NEWS BY THE PAPERS.

Negro Soldiers Hung in Texas for an Outrage Committed Near this City.

Assistant Inspector General's Office, Headquarters 3d Division, 25th Army Corps, Brazos Santiago, Texas, Aug. 20, 1865.

Editor of the Richmond Times—Sir: Some of the inhabitants of Richmond or vicinity may recollect that while a portion of the Twenty-fifth Army Corps was encamped at the outskirts of the city, an outrage was committed by colored soldiers upon one Mrs. Eliza Woodson and her niece.

Sergeants Jackson and Brooks suffered the death penalty at Brownsville Texas, on the 29th day of July, 1865, in the presence of the entire Division.

Corporal Sheppard, the third party, was injured on board of a transport while lying in Hampton Roads, by having his collar-bone broken, and was sent to the Fort Monroe hospital.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant, R. F. ANDREWS, Captain Thirty-sixth U. S. C. T. and A. A. I. G. Third Division Twenty-fifth Army Corps.

THADDEUS STEVENS RAMPANT.

The President's Policy Denounced.

The Hon. Thaddeus Stevens delivered a speech in the court house, in Lancaster, Pa., on Wednesday night, which was a tissue of sophistical fallacies, in direct opposition to the policy of President Johnson.

From East Tennessee--Bristol--The Crops--Hops.

Some ten or fifteen soldiers stationed at Bristol, as a guard, on the 1st instant, became so disorderly that their officer, a Lieutenant, called the citizens to his assistance, and with them disarmed and arrested the guard and sent them to Lynchburg for trial.

The political troubles in the region about Knoxville are driving many of the citizens of that section to Bristol and its neighborhood.

The corn in the whole of Southwestern Virginia and East Tennessee is magnificent. The crops of sorghum and buckwheat are also large and very fine.

The New Governor of Vermont.

It is wonderful to look at the numerous changes that occur within a few years--especially among politicians. The Hon. Paul Gillingham, just elected Governor of Vermont by the republicans, was five or six years ago the leading democratic politician of the State.

Reduction of the Currency.

At a meeting of the New York Chamber of Commerce on Thursday this subject was considered. Mr. Lowe recommended, as a means of accomplishing the desired end, that the Government should receive one-tenth of the dues on importations in legal tender.
