NEWS BY THE PAPERS.

Querida Outrage.
 NASHVILLE, September 27.—A gang of thirty or forty guerrillas, near Springfield, Robertson county, yesterday commenced indiscriminate robberies and murders upon the residents of that locality. Thomas J. Payne was killed, his house robbed and his family outraged. At Adams Station, on the Edgefield and Kentucky Road, they plundered all whom they caught.
 Robert D. Gray was hanged to a tree, and then dragged on the ground till one eye was torn from the socket. Wm. Adams was also severely beaten by the robbers. The exact number of the band was not known. It is believed that Harp, who has for some time past been in that vicinity, is their leader.

An Appeal from an Unexpected Quarter.
 To-day, two colored women and a colored man were in attendance at the White House seeking an interview with the President, to ask pardon for their former master, a man named Williams. Williams is, or was at the breaking out of the war, a wealthy citizen of Virginia, and at one time owned a number of slaves. It appears from the statement of these colored people that Williams made application for pardon some time ago, and as the application has not been acted upon as yet, they are here to intercede in behalf of their old master.

A Terrible Tragedy.
 DUBUQUE, Iowa, Sept. 25.—A terrible tragedy occurred at Fair Play, Wis., seven miles from this city, this evening. Joe Barrow, of that village, fired at his wife with a revolver, but missed her. His daughter, hearing her mother's cry for help, rushed into the room, when he turned and fired on her, the ball taking effect in her forehead, killing her instantly. He then knocked his wife down with the revolver, inflicting a mortal injury, and ended the tragedy by cutting his own throat with a lancet. Mrs. Harney and the doctor were alive at last account, but there were little if any hopes of their recovery.

The European Capitalists.
 CLEVELAND, Sept. 26.—Sir Morton Peto and party were to-day the guests of the Board of Trade, who showed them the prominent manufacturing works, depot and mills, in a ride through the city and its suburbs. In the afternoon they were presented to the merchants on "Change, and this evening are participating in a banquet at the Weddell House.

Union Officers Indicted in Kentucky.
 LOUISVILLE, Sept. 25.—The Union Press announces the indictment of Major Gen. Palmer Brig. Gen. Brisbane for abducting slaves and otherwise interfering with the slave law of Kentucky, and suggests that as the President upheld the Generals, he should be, by all means, indicted by one of our enlightened and patriotic grand juries.

The Vote of South Carolina for Emancipation.
 Destruction of the Public Records.
 NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The Charleston papers of the 23d publish a clause of the new Constitution, as adopted by a vote of 98 to 8, declaring the emancipation of slaves. The ordinance to repeal the ordinance of secession was ratified.
 A correspondent of the Charleston Courier refers to the disastrous loss of South Carolina in the destruction of her public records. Titles, deeds, mills, judgments, decrees, &c. have all disappeared in the flames of war.

The Aquia Creek Route to Richmond.
 This road is now thoroughly completed, the ridge over the Rappahannock constructed on low's truss plan, and no pains or expense have been spared to render the entire route one of real comfort. It is gratifying to notice the enterprise and industry which is evidenced throughout the burnt district between Aquia Creek and Fredericksburg. Men have gone to work on the ruins, the blackened earth is now sown with new crops, new dwellings and new fences greet the eye in every direction, and the horrors of war have passed away.

Civil Affairs in Virginia.
 The regular Fall term of the United States District Court of Virginia commenced yesterday Alexandria, Judge Underwood presiding. All attorneys, before being admitted to practice in the United States, are required by act of Congress, to take the oath of non-participation in the rebellion. Francis Smith, a lawyer of Alexandria, yesterday argued before the court that having been pardoned by the President and thereby restored to his rights and privileges of citizenship, he should not be required to take the oath. Mr. Smith cannot deny that he has not given aid or comfort to the enemy, but on the other hand he claims that his pardon places him on the same footing as before the war. The law of Congress requiring this oath as a qualification is explicit, and the important issue is thus raised whether the pardon of the Executive can be construed into a cancellation of disloyalty. The District Attorney, L. H. Chandler, will answer the argument of Mr. Smith to-day.

The District Court will hereafter hold regular sittings at Norfolk, Richmond, Staunton and Lynchburg. By a law of Congress passed in 1862, the Federal Circuit for Virginia, presided over by the Chief Justice of the United States, was changed from Richmond to Norfolk; but it probable will be soon transferred to Richmond, no objection to its sessions there now existing.—Baltimore Sun.

Disunion Meeting Yesterday.—A meeting of the disunionists of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad took place in the city. An election general superintendent of the road for the next year was the object of assembling. Col. J. Fremont, the gentleman heretofore occupying the position, was re-elected.
 Don A. B. Bridges, the president, arrived in city by special train yesterday forenoon.—A Journal.
