NEWS BY THE PAPERS.

Whites and Blacks. A correspondent of the New York Herald, says: It is wrong to suppose, as alleged by some letter writers, that there is at the South a general feeling of hostility towards the blacks. They may act in such a manner as to create such a feeling, but at present it does not exist. We know that there is an earnest desire for their welfare and a sincere regret that they are not educationally and mentally prepared for the freedom so suddenly thrust upon them.

Mr. Davis' Plantation. The Vicksburg Journal says the freedman's establishment on the plantation of Jeff. Davis and his brother is in a flourishing condition. There are in cultivation between three and four thousand acres, planted with cotton, corn, potatoes and vegetables. The crops are looking finely.

A telegram dated from Albany, August 22nd.

R. M. Gillett, one of the counsel for Jefferson Davis, in a note to the Argus, says Mr. Davis has no more information concerning his trial than others have.

In a letter from Davis, dated the 15th instant, Gillett, he says: "I am still ignorant of the charges against me and the names of them, and the tribunal before which I am to answer. Your letter gave me the first notice of the Washington indictment." Davis requests Gillett to have a conference with Chase, O'Connor, his only other counsel, so that they may be prepared for the trial as soon as it is brought on, and with as little delay as the nature and importance of the case will permit.

A direct application to the proper department, asking to be informed when and before what tribunal Davis is to be tried, remains unanswered, because, it is supposed, neither has been actually determined by the President.

Restoration of Southern Estates to Pardoned Owners.

During last week upwards of a dozen citizens of the South, who had obtained their pardons, made personal application at the Freedmen's Bureau for the restoration of lands which had been taken into the custody of the bureau. On production of the certificates of pardon, the applicants were furnished with orders upon the local agents of the bureau in the South for the restitution of the property claimed, with the provision that the owners be made to compensate the blacks for the crops they may be cultivating thereon, or leave them in undisturbed possession until the same are harvested.

Cotton Prospects and Prices.

A planter from the parish of St. Charles, who considers himself fully posted on cotton statistics, informs the New Orleans Times that there never were over 400,000 bales of cotton raised any season west of the Mississippi. He thinks that there were nearly 300,000 bales between the Mississippi and the Rio Grande when Kirby Smith surrendered, and that 40,000 bales will be added by this year's crop. Of the old crop a great deal has already been hurried to market, and the new crop as well as the old will be entirely cleared out of the country before the first of March next. With the limited stock on hand and the crop prospects now before us, he thinks sixty or seventy cents per pound will be the prevailing price in January next.

Bureaucy.

[Herald's Washington Dispatch.] Nineteen-twentieths, say more, of the employees of the departments are hostile to the policy of the President. The bureau, almost without exception are presided over by his political foes, who have crammed their respective offices with the bitterest of radicals and negro worshippers. With some few designing exceptions used for a disguise, no applicant is appointed by them who is not unqualifiedly committed to negro suffrage and equality; and no employee, however efficient and competent, is not promoted who is not of the same stripe. The proscription and favoritism has become a studied system in many of the bureaus. We hope the President will take note of this in time. Bureau influence is a gigantic power in a State.

PROSPECTUS OF THE MERCHANTS, MECHANICS AND FARMERS' JOURNAL. IT is proposed, in connection with a general printing business, to publish a Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly journal in the city of Raleigh, under the above title. As its name imports, it will primarily be devoted to the interests of those classes of the community engaged in the production, and will strive to elevate and advance these interests with the progressive ideas of the era. At the same time it will not be un-mindful or unappreciative of the wants of the general public. While it will not enter the arena of political gladiators, it will be made the vehicle of independent discussion of State or National exigencies, as they may arise,--always consistent with an unswerving loyalty to the common Government.

It will give all the latest NEWS, foreign and domestic. It will have a sub-Editor or correspondents in every County in the State, thereby ensuring a local interest which cannot fail of rendering it attractive to all sections.

Every effort will be made to render the "Journal" an acquisition, especially to the business community, and a valuable medium, through which their wants and operations may be made known. Advertising will be arranged at low rates and the most attractive inducements to secure its circulation.

The size of the "Journal" will be double medium, and it will contain EIGHT neatly printed pages. It will be gotten up in the best style of typography and printed on new material.

TERMS: Daily, for one year, $3 00 Daily, six months, 2 00 Daily, one month, 1 00 Semi Weekly, one year, 2 00 Semi Weekly, six months, 1 50 Weekly, one year, 3 00 Weekly, six months, 2 00 Persons desiring to subscribe will send in their names immediately, but may withhold the price or subscription until the receipt of the first number. THE GREAT LITERARY WEEKLY RESUMED. THE Proprietors of that long established and popular family journal,

THE SOUTHERN FIELD AND FIRESIDE, take great pleasure in re-forming its numerous friends and patrons that its publication will be resumed just as soon as the mail facilities of the country will enable them to circulate the same. POLITE LITERATURE. It is a gem for the drawing room, an ornament for the parlor, and an indispensable companion to the housewife and agriculturalist. It is a large, eight page sheet, handsomely printed with new type. Terms--Subscription one year $5; six months $3.

A NEW PAPER. THE DAILY RALEIGH RECORD. THE UNDERSIGNED, HAVING OBTAINED the necessary permit from the Military authorities, propose to publish in the City of Raleigh a daily newspaper to be called the RALEIGH RECORD.

This paper will contain a record of the important events of the country, both civil and military; the latest military news affecting the interests of the people of North Carolina; and of the South, the daily market prices of provisions, &c., and such other miscellaneous reading matter as is usually found in the columns of daily newspapers.

Having no party purpose to subscribe, and no political restrictions to gratify, we shall whenever we feel called upon to do so, speak the honest and unvarnished truth in regard to the great measures affecting the interests of our people, unworshiped by parties, feelings, or personal animosity.

Persons in the City desiring to subscribe for the Raleigh Record will please call at our office in the old "Magazine" building near the Court House, and opposite the Yarnwell House, to give us their names. TERMS--Single copies--sent by mail three months $3 00; for six months $5 00; for one year $10 00. Advertisements, one square for each insertion one dollar.
