BUREAU OF REFUGEES AND FREEDMEN

Important Circular from General Howard. Rules and Regulations Adopted Relative to Abandoned Lands in Possession of the Government, &c.

Circular No. 15. WAR DEPARTMENT, BUREAU OF REFUGEES, FREEDMEN AND ABANDONED LANDS. WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 4, 1865.

Circular No. 13, of July 23, 1865, from this Bureau, is hereby rescinded, and the following rules and regulations are adopted for the purpose of establishing a definite and uniform policy relative to abandoned lands or real property, and lands or real property to which the United States shall have acquired title by confiscation or sale or otherwise, which now or may hereafter come under the control of this Bureau by virtue of the act of Congress approved March 3, 1865, establishing and it by, order of the President, to wit: General Orders No. 110, War Department, June 5, 1865.

First—Abandoned lands referred to in the law and regulations governing this bureau are defined, according to section two of an act of Congress, approved July 2, 1864, as follows, viz: "Property, real or personal, shall be regarded as abandoned when the lawful owner thereof shall be voluntarily absent therefrom and engaged either in arms or otherwise in aiding or encouraging the rebellion."

Second—Property will not be regarded as confiscated until after the degree of the United States Court for the district in which the property may be found has been made, by which the property is condemned as enemy's property, and becomes the property of the United States.

Third—All abandoned land or real property and all land and real property to which the United States shall have acquired title by confiscation or sale or otherwise, that now is or may hereafter come under the control of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen and Abandoned Lands by virtue of said act and order of the President is and shall be set apart for use of loyal refugees and freedmen, and so much as may be necessary assigned to them, as provided in section fourth of the act establishing the bureau, viz: "To every male citizen, whether refugee or freedman, as aforesaid, there shall be assigned not more than forty acres of such land, and the person to whom it is so assigned shall be protected in the use and enjoyment of the land for the term of three years, at an annual rent not exceeding 5 per centum upon the value of said land as it was appraised by the State authorities in the year 1860, for the purpose of taxation, and in case no such appraisal can be found then the rental shall be based upon the estimated value of the land in said year, to be ascertained in such manner as the commissioners may by regulation prescribe. At the end of said term, or any time during said term, the occupants of any parcels so assigned may purchase the land and receive such title thereon as the United States can convey, upon paying therefor the value of the land as ascertained and fixed for the purpose of determining the annual rent aforesaid."

Fourth—All lands or other real property within the several States, viz: Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, Kentucky, Missouri, Maryland, Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas, to which the United States has acquired or shall acquire title by confiscation or sale or other abandoned real property in those States, provided said property, whether confiscated or abandoned, remaining unsold or otherwise disposed of shall have been properly transferred to the Bureau upon requisition of the Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner, shall be considered as under the control of the Commissioner of Refugees, Freedmen and Abandoned Lands, for the purpose hereinafter set forth and for the time authorized by the act establishing the bureau; and no part or parcel of said confiscated or abandoned property shall be surrendered or restored to the former owners or other claimants, except such surrender or restoration be authorized by said Commissioner.

Fifth—Assistant commissioners will as rapidly as possible cause accurate descriptions of all confiscated and abandoned lands, and other confiscated and abandoned real property, that is now or may hereafter come under their control, to be made, and besides keeping record of such themselves, will forward monthly to the Commissioner of the Bureau copies of such descriptions, in the manner prescribed by circular No. 10, of July 11, 1865, from this Bureau. They will, with as little delay as possible, select and set apart such confiscated and abandoned lands and property as may be deemed necessary for the immediate use of refugees and freedmen, the specific division of which into lots and the rental or sale thereof, according to the law establishing the bureau, will be completed as soon as practicable and reported to the Commissioner. In the selection and setting apart of such lands and property care will be used to take that about which there is the least doubt, that this Bureau should have custody and control of.

Sixth—When any land or other real property that shall come into the possession of this Bureau as "abandoned," does not fall under the definition of "abandoned," as set forth in section 2 of the act of Congress approved, it will be formally surrendered by the Assistant Commissioner of the Bureau for the State, within which such real estate is situated, upon its appearing that the claimant did not abandon the property in the sense defined in said section and act.

Seventh—Former owners of property held by this Bureau as abandoned, who claim its restoration on the ground of having received the pardon of the President, will, as far as practicable, forward their applications to the Commissioner of this Bureau, through the superintendents and asstant commissioners of the districts and States in which the property is situated. Each application must be accompanied by:—1st. A copy of special pardon of the President of the United States, or of the oath under his amnesty proclamation when they are not embraced in any of the exceptions therein enumerated. 2d. Proof of title. 3d. Evidence that the property has not been confiscated or libelled in any United States court, or, if libelled, that proceedings against it have been discontinued. Officers of the Bureau through whose hands such applications may pass will enforce thereon such facts as may assist the Commissioner in his decision, stating especially the use to which the property is put by the Bureau. O. O. HOWARD, Major General, Com'r of Refugees, Freedmen and Aban'd Lands. Approved September 4, 1865. ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States.
