"I WOULD RATHER BE RIGHT THAN BE PRESIDENT." - Henry Clay.

VOL. I. RALEIGH, SATURDAY, SEPT. 9, 1865. NO. 29.

NEWS BY THE PAPERS.

General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

The next convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, will meet in St. Luke's Church, in the city of Philadelphia, on Wednesday, the 4th day of October next, at ten o'clock, A. M.

The Cholera at Smyrna.

Her Britannic Majesty's Consul (Robert W. Chamberlath) writes thus from Smyrna on the 5th inst: "We are doing all we can to keep the people from starvation; the distribution of food is becoming more general."

Cotton and Sugar.

The New Orleans Picayune says it is a cruel mockery to express an expectation that any of the great staples of the State will soon be produced on a scale approximating to the production of the year before the war.

From South Carolina.

New York, September 4 - The Charleston Courier of the 31st ultimo says: "It is stated that a decision has been arrived at that only those will be entitled to vote at the approaching election for a Convention who were actually legal voters in 1860."

The French Consul and the New York Journals.

The French Consul at this port has intimated to the proprietors of certain New York Journals (Herald, Express and World), that hereafter they will not be permitted to circulate their publications in France, unless they adopt a more becoming tone towards the Emperor in discussing Mexican policy.

The Injustice of the North - The Sincerity and Loyalty of the South Beyond Question.

It seems exceedingly difficult to induce northern editors to believe that the people of the South have abandoned, finally and forever, all idea of further resistance to the constituted authorities of the land. These editors believe that there is no such thing in any southern state - except in rare individual cases - as sincere and honest loyalty to the government of the Union.
