THE SENTINEL.

EGOTISE DEFIE

We are sorry to set for their Duke of [illegible] the secret departure, [illegible] property and his civilizing teachings.

In the Address of April 1st, he boasts [illegible] his platform, and the first plank is Black Duke.

The second is regret that Clay could no live always.

The third is "peace and harmony throughout the country."

Fourth "opposition to secession."

Fifth "Vigorous prosecution of the [illegible] with certificates."

Sixth "Disregard of party [illegible] at being united chiefly into the republican party."

Seventh "Regret to see methodism and hatred to the rebellion."

Eighth "We have another shed principles, believing it the only means by which party we can carry it would [illegible]."

We have hope of reasoning Duke's stroke of his platform.

The first plank was Duke's hatred of Lee and Jackson.

The second plank was [illegible] the cause of the Great Liberty.

He disregards [illegible] [illegible] calling, record his oath when [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
