, at FLAT SWAMP, MARTIN COUNTY, on the FOURTH OF JULY. All the friends of convention, law and reform from the counties of Pitt and Edgecombe are invited to meet their Martin friends there on that day.

Capt. Gregory will on that occasion enter the field and remain in it till the election closes in the triumph of Martin's candidate, E. T. Crawford, Esq., and the success of the cause. There will be few able advocates on the stump during this campaign than Capt. Gregory.

PRISON FOR CONVENTION.—Our old friend Joseph Pointier, of Person, is in the city, and says Person will give a larger majority for convention than she gave for Shipp; Shipp's majority was over 300. James Holman, Sr., is the conservative candidate and Horace Pumphrey the scalawag. It will do the weak-kneed good to talk with Pointier. It was said of Webster on one occasion, that each word weighed a pound, some of Tolson's weigh two.

QUESTION is not afraid of the majority ruling—either in the legislature or among the people. The following is the manner in which state amends her constitution.

"Amendments may be submitted by the legislative assembly to the electors, and adopted by a majority of voters, shall become a part of the constitution."—Constitution of 1857, art. 17.

CONVENTION IN THE EAST.—A staunch friend for convention writing us from the east says we may rely upon that section of the state doing better than last summer. In response we can assure our friend that the west and centre will follow suit.

For the Sentinel.

LEXOIR COUNTY CONVENTION.

In accordance with previous notice the time of a convention was set at the courthouse in Lenoir on Saturday the 13th of June to nominate a candidate for the convention, to wit, W. W. Dunn, H. F. Grainger, T. J. Kennedy, Wm. Ormond, W. H. Whitfield, R. M. Abbott, Calvin Herring, Jesse Jackson, John Cummings, and Joseph Miller.

The object of the meeting having been explained by the chairman, motion the following were appointed a committee to draft resolutions for the action of the meeting and to nominate a candidate for the convention, to wit, W. W. Dunn, H. F. Grainger, T. J. Kennedy, Wm. Ormond, W. H. Whitfield, R. M. Abbott, Calvin Herring, Jesse Jackson, John Cummings, and Joseph Miller.

Following the example set by their political opponents, the republican party have instructed its executive committee to address you in relation to the proposed convention.

It is very much to be desired that the members of our national convention be as well informed as possible of the true condition of the people of North Carolina as they are of any other nation in the world. It is to be hoped that the government, bills to effect every purpose, and what is more, to adopt the system of ploughing of the New York cash. The change is a very great simplification and in the course of a few years, with universal use, so regarded. The government of North Carolina then, in its turn, will be in a position to make a similar change.

The committee on the return, reported that John F. Woods, Esq., was unanimously selected by it as a candidate for the convention and recommended the adoption of the following preamble and resolution:

WHEREAS, A majority of the present legislature mindful of the interests of the people has ordered an election to be held on the first Thursday in August next, to decide whether or not they will call a convention for the purpose of amending our state constitution; therefore,

BEGGED, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people, and that party called the conservative party, to whom the nomination was given, be supported in their efforts to secure such amendments to our constitution as will be in the best interest of the people.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the action of the legislature in submitting the question of convention to the people