

GENERAL NEWS.

[From the latest papers by Express.]
The Situation in Tennessee.

The Nashville Gazette of the 26th ultimo contains a fair statement of the situation in Tennessee, and what is said of Tennessee is no doubt true of other Southern States. It says:

We take occasion to say that, in middle Tennessee, at least, there has been no threat or apparent intention of returned rebel soldiers to meddle with the election. They are behaving with the utmost modesty. The determination expressed by rebels, whose hands are red with blood, to vote for rebels, never did wake up the authorities; for there never was any such expression.

This whole parade of intended fraud and violence in the election has no other foundation than in the purpose of a radical clique to conjure up a pretext for suppressing the legal Union vote, which they know to be two to one against them.

Cabinet Business.

The usually protracted session of the Cabinet meeting on the 8th afforded a fruitful topic to the sensationists of Washington, but was really occasioned by the accumulation of business during the President's illness, and the social interview consequent upon the return of Secretary Seward and Attorney-General Speed from their trip to Cape May.

Virginia—Internal Improvements.

The Constitution of Virginia, as adopted by the Alexandria Convention, requires the State, upon subscribing to any Internal Improvement, to pay the amount of such subscription in cash, or else to impose a tax the ensuing year sufficient to pay the whole amount.

There is a total change of our "internal improvement system," and will render State assistance to such works impossible without oppressive taxation.

It is surely unwise, and contrary to the well-established principles of political economy, to tax the people, during a single year sufficiently to pay a subscription to a permanent improvement, whose benefits inure to the future generations, and who should, therefore, bear a fair proportion of the burden it imposes.

The same paper says: The scarcity of houses of all descriptions in this city is the subject of general remark. Dwelling houses, stores, warehouses and offices are all in demand, and rents, in consequence, are exceedingly high.

The Aquia Creek Affair.

The Superintendent of Mechanics at Aquia Creek says officially that the negro hands employed on the railroad at that point did rise, with the avowed intention of murdering all the whites.

Texas.

[Washington Dispatch to the New York Times.] Not the slightest apprehension is felt here of any further national difficulties in Texas, and the speculations concerning military interference with the French beyond the Rio Grande have ceased altogether. Official and private correspondence received here from that section indicate that very few of the troops will be sent to Mexico.

It is understood in official circles that the late order mustering out Sheridan's troops will be disbanded at least two-thirds of his army.

The steamship America, from Savannah on the 1st inst., arrived in New York on the 9th. Business in that place was quite brisk, the country people having for some time been coming in in large numbers with their produce and to make purchases. Very little, however, was doing in cotton, and the stock on hand was comparatively small. Considerable excitement had been created in the city by an encounter at the Palaski House between a captain in the national army and Colonel Howell, a brother in law of Jeff Davis, and another ex-officer of the rebel confederacy.

A meeting has been called at Charlottesville, Virginia, to adopt measures to secure emigration to that State.

A Texas letter says: We want not only farmers, but mechanics of all kinds. We want rough labor, skilled labor, educated labor, human labor, horse labor and machine labor. A genial climate and productive soil invite occupation. Now is the time to come and make yourselves at home.

Receipts of Internal Revenue—Cabinet Meeting—Internal Revenue Decisions.

WASHINGTON, August 8.—From the first of July up to noon to-day the receipts of the Bureau of Internal Revenue were thirty-two millions of dollars. The increase has been heavy for several days past from the income taxes.

The President met his Cabinet to-day, the first time for ten days. There was a protracted session.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has ruled that a commercial broker may negotiate a sale of liquors from one dealer to another without additional license, but if at any time the liquor shall be in his custody or under his control he will require a license as a liquor dealer, on account of such negotiation of sale. The Commissioner also rules that the monthly returns of insurance companies need not include premium notes.

GENERAL REMARKS. Revenue Stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in schedule B, except proprietary and playing-card stamps, for which a special use has been provided. Revenue stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments. It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp on. If he neglects to do so, the party for whose use it is made may stamp it before it is used; but in no case can it be legally used without a stamp; and if used after the 30th of June, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument to appropriately stamp it renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars. Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrant, publication, petition, &c.; in which case, as the original process, severally require stamps. Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process. The Jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and subject to a stamp duty of 5 cents, except when taken in suits or legal proceedings. Certificates of loan, in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand, or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as "Promissory Notes." The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same stamp duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say, for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at the time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of fifty cents. When several persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamp duty which the instrument is liable under the law, may be affixed must answer to the value of the estate or interest conveyed. No stamp is required on any warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required, and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rate required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case, a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin, or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.

