The Semi-Weekly Sentinel.

failed-its deficiency being It is thought that its contracts good by the provisions of the which binds the stockhold the amount of their invest Andes bad "mighty pretty eat work in Indiana. The Greeley in Omio are mor than a west ago. The wor e for the laberal sale. Ther on of $768,000 This was the pay certificates upon the frea alt is the Treasury is empty State charities will have to b eh is radicalism:

Legislature

iris papers intorm us that P. Lee, has been nontiment the Conservative candidat in the Second District in that Journal, and is said to be a d forcible speaker. He is abar of large personal popularity Liberal strength in the disare glad to see the editorial eginning to be appreciated. information, and is certainly the standard of the usual Why not then give to him vell us to those who have gene less claims upon the people important services rendered in the gift of the people, there e the beginning of a brighter ors in many porcions of the nless we are to except North Gen. A. R. Wright, of Georgia of the Augusta Chronicle & is the Liberal candidate for Conthe Eighth District, whilst Pat another editor of the sam one of the candidates for the re from Richmond: Two editors ame office that will do. W ch manifestations on the part of -calling upon editors to fill in ists—as an evidence of apprecia he fidelity, zeal and whility with bey have discharged the imporctique of their editorial office best editors to conduct our for their is no nobier field of ver much depreciated by some on we see the craft called upon e duties that they are ever ed to discharge and which both distinction and reward all_editors of the right politics

ORAMATION WANTED be glad if our friend Duffy, pro' Patriot, and others who the information, will let u many Democrats, and who signed the bonds of the radting collectors. Settle says of that sureties are Demoe want their names. Who sign ad, who Crane's, &c. † Also he names of those Democrats emded Crane, Estes & Co., for os all the information you The Agricultural Bureau en devoting great at ic, with w years, and by its frequen snalysis of samples sent it. bed beyond all question that sing. It is, therefore, fast su color, and dyeing Turkey for tanning the floar kind of the detailters, Johnson or Having devoted so much space to this nore for himself. In his Brighampton speech, among many other amazing things, be said:

"In relation to the charges brough gainst him (the speaker) for having been rebel, he did, he said, with sorrow, join ern cause. He first did all in his power t avert the war, and stood before his pe-ple and pleaded for the Union and the flag. His state was the last one to secede and he Union after all the states around it ad resolved to withdraw from the gov

pensible, a pressure to bear upon t ma legislature) apport to cless mends charm." It is Capting State's Burnsides, the Logans, the Wendell Phil nd strong up the fires of seite. The North clearly proves that he spoke to a party who bated the South and desired fresh persecutions and a vigorous Bayonet nort of talk Capting is " too thin" to de

And now comes a very singular pasage. It is a gem of the first water.

"The speaker cleared up the charge brought against the administration of de faulting collectors, and showed that every telaulting collector in North Camina wa immended by Democrats, Nine tentle their sureties are Democrats, and if the overnment loses by detalentions in Non rolins, it will be because Democrats are anable to pay their bonds. n North Carolina is probably true in

We have not the evidence before us re write to show that this statement of the speaker that the defaulters were remended by Democrats, is not true out we believe that it is, and if it is true that "nine-tenths of their sureties are Democrats" it is no doubt because there were not any radicals who had properly ufficient to make them available sureties But the fact is, the statement is errone ous, and we doubt if Settle can find one Democra: whose name is on a defaulting follectors bond.

Here comes a delightfully refreshing passage that is absolutely as cool as a "cu umber to a spring branch :"

"The speaker also showed that the ng the Bouth poor to be legislatures steal undred and seventy members of the las egislature in North Carolina, only thir need were of Northern birth. Of the present legislature, there are only five who enough carpet baggers, he said, in the South. Of the eleven millions of dollars the North Carolina legislature had squandered, seven millions were drawn on bills signed by Merrimon, the Democratic Governor, and received by a Democratic president of a railroad; two millions were irawn by Dr. Hawkins a Greeley man and two millions by A. J. Jones, a The Democrats have Molen sine foliars to every two dollars stolen by Resublicans. Neither the Democratic party or the Republican party has robbed the scople of North Carolina, but individual nembers of both parties have engaged in the carpet baggers carried every thing with high-hand from 1866 to 1870, when the radical bordes were theroughly routed and the halls of the Legislature were cleansed and purified. You know that Littlefield, Abbott, Laflin, Estes, Deweese and a dozen others were the giants is those days of corruption, bribery and theft. You know, as the journals of the Legislature show, that the immense debt created and the $16,000,000 actually stolen, were the work of the carpet bag gentry mainly. Without them there ould have been no Rings; without them here would have been no swindles; without them the poor old Ptate would now out them the poor old State would now tality amy gel.rif. of London in receive credit and character abroad.

