NEWS BY THE PAPERS.

The President to Visit Richmond -- Grand Coun The Richmond correspondent of the New York Herald writes to that paper as follows:

The President of the United States, accompaned by Hon. Edwin M. Stauton, Secretary of War, it is confidently asserted, will visit Richmond during the last week in August. The main objust of the visit will be to attend a council of the leading general officers of this and the adjacent military depot in reference to the condition of affairs in this section as affected by the policy of President Johnson's administration. The counoil will be held in the private parlors of the Jeff. Davis mansion, where the late President Lincoln met the prominent Southerners during his stay here, and which is at present the official resi-dence of Major General Terry, commanding this department. Among the distinguished officers who will meet the President and Scoretary on this occasion will be Major General Terry, Major General Turner, Major General Curtis, Major General Schofield, Major General Howard, of the Freedmen's Bureau at Washington; General J. R Hawley, Chief of Staff to the commanding General and others. There can be but little doubt that final action upon grave issues of State policy with reference to the attitude of this peoplo, growing out of the recent anomalous election held in this city, will be determined upon after the return of the President and Mr. Stanton to Washington.

> England and the United States. [From the New York Herald.]

The papers relating to the negotiations of the Canadian delegates in England, have been laid before the Canadian Parliament. They bring out in strong relief the nervous anxiety of the British Government on the subject of Canadian defences. In one dispatch Mr. Cardwell says bor Majesty's Government is unwilling, under present circumstances, to press upon Canada any decision on this point which can with prudence be postponed. "But, without auticipating that any causes of differences are likely to disturb our present friendly relations with the government of the United States, they think it necessary to bear in mind the vast accession which has recently been made, and still continues to be made to the military forces of that powerful country. They cannot forget the very small proportion which the numerical strength of British troops on the North American continent bears to the force which might at any moment be brought into the field against them. It would be a cause of just reproach against the British Government if those troops were suffered to remain in a position which, on the outbreak of War, they might not be able to hold until the military and naval resources of the country could be made available for their support."

Financial Frauds in New York.

There is great excitement in money circles in consequence of the frauds reported. Many failures are aunounced, including Charles Graham & Co. and Ketchum & Son. It is stated that the latter firm have issued gold checks to the amount of $1,3000,000, and young Ketchum has left for parts unknown.

Before departing he addressed a letter to his father, in which he fully admitted his crime and asked him to provide for his wife and child, say ing he had provided for himself.

It is reported that he abstracted bonds from the safe of the firm, but to what amount is not known.

The Fourth National Bank, it is now stated, is involved by his transactions to the extent of $155,000 having negotiated some of the forged all coulded

Gov. Pierpont's Views. 1

The same authority undertakes to speak as fol lows for Gov. Pierpont : The policy heretofore pursued by Gov. Pierpon in effecting the restoration of Virginia is to un. dergo an immediate and radical change. The Governor is now satisfied that the intentions of the leading men of the State, as expressed to him upon his accession to power here, have not been carried out in good faith, and that he has now eve ry reason to distrust the representations of their loyalty, so profusely made to him in the earlier days of his occupancy. These men promised Governor Pierpont that if he would aid according to the measure of his power in restoring them to the franchise, they would see that none but consistent Union men were elected to office.-The result has been otherwise to such an extent as to imperatively compel him to change his policy, in which action he will have the cordial endorsement of President Johnson.

English Opinion of the Freedmen Question. The London Times editorially expatriates on the difficulty o, maintaining and feeding the liberated slaves of the South, and says:

"It is easy for the victorious government by a few world to etrike off the slaves' fetters, and dislocate and destroy the industry of the whole community, but it is not easy for it to find an answer to the awful question. Of what are the puople to live,' one which it has raised for itself, and which every day more and more importantly demands un answer."