Headquarters Post of Raleigh, N. C., July 15, 1865. GENERAL ORDERS, No. 19. NUMEROUS complaints having been made about the reckless manner in which horses are driven through this City, thereby endangering the lives of pedestrians, it is hereby ordered that any soldier or officer found riding fast through a trot or slow gallop shall be immediately arrested and punished. Headquarters Department of N. Carolina, RALEIGH, N. C., July 16, 1865. GENERAL ORDER, No. 23. SUFFICIENT time having elapsed for all those formerly officers in the so-called Confederate service to remedy all badges, military buttons, brass, sword, or other articles designating rank, as required by good taste and a proper respect for the Government of their country, it is directed that they now remove them. All persons found with such articles on, five days after the publication of this order at any post, will have the same taken from them by the Provost Marshal (unless satisfactory evidence is furnished by the owners of their ignorance of this order), and will be detained in arrest for violation of the same. Commanders of Districts will circulate this order at once after receiving it, and cause particular information to be given to all persons known to wear such insignia. By command of Brvt. Maj. Gen. RICHARD CLINTON A. OILLEY, Maj. & Asst. Adj't. General.

PROSPECTUS OF THE SENTINEL. "I WOULD RATHER BE RIGHT THAN BE PRESIDENT." Henry Clay. As a means of support for his family and to contribute to the promotion of general intelligence, of right thought and action, the perpetuity of the Union of the States and the prosperity of North Carolina, the subscriber proposes, on his own responsibility, to connect with a general printing business, the publication of an independent, high-toned, political, literary and news journal in the City of Raleigh. He expects to establish the business and issue the journal, so soon as the regular mail facilities are restored to the State. It will be printed on entirely new type, press, &c., in the highest style of the art. Besides devoting his whole time to the editorial conduct of the paper, with such other help as will be required, he expects to engage fifteen or twenty of the ablest pens of the State to contribute to the columns regularly—15 general character, its model will be the "National Intelligencer" in its palmy days. It will be issued weekly, semi-weekly and weekly, as the wants of the public demand, and as it will contain a faithful record of the history of the times, all valuable State papers, discussions on constitutional law and political economy, as well as political, literary, moral and scientific essays of permanent value, the weekly will be printed in large type, for binding and preservation. As a family newspaper the weekly will be every way desirable. The war has demonstrated fully, the strength and power of the Republic, to maintain the government established by our fathers, against all attempts to dismember or destroy it; that the Union of these States under one general government, will receive the sanction and protection of Almighty God; that the absurdity and impracticability of the State Right doctrine of secession, and the impossibility of perpetuating African slavery in the United States. We accept these teachings as a salutary lesson. In politics, "The Sentinel" will neither be neutral nor non-partisan; but will be impartial on the other. Its political opinions will be based on the fountain of conservatism drank of by the illustrious Henry Clay and the fathers of the Republic, and not from the pools of Northern or Southern radicalism. It will neither be agrarian nor aristocratic. It will not labor to bring down or level any one, but to purify and elevate all. It shall have a leading aim of "The Sentinel" to foster and keep alive in our own people the sense of the justness and justice of their indefeasible rights as American citizens, and an undying devotion to the Constitution and the laws, as the best means for all time to come, of preserving inviolate the Union of the States. Finally, "The Sentinel" will strive to contribute to the cultivation of the spirit of mutual kindness, forbearance and confidence among our own people, and the restoration of unity and good feeling among the people of all sections of the Union. North Carolina and her sister Southern States must be rejuvenated and regenerated from the fetters of poverty and indolence. War, poverty, and enterprise must be revived. Our country has been devastated, our people reduced to poverty, but the harvest must again be made to bloom and blossom as the rose—our homes have been made desolate, but they must again be made the abodes of good cheer, refinement and hospitality. "The Sentinel" will be just and generous to the negro in his new condition, always opening to him the road to improvement and elevation in the reward of his intelligence, his industry and virtue, yet ever bearing in mind that our country is the inheritance of the white race. Its readers will find "The Sentinel" to be a spirited, reliable and thorough newspaper.

The Daily has been temporarily suspended because of the absence of the senior editor. It is issued semi-weekly for the present.

THE GREAT LITERARY WEEKLY RESUMED. THE Proprietors of that long established and popular family journal, THE SOUTHERN FIELD AND FRESIDE, take great pleasure in informing its numerous friends and patrons that its publication will be resumed just as soon as the mail facilities of the South will enable them to circulate the paper. This is an old paper published for many years at Augusta, Ga., and is entirely devoted to POLITE LITERATURE. It is a gem for the fireside, an ornament for the parlor, and an indispensable companion to the housewife and agriculturist. It is a large, eight page sheet, handsomely printed with new type. TERMS.—Subscription one year $3; six months $2.

THE KEY STONE, OUR MONTHLY MASONIC MAGAZINE, Will also be resumed at the same time. This Magazine is endorsed and recommended to the fraternity at large by the Grand Lodge of North Carolina.