You know all this, and if we had access to either Northern renders or hearers, we times during the State campaign. You until to morrow the remainder of the

PENNSYLVANIA

All eyes are fastened upon the election be held in this great State on Oct. 8th The letter of the great "war Governor furting who is beyond doubt the most offuentual citizen of the Key Stone State will have a tremendous influence. He onfines himself exclusively to the local outests, because he did not, wish to disorle those Grant Republicans who would mount Backsley, the Liberal candulate or Governor. The New York, Tribum eferring to the campaign says

"There has never been so shameles impaign before. The Grant people are constring that they will return "whatever The Ariministrative is shapping negroes the cattle from Virginia and the District of Columbia. One herd of eighty bas a than five thousand are believed by Co sected outraces imon the ballot bux are not denied or concealed. They are avowed, and probably exaggerated, by the spetrators, to create the impress

Our party are confident of success. It scarcily possible that the Grantites, however stupendous their frauds, can over come the vast influence of such Grant en who oppose Hartranft's election a Porney and others, aided by such able ien as Curtin and othe warm supporters Grant in 1868. The Trilman says:

"We have hitherto retrained from mak-g any predictions in regard to the tie-ber elections. But to day we feel justi d, in view of the assurances we have eccived from widely different and intellirent sources, in announcing to our read rs that the redemption of Pennsylvania

Gov. Gurtin will take the stomp for Buckslew in a few days.

Mdme. Celeste returns once more to th tage, after an infinitudes of "lare wells." Hepeworth Dexon is about to visit J. an, with a view to studying the socia nd political life of that Empire.

On the occasion of his birthday. Kin ous of Bayaria has instituted a new old medal to recompense services rende The Queen of Spain has been in such state of nervels excitement since the at-tempt to assessmale the King and hersett it insanity is leared as the result. Bishon Harris, of the Methodist Ruis Discipline," the last pages of which was Dr. G. Tanevhill, of Baltimore, is Boston, and is preparing a book entitled, The Grades of Insanity that Eacuse Crime." The average juryman will find it ndispensible, while the psychological expert will find it fraught with vexation Mr. Edward Brooks, one of the sheriff elect for London, has been obliged to re-tage from office to which he had been chosen, in consequence of ill-health. The London "Tone" remarks that the morending the weight of his influence, what- and exercise the man who could thus ver that may be, to the cause of his benefactor, Uncless Simple. Thomas is not the that he did not know that he wa gat now a member of the Bread and But trading in abuse when he thus charged ter Brigade, but he has none the less mighty hankering after the Grant flesh- know that there was no "scourging " and pots, and has large expectations, no doubt, no "mandering" for "political differ in case his leads is re-elected. The de ences" is use State! Did be not know votion of Thomas is therefore, not of the he was stabling his neighbors and co unselfish sort. From his antecedents we trymen to make party capital among suppose him quite capable of being as people who believed only in the Gossel suppose him quite capable of being as clamorous for honest old Horace, provided he thought his election sure and his reward thereafter certain, as he is now can could be a kuklux supporters. I of respectable intelligence, and from me who has held a high judicial position. Antonomic mes extraorumary—may, bey are astounding. It is extraordinary or its abounding misstatements and for he bitter, inexcusable, deliberate attack makes upon the people of his own state. We propose to give some extracts elt pity for the man whose connections vere so respectable, and whose associations so get down in the fifth and mire of prejudice and party as to burl his dirt at the people for whose welfare he should cherish only the protoundest, solicitude and for whose character he should entertain the most unaffected admiration; we felt cox empt because of the augmns of the attack t being manifest that to gain a party trimpb the speaker was willing to resort the meanest, lowest kinds of defamaion the abuse and misrepresentation of is own people and his own State. In proportion as he has secial position and intelligence is his guilt intensified and leepened, and in that proportion should public censure attach to him. We must believe that when the speaker indulged in his unfounded charges against the people of North Carolina, he not only violated facts but sinned against his own conscience

PERU SETTLE IN NEW YORK. Mr. Thomas Settle is at the North

The speech appears in a radical paper, and we suppose, therefore, as it is of his party, he is correctly reported.

The first sentence of the report contain as much error as we have ever seen com pressed within the same space. It seems to us that if he had gathered errors for a week and theu placed them under a political hydrautic press the could not have condensed so much that is untrue in such a limited compass. Here is the sentence and judge for yourself:

Judge Settle's speech was attable argu ment in favor of the policy of the admin-istration of General Grant towards the South, showing that there has been an oppression, no beyonet rule of terror, no atenting by carpet burgers, and nothing exacted but loyal obedience to just laws.

