NEWS BY THE PAPERS.

Great Fire at Constantinople.

FURTHER PARTICULARS—EIGHT THOUSAND HOUSES DESTROYED.

[Constantinople Correspondence London Daily News.]

Roughly estimated it may be said that the disaster has laid waste nearly a quarter of the whole area of Constantinople proper, destroying, it is reckoned, about eight thousand houses, nearly twenty mosques, ten baths, five Christian churches, and some fifteen khans.

The Reported Attempt to Assassinate General Grant.

That portion of the press which is sensational or nothing, a few days since started a report that an attempt was made to kill General Grant by throwing a train of cars off the track of the Indianapolis and Cincinnati railroad.

Prices in New York.

A letter from New York says: "We are rapidly drifting back to the war standard, not that produce or provisions are scarce, but that speculators and middlemen are in a 'ring,' and combine together to fleece the public."

The Fenians.

Our latest advices from Europe proclaim the fact that England has awakened from her sense of security; that the agitation in Ireland has alarmed the new Ministry, and that in Dublin, in Cork, in Dunlery the Fenian leaders have been arrested; the Fenian newspapers suppressed; the Fenian arms and ammunition confiscated.

The information in our possession as to the numbers and resources of this association in Ireland, is too limited to admit of even a speculation as to the probable result of this decisive action of the Government.

They are pledged hands, lives, and fortunes to a support of the cause for which they are banded together.

In case of a conflict on the shores, which are red now with the blood of unsuccessful revolution, will these men be true to their vows? Will the resuscitated relics of the Harp of Tara's Hall, be strong enough to summon back these exile sons to unequal battle with a powerful throne?

We believe not, even should the United States Government allow the formation and departure of such an expedition.

The hopeless struggle for Right, which involves the loss of innocent life, the destruction of property, the suffering of coming generations, is more painful, more deplorable, than a submission to inevitable Wrong; and the gallant foreigners, driven to quarrel by prescription, the men who have once felt what it is to be torn asunder in misfortune by those whom they have led, will, we trust, avoid a useless strife, and leave the freedom of Ireland if she be not free, to the future with its iron hand of Destiny.

SHIPMENT OF $1,000,000 IN IRISH BONDS.—The steamers City of Boston and Erin, which sailed from this port on Saturday, are said to have taken out $1,000,000 in bonds for the use of the embryonic Irish Republic.
