PROCLAMATION. WILLIAM W. HOLDEN,

PROVISIONAL GOVNRNOR,

TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

WHEREAR, A Convention of the people of North Carolina has been chosen in pursuance of the proclamation of ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865. under the fourth section of the fourth article of the Constitution of the United States, which guarantees to every State in the Union a republican form of government, for the purpose of enabling the loyal people of said State to organize a State government whereby justice may be established, domestic tranquility restored, and loyal citizens protected in all their rights of life, liberty and property; and for the purpose also of restoring said State to its Constitutional relations to the Federal Government, by presenting such a republican form of government as will entitle the State to the guarantee of the United States therefor, and its people to protection by the United States against invasion, insurrection, and domestic violence: And said Convention having assembled in the City of Raleigh, and adopted Ordinances hereinafter set forth, I, WILLIAM W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor of said State, do hereby proclaim and declare, that an election will be held in the various Counties of said State on Thursday, the ninth day of November, 1865, as fol-

1st. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance declaring null and void the ordinance of May the 20th, 1861." 2d. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance prohibiting slavery in the State of North Carolina."

3d. For a Governor and members of the General Assembly. 4th. For seven members of the House of Rep-representatives of the Congress of the United 5th. For Clerks and Sheriffs of the respective Counties. The elections shall be conducted in accordance with "An Ordinance providing for the election of the members of the General Assembly, to be convened on the fourth Monday of November, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, and for electing Representatives in Congress and Governor of the State, ratified by the Convention the tenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixtyfive, and hereinafter set forth; said ordinance having been passed in pursuance of the procla-mation of the President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, authorizing said Convention to "prescribe the qualification of the elec-tors, and the eligibility of persons to hold office under the constitution and laws of the State."-And also, in conformity with the rules and regu-lations prescribed by the laws of this State concerning said elections, in force previous to the 20th day of May, 1861. The people of the State are respectfully urged to maintain order among themselves at the election, and to discountenance appeals, the tendency of which may be to prudance ill feeling and alienation towards the federal government. The policy of the government has been liberal and generous towards North Carolina, and no pains

odd ha courad to sacura a conti

And the officers in the various Counties, ap-pointed by the Provisional Governor, are enjoined to exert themselves to preserve the peace among the people on the day of the election; to act with justice and firmness in all matters that may claim their attention; to see that those entitled to vote are protected in their right of suffrage, and that every manifestation, if such man ifestations there should be, of hostility to the federal government, is promptly rebuked and re-