We will not attempt to follow him through his "skimble-skamble stuff," but will quote several passages that North Carolibians may see how some of ou people, "native and to the manage horn," align their fellow efficens whou they 's campaigning go" among fanatics and

Thomas has made a remarkable discov fle has discovered that there is no fiscord or enmity between the sections

There is no bloody charm between the North and the South." He then makes this marvellous announcement for which he ought to be hear; ily ashamedthe supporters of threeley at the and the loyal people there. It is a e that charm, and call of scourging and murdering interest people, whose offence is politi-trol. Greeley cannot control them an ders that he said came before him whilst 870 he is not now referring to the mur-county in behalf of an abound and alanlered people that this reducal traducer that he tell where this hellish "conspi no where a man cannot be found "who hare oppose" murderers, and who dare of "give evidence against" murderers Chemos Peru Settle knows that this can of he done. He knows that he slander done to be th en by her offspring Why should

In reading red M. Waddell, of the Wilmington Dis escelul citizens of North Carolina; we on April 1, 1871. The gifted Carolinian, feeling scutely the stab which the in grate Senator had inflicted upon the in the past had been so good, who could scarred and unshielded breast of his mother, thus applied his castigation :

Mr. Speaker I rise to the performance State. And it is fortunate for me that am called upon to do so to day, be very recently in another place, another of her children intrusted with her honor and her dearest interests, a sentinel upon her highest watch-tower, has betrayed his there was no provision made for the pur ishment of parrielde, because it was con-sidered an impossible crime. The unnat ural being who could slay father range of possibilities in creation. What shall be said of the American citizen who when under accumulated calamities, unpe rateled in the history of this country, his mother State lie prostrate and helpless she stretches her bleeding arms and utters her pleading voice to him to ald and delend her, not only turns a deal car to her cry, but can become the willing tool of her dafamers and despoilers; can not only stand by consenting unto her death, but can give the last final stab to her honor and her life ? Sir, such a char burning language of the poet-patriot of Ireland:

Unprised are her sons till they're learned to belray Undistinguished they live, if they shame no their sires.

And the torch that would light them thro' dissilys + ay.

Must be caught from the pile where their Whenever my apostate son of North arolina shall dare wound the mother that bore him, may there be always at hand ome faithful son armed "with a whip of deel" to "print wounding lashes" and to sent the wrong. There are other utter ces of the super-serviceable Thomas Set e to which we will refer hereafter. A large barn, belonging to Mr. William day. Loss $2,000.

The immigrants by the steamship Per-use, which reached Norfolk, Monday are principally English, and they inter Thomas W. Hall, aged about cars, ) mid to be oldest citizen of Pair ax county.) died at his residence, nea obick shurch, last week. On account of his personal associati with the pending political campaign Msj Baker P. Lee, dissolves his connection ALEXANDRIA AND VICINITY,-Mr. T. kinner, one of the oldest residents Alexandria, being in the eighty-sixth year of his age, died Monday night.

Newton Shrader, of Bland county, who shot and killed William McAffe some ten days since, was tried before a n our recent history, that a very large become fatally vitiated as against the new State, through a coluntary transfer by their owners, during the progress and a role the honest tax pavers of the State

THE PORMAT, DISAYOWAL AND RE. PUDIATION OF ALL VITIATED

TIVES OF THE PEOPLE, IN THE ENSUING GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Pool other averments to the contrary us ir fundamental law (in the suspen)

the enjoyment of "peace," and quietude and regulated self-government. The loss of the constitutional smend-needs, and the probable election of Cald-rell as Governor, constitutes therefore another triumph of the carpet baggers and other conspirators and swindlers, who framed and fashioned our existing State overnment "after the manner of tie taxpayers of the State quently, presents the most important has The taxpayers who supported the proticket this summer, still demand relief, as matter of simple justic, from all liability o taxation in the future to meet the nterest on the principal of all vitiated or raudulent public indebtedness—they are espredly entitled to this relief and the the General Assembly cannot possib ontinue to postpone or evade the obligaunless the party ho ion to extend it. ng the majority are prepared to surrende air with the parties in all of the rons oppression and injustice meditated y them—all of which way still finally vertake the people, should Grantism i outsined, with its policy of Kuklux leg dation and bayonet election bills, whis larolina statutes, and which were enacted ere, as is now well understood, for the special protection of carpet baggers and ther toyal and official thieves xtremity.

