SPECK OF WAR

In Washington there is some talk of beyond his political gross, and actually in the name of the dense ride party inviting ment of American citizens by Havana Gov. Holden to return to the state. volunteers. The Uhited States Consul at Havana called upon Grant to protect him. It is thought the Cubans were "intimi dating" blm. An armed fleet was order dered to the port of Havana to demand an apology, and in case of failure to fire r up maible for the outrages and monner upon the city. Grant no doubt would like able acts of violence recest had against & a small fight with Spain. It would put him in his proper element and give a pretext for stealing the West India pos sessions. If we had Grant for governor of North Carolina and Caldwell for pres ident of the United States six citizens of North Carolina would not be lying in the Anageon of a neighboring jail.

Morth Carolina never had a governor. mve Holden and Caldwell, who would ould "enshrine him in millions of He is thus "enshrined" already. He was just so when Mr. Greeley signed his bail bond. The country, and especially the southern loyal people, have not forgotten this "labor of love" on the part of that gentleman. It could do no harm in the long run to except Mr. Davis, and it would harm no one to amnesty him. But he scorns to ask for it. It would not appease his friends to offer it to him. r grievances, in their judgment, are much greater than any mere

We think this thing of anneaty is overestimated. The number of those in the south who cannot hold office is not large. We are willing to remove the ban, but there is no special propriety. Dr. Pisher was reported to have said during the war, in private conversation that he would give $500 for old Abe's head. Holden asked and published in his paper for the man who would plot for Lincoln's head. When he was provisional governor he had Dr. Fisher summoned before him to answer for his private conversation pending the war. Holden called Andrew Johnson, Edward Everett and John C. Breckenridge, "three of the most elegant devils out of hell!" John son, after this, made him provisional gov. erner of North-Carolina, Holden turned upon his benefactor and sought to bave him impeached and deposed. Andy was forced to acknowledge he was bit by his own dog. "He (floiden) favors amnesty." There is not a radical in North-Carolina that does, Even Judge Dick was caught in a shabby trick upon the amnesty question.

Holden simply lies when he says " the number of those in the south who cannot hold office is not large." Ex-constables. magistrates, sheriffs and ex-members of congress and the legislature are all declared by radicals to be ineligible to office. When Holden was military governor of this sovereign state called district No. 2. and Brownlow that old "cuss" of Tennessee, was governor of that "district," Holden wrote him as a special personal favor not to allow Col. Duncan McRae to Duncate law in Tennessee. This was ma-Holden wrote him as a special personal lignity past Brownlows depth, and he really allowed Cot. McRae to practice law to the great disappointment and chagrin of Holden. Who but Caldwell and Phillips believes him when he says he favors amnesty.
