NEWS BY THE MAILS.

From Washington.

THE SOUTHERN CONGRESSMEN.

There is no truth in the report that the Southern members elect held a caucus a few days ago and resolved to go home and remain there until after the 4th of March next. Most of those Southern Congressmen have gone home to spend the holidays, and intend returning in January to prosecute their claims for seats in Congress.—From the tone of the leading men in both Houses just before the adjournment, there is reason to believe that the Tennessee Senators and Representatives will be admitted to seats before the 1st of February, and there is good reason to believe that most of the Representatives of the other Southern States will be admitted within a very short time. The opinion is gaining ground that the credentials of the claimants for seats from the Southern States should be referred to the Committee on Elections and there disposed of without the incumbrance and weight of the loads of reconstruction resolutions offered, and stump speaking boiled down ye. to be presented by members of Congress.—Correspondence N. Y. Times.

THE POLITICAL COMPLEXION of the Joint Committee on Reconstruction, commonly called the Thad. Stevens Committee, is just now undergoing considerable discussion.—Although the antecedents of a majority of its members are well known, it seems to be somewhat difficult to determine how far they will array themselves against the wise and patriotic policy of the President and attempts to assail his manifestly impregnable position. There is no doubt that Stevens, Washburne, Morrill, Bingham and Boutwell, on the part of the House, and Fessenden, Grimes and Howard on the part of the Senate, will pull together, without counting Roscoe Conkling of the House, and Harris of the Senate. The Destructionists have a majority of one on the Committee. It is possible that the firmness of the President, supported as he is by a large majority of the people, may cause a change for the better, ere the lapse of many weeks. At present, however, there seems to be little ground for hope, Stevens, Sumner & Co., will hold on to the last.

THE INTENTION TO WITHDRAW FRENCH TROOPS.

The correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger reaffirms the statement that the French will be withdrawn from Mexico. Says the writer: "I now repeat—that the Emperor of the French will not withdraw his troops until positive information is received from the Government that it will neither interfere nor permit of interference on the part of its citizens in the affairs of that country. This is in reality the position of the government now; but what the Emperor wants is an assurance that this position will not be changed."

THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU.

The Executive has pledged his word that this Bureau shall be abolished in every State as soon as they exhibit a sincere willingness to protect the freedmen.

SECRETARY STANTON'S REPORT.

Secretary Stanton, in his reply to a resolution of the Senate requesting him to report whether any person was employed by the War Department who has not taken the oath prescribed by act of Congress, says: "None have been employed except those who were appointed Provisional Governors of States recently, who have received compensation for service to the United States Government, out of the contingent fund of the war debt, at the same rate allowed to A. Johnson, Military Governor of Tennessee, under appointment March 23d, 1862, viz.: at the rate of $8,000 per annum, to wit: W. W. Holden, Provisional Governor of North Carolina, $1750. B. F. Perry, Provisional Governor of South Carolina, $750. Lewis E. Parson Provisional Governor of Alabama, $1000. James Johnson, Provisional Governor of Georgia, $1000. And in reply to enquiry, whether any person was filling office not authorized by law, says, that in August last, an office was organized in the Adjutant General's Bureau, for collection, safekeeping and preservation of Confederate archives, and Dr. Francis Liber was appointed chief of that Bureau. The reason of this appointment was, the necessity of having archives collected by a publicist of known character and reputation, in order that they might be available to good, without delay. He received the sum of $241,784, out of Provost funds in charge of Adjutant General.

The Riot in Alexandria.

WASHINGTON, December 27.—The reports which reached her last evening of a riot at Alexandria between the whites and negroes, in which five to six on each side were killed, were greatly exaggerated. It now appears to have been a free fight, both sides being to blame, and both were severely punished.

FIFTEEN HUNDRED PERSONS CONFIRMED.—The rite of confirmation was, on Wednesday, conferred upon some fifteen hundred persons in the Catholic Church of St. Mary's, by Archbishop McCloskey, assisted by Rev Mr. McNierney secretary, Archdeacon McCarron, Rev. Fathers McKenna and St. John. The church was densely crowded, the ground floor being reserved for those about to be confirmed. At 11 o'clock, the boys to the number of some six hundred; and in the afternoon at two, eight hundred girls received the Sacrament of Confirmation, the Archbishop briefly addressing the congregation at both services.—New York Express.

NEW GOODS.

New Line Opened!—Makes Two Trips to the Old Line's One!

A. CREECH HAS JUST RETURNED FROM the North, where he has bought his second supply of

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

Embracing the various New Styles of the Season, together with Ladies Cloaks, Long Shawls, Breakfast Shawls, Ladies and Misses' Goods, Ladies and Misses' Hoop Skirts, Ladies and Misses' Balmoral Shoes, Gent's Boots and Shoes, Boys, Youths and Children's Boots and Shoes, Felt Hats, the Derby the Dashaway, the Planter's wide brim and other styles for Men's wear, Boys, Youths and Children's Hats. Wood and Willow Ware, crockery and Glass Ware, and a superior lot of Family Groceries.

Take my stock altogether, I have one among the largest and most desirable and complete stocks of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods in the City.

Now allow me to say that I bought my Goods to sell, and they must and shall be sold; but I don't expect to take a piece of poetry in one hand and a full grown humbug in the other and climb up to the clouds and fish out the birds of Paradise and gently bring them down with a placard stuck on their backs, "Selling out at Cost! sell 'em at cost!" No, I deal in no such humbug. I keep no such a class of Goods. I keep no time worn shop-rubbed, defaced or dusty Goods—dust so thick you can rub it off with a knife. My Goods are all new, and of good styles, and I put down them as low as any body that bought goods with the expectation of paying for them, and the man that sold the goods to the man that don't intend to pay for them is a fool and the man that sells that is a rascal. Now this is plain talk, but 'tis no slip of the tongue. I mean what I say, and say what I mean. I have lived here and sold goods here for twenty years. I expect to remain here. I pay my taxes to support Institutions of the City, County and the State. I expect to continue to do so. I respectfully ask my old customers, my old friends and new ones to call and examine my stock. I will deal with you honest and treat you right. If I don't suit you goods as cheap as you can buy the same class of goods elsewhere I don't expect you to buy. Call at the R. Smith building, house formerly occupied by Creech & Litchford, Merchants and Auctioneers.

A. CREECH.

LOUISBURG

THE EXERCISES OF THIS INSTITUTION will begin on the second Wednesday in January 1866.

Louisburg is in Franklin County, N. C., nine miles from Franklinton Station, on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad.

Between these points there is a daily stage line connecting with trains going North and South.

The community in which the College is located, is noted for health, social refinement, intelligence and christian morality.

Boarding pupils will be treated as members of the President's family and their physical welfare, both in health and sickness, will receive strict attention.

The course of study requisite for graduation, will be extensive; grade of scholarship high; instruction, thorough and systematic. Patients are required to increase their demands, not to pursue more than one or two extra studies in connection with the College course.

Pupils will have access to a good library, and enjoy the benefit of lectures with apparatus for illustrating the experimental sciences.

Government of theory I will be mild and persuasive, but firm and decided.

Strict attention will be paid to the moral and religious culture.

No uniform will be required for the present. Extravagance in dress will not be encouraged. Pupils will not be permitted to run part debts.