The bondholders' mortgage (our Conupt demonstration of the manner in which each to support the Constitution, all man ner of chicanery and even downwrigh sociality perpetrated in connection with "the regularly'c estituted" public debt, is evidently intended to be fully shielded, severtheless, against the taxpayers, and every dollar's worth of property liable to exation in the State, even the poor man's now and calf, is subjected with Shylock precision, under the same oath, through the required "appropriate legislation" to the sheriff's summary kery and sale, without the slightest regard to the utterly imporerished condition of the great mass of the people,

The usual oath to support the Constitu tion, however, is only an additional safe guard to the legitimate purposes and spirit d that compact between the consequently cannot consistently be so con-struct as to impel intelligent and honest constitutional duties so called, which are intrinsically abourd and treacherous if not treasquable in fact, and which if regarded would result inevitably, in the of the State government, to the exclusive plunderers, who have already secured as inscrupitious Executive for four years pertally and " an exhausted Judictar foul devices.

The conservative party having had con trot of the general assembly for the last by every possible expedient, to set aside the boldholders fraudulent lien, and to obstitute in its place a straight forward North Carolina Constitution, securing to the tax payers so bosest, and consequently cheap government, with the privilege to question as a matter of right, and with out let or hindrance, all pub ic indebted ness, as an essential prerequisite to their own ess and dishonest officials, wh to deny, or in any wise to restrict such to repeat the efforts already made to amend the Constitution, so long as any of the conspirators who came in with the Holden and Pool and Littlefield dynasty, are still occupying the highest position

nder the State government.
Then what is the remedy f 1 still an wer emphatically repudiation—there is now no alternative—judicial legislation that stalking horse of radical psurpation other words, repudiated all limitations to taxation, as formally established in the onstitution, by the acceptance and ratidicate the tax payers against 1 relies and commanding necessity—I may be met however, with the objection that repudia non might injure "the party," but I say come a most discreditable failure, if this view of its duty to the State is to prevail me this winter, proceed to appoint a special committee, composed of their most experienced and decided men, and avest them with abode authority " to question, investigate and note, the history charges upon the people of North Caro dition to the above peculiarly sharp up lims that they are guilty issued a compile of the above peculiarly sharp up lims that they are guilty issued a compile of the above peculiarly sharp up lims that they are guilty issued as compile of the above peculiarly sharp up lims and finally to order the profiled in the state of the people of North Carolina or previous tours in the state of the people of North Carolina or previous tours of the people of North Carolina or previous tours of the people of North Carolina or previous tours or previous tours of the people of North Carolina or previous tours of the people of North Carolina or previous tours of the people of North Carolina or previous tours of the people of North Carolina or previous tours of the people of North Carolina or previous tours or previous tours cern that the people of North Carolini will never be taxed by the Conservative party to pay a single dime on account of any claim which has been found to be translutent or vitiated.

This step is now absolutely necessary good faith of the State," and to ensure a claimants, and to ensure a claimants, and to prepare the way for a final adjustment with them. In conclusion, being an old man and madfish lover of my country) to exercise bly who belong to my own party. Remember that your fathers had fallen uner the ban of the tyrant party, and are k well to your own safety -arrant con arators are in your moist distity, and upon you therefore dev nort, preserve, protect, and defend," th

You must take care at every step to de-construte your unfaitering fidelity to the of them is designed to reduce the bigo dens now resting upon the oppressed tax payers—begin the good work by a prompt reduction of your own per diem to three dollars, and your mileage to ten cents. trustworthy reformers follow these things up with an inflexible adherence to the travagance, and you cannot fail ultimately secure the respect and the confidence the masses. Then stand by the people and they will soon rally and stand by you and help you under the favor of Provi cuce; to rescue and save our free institu ons, still the hope of the world A CITIZEN OF STOKES.

September 10th, 1872. TWO ORATORIUAL GEMS.

We are as is known a special admirer of rant. His oratorical passages always such and melt us. When he "ope's his mouth" he can "draw audience still s summer's night." And no wonder, for he is both silver tongued and golden outhed. Only contrast his graceful, elo quent, facile utterances with the dull annderings of Horace Greeley and then say who has the most capacity—who is the man for the times. As we are pub lishing from day to day the talks of Gree ley we must also, by way of rettef-as a sort of file-lay before our readers the re narkably brithant orations of Grant. In order to catch up, we publish two of Grant's, but as they are "multum is parvo"-oratory done up in small pack ages brains condensed sparkling wit ticiums in extract—all administered is infinitesimal doses after the true homopa thic practice, we venture to do this rash thing. Here they are, "gems of pure

GENTLEMEN-I am most happy to be here to night to witness this display of Newark's manufactures. Your far-famed city has done well; her manufactures have an influence opposed to the importation of foreign manufactures,

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN-I could r but feel grateful for the reception I have received at the hands of the citizens of Newark and of New Jersey to day, I had the pleasure of visiting the State Fair near Elizabeth, where I saw little che but people. I was at your Exposi-tion to day, and again people, but little of what they had there to see. I hope to see to morrow what I went to night to hought and expression, if you are not so creatly impremed with Grant's capabilies as to desire him for President "unti very rebel over lorty years is dead," then you are not-Wendell Phillips or a radi cal. Take that for your comfort.

