

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

EASTERN MAIL.—Owing to the carrying away of the Neuse river bridge between this city and Goldsboro by the freshets, we have been without an Eastern mail for several days. This will account to our subscribers for the failure of the Sentinel.

SELLING AT COST.—Such is the general scarcity of money, we believe goods sold more rapidly before at full prices than now at cost. Our merchants however, really offer goods at cost prices.

TRINITY COLLEGE.—This institution it will be seen, opens its next session under the auspices of its old President, Rev. Dr. Craven, on the 11th of January. The faculty of the institution has been reorganized and it offers inducements to students.

Our friend Carraway it will be seen, leaves Raleigh, much to the regret of his friends. Mr. Brown succeeds him in the store of Hart & Lewis.

It will be seen that the exercises of the next session of the North Carolina Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind, will commence on Monday next.

See various notices among our new advertisements, which we have not space to refer to specially.

The notice to us insert Gov. Holden's proclamation in reference to the vote upon the ordinances of the Convention, came too late to put it in type for this issue. It will appear to-morrow.
