The report of the Treasurer for Wake by and done their part to support the ounty to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for the school year ending Sept. 30th, 1872, shows, that the school fund of Wake county for that year was $7,478 71, besides the the state and county neen paid. Of this scool fund $5,667.75 was disbursed by the county Treasurer in tayment of school expenses in Wake county during that school year. Or this amount, $135 was paid for white schools in Raleigh township $360 for colored salands, and $709.53 for building a school

In this estimate I have not included the State apportionment, nor made any allowance for insolvents. But making a due allowances, these figures show that the estimate made and published in the papers this morning that the school fund of Raleigh township is more than three thousand dollars is not an extravagant estimate. They also show that the school tund is much too large to be wasted. This fund may be supplemented by other funds and by subscriptions and contributions by the people and schools may be established in which the children of Raleigh may be educated.