REPORTED LEASE.-The Wilm to the Wilmington and Weldon railroad cars. The gauge from here to Charlott will be changed to conform to the R & D. gauge.—Granatore' Patrice.

VOL. 7,---NO 105

Goy, Vance has returned from Ren-

Mr. John I. Alexander, which took plantout 2 o'clock Monday. He stied only a long and linguring illness. Mr. James H. Smith, late of the Ola or, is so far recovered from his remot

He preached at night one of b

Rema from the Wilson Ledger;

We were visited last week with several We regret very much indeed to have to this county, aged 47, died on Snaday

We learn from several gentlemen of oyners Depot, this week, that the work f Surveying the Railroad from Joyners Greenville is progressing finely, and Items from the Weldon Neses Mr. Lewis Browning is not dead we re prints 16th prox - The Bantista will is campaigning for hound old Horace son, Ferry Point, Va., The colored Greeley Club at Rocky

Mount numbers 25. It was recently ad-dressed by Simon B. Cravom, of Raleigh

The isolated case of small pox at Nuch rille, died on Sunday night, Miss Bettie

A new firm will keep the new brick store at Rocky Mount, Messra. Bennett, Bunn & John Battle. Battle & Con of he Falls sold out to these gentlemen.

Edgecombe's premium stock raiser. D. H Barlow, Esq., designs sending his silver cup fitty to the National Pair. He will send the dam of this beautiful beast

Bishop Atkinson preaches next Sunday

Judge Bond will be at Greensboro a the Federal Court in October.——D. P. Caldwell, Greeley Elector, will speak at several tax gatherings.——A thief robbed Mr. J. A. M. Coble, near Springfield Acad emy, of everything catable or wearable. bbed of $2,300 last week; robbers, named Chance, has been arrest It is a good Chance for a hanging we be

Deep River is lower than it has been Greensboro' is a "city." -Smash ups by horses running away with boggies are frequent. Three hundred Sunday school 'city" last Saturday.

TOBACCO BARN BURNED.-We learn hat the tobacco born of Mr. Andrew Can lay night and a large quantity of tobacco ring in our sanctum on vesterday one old friend, classmate and comade in-arms, Rev. Theophilus Moore, formerly of this State, but for six years past a citizen of Fiorida and resident of Jacks; cyille. Wil. Journal. NEW WARRHOUSE,-Mai, Oaks is add ing another warehouse 60 by 146 feet to those already in operation in Reidsville. elt in the thriving condition of the town which he has done so much to build up.-We learn from a gentleman from Graville, of the sudden death of Raf s Bob-bitt, Esq., of that county. He died one day last week while at work in the floid. We are told his life was insured to the amount of $30,000, - Tolacco Plant. BATTLE'S FACTORY.-We are glad to learn, from one of the proorietors, that on the falls of Tar river, at Booky Mount, are paying a handsome profit, Mr. Jemes 3. Battle has recently ordered sixty-four come from Manchester, England, and they will soon commence weaving cloth, which part of their business has been discontinued since they were but and out a year or more ago. They are active, enterprising business men. We wise them abundant prosperity. Westen News. GRANT'S KU KLUX .- The violent spirit of the Grant negroes towards those of their colored brethren who favor the cloction of Horace Greeley, exhibited itself at the Lincoln Depot in this city last Sunday.

He had just about finished curing the leaf when it accidentally caught fire.

An excursion train filled , with negroes was about to start. Lee Moore, a G ma about to sure. Lee moore, a creates of the trip, got aboard, when he was set upon and handled in a violent marger. He sued out a warrant against his assailants, Richard Pickenpack, Napoleon men whom he swears "did beat, wound and ill treat him," against the peace and dignity of the State.

The case will be brought up for a Reating before Justice Davidson on Saturday

The divorced wife of General Viels whose recent abditation of her youngest child, attracted so much attention in New lady of unusual literary talent, written a work of some ability, "Following the Drum," an uscoun a frontier fort at which her was stationed.

Mr. Jenkins, author of "Giax's Saby. and "Lord Bantain," has written to the London "Times," saying the last ideas he should think of helpiny to propagals would be those now called Republic/a.