NEWS BY THE MAILS.

News from Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.

CAPT. WIRZ'S BODY.

The statements to the effect that the remains of Capt. Wirz had been exhumed from their place of burial in the Arsenal grounds, and had been forwarded to the friends of the deceased in Richmond, are wholly without foundation.—The grave of Wirz is undisturbed.

FIVE CENT CURRENCY.

The new five cent currency will be issued next week. About $80,000 worth of defaced and mutilated currency is destroyed by burning, per day, and $50,000 worth printed. Arrangements are nearly completed to make the amount of the latter to the former.

CAPT. SEMMES.

The arrival here of Semmes, of the Alabama, who was arrested at Montgomery, Ala., on the 16th, is hourly looked for. Secretary Welles has ordered that Captain Semmes be tried by court-martial for violating the laws of war in a number of instances, and more especially when he hoisted the white flag on the Alabama, and then refused to surrender himself and engaging in war again without being exchanged.

NEW YEAR AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

Arrangements are being made for the New Year's reception of the President. A new carpet in the East room has been procured, and the master mechanic was at the Executive Mansion this morning for the purpose of commencing the erection of a platform from the north windows of the East room to the pavement, so as to enable the visitors to pass through the apartments without blocking up the passages.

THE NATIONAL BANKS.

Up to the present date, sixteen hundred and twenty four national banks have organized, with an aggregate capital of four hundred and eight million four hundred and fifty thousand dollars. The whole amount of registerd United States bonds is two hundred and ninety-six millions of dollars.

It is understood that the recommendations of Freeman Clark, Comptroller of Currency, for extending the capital of the national banks to four hundred millions, will be brought up for the approval of Congress, that the banks in the Southern States may have their quotas under the law.

GENERAL GRANT.

The statement telegraphed from Washington that General Grant was about to sail for the Rio Grande in the flag ship of the Gulf squadron is without authority. The General simply designs visiting New Orleans for the purpose of inspecting the army under Sheridan, and so far from sailing in Commodore Winslow's flag ship at once, will not leave for some time to come. Owing to the pressing duties requiring his attention in Washington, he has not yet determined how soon he will visit New Orleans, and when he does go it will be by the most expeditious route.

PARDONS.

For the first time since the surrender of Lee's army, no pardon warrants were issued by the Attorney General to-day. The applications for pardon have almost ceased to be made, and the President is disposing of the cases in the custody of the State Department, with a prospect of completing the pardon business by spring. A few pardon brokers and friends of petitioners for amnesty call from day to day at the President's house and on the Attorney General, but the pressure for pardons has very materially diminished, the parties directly interested having returned to their homes.

SENATOR CRAGIN'S PROPOSED AMENDMENT.

The following is the full text of the amendment to the Constitution of the United States, introduced into the Senate by Senator Cragin, of New Hampshire, on the day of the adjournment. Its aim is to kill forever the heresy of State sovereignty.

Paramount sovereignty shall reside within the United States; and every citizen thereof, in of any State or Territory therein, shall be bound and primarily owe faith, loyalty and allegiance to the United States, anything in the Constitution, laws, or the ordinances of any State, to the contrary notwithstanding; and every State heretofore in the Union, or which may hereafter be admitted as a member thereof, shall forever remain and constitute a part of the United States, and shall not, under any circumstances whatever, have any right to secede or withdraw therefrom.

POST OFFICE AFFAIRS.

The Post-office Department to-day awarded contracts for services on fifty routes in Virginia and West Virginia. These routes, for which offers have been made since the regular biddings two months ago, will cover nearly the whole of these States, not then awarded, with immediate postal facilities. Mail service in North Carolina is in greatly increased demand, and a number of offers are being made. To-day upwards of thirty routes were let. All these services will go into operation on New Year's day.

Contracts for service in South Carolina, Georgia and other States, are also being freely disposed of in the appointment office, with a corresponding reopening of post-offices in every Southern and Southwestern State. The number of such distribution may be set down at two hundred per week. Yesterday Virginia, Louisiana, Texas, Kentucky and Tennessee operated largely.

THE INDIAN TRIBES.

Recent reports concerning the disposition of the various Indian tribes with whom the Government has or has entered into treaty compact, represent a favorable aspect, and perfect confidence exists of a secure and lasting peace hereafter.—The parties who made the attack on Butterfield's mail coach a short time ago, had not been advised of the treaties which had been made.

An excellent profile portrait of the President, designed for distribution among those of the Indian Chiefs who observe strictly the character and obligations of their treaties with the Government, have been executed in silver by Mr. Paquet, and is pronounced a work of great artistic skill and merit. There has been, since the formation of the Government, a periodical appropriation, usually, about once in four years, for the above object, and it is a significant fact that there is no knowledge of any Chief who has thus been favored ever having broken the treaty obligations.

NEW GOODS.

New Line Opened!—Makes Two Trips to the Old Line's One!

A. CREECH HAS JUST RETURNED FROM the North, where he has bought his second supply of

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

Embracing the various New Styles of the Season, together with Ladies' Cloaks, Long Shawls, Breakfast Shawls, Ladies and Misses' Woods, Ladies and Misses' Hoop Skirts, Ladies and Misses' Balmoral Shoes, Gent's Boots and Shoes, Boys, Youths and Children's Boots and Shoes, Felt Hats, the Derby the Dasher, the Planter's wide brim, and other styles for Men's wear. Boys, Youths and Children's Hats. Wood and Willow Ware, Crockery and Glass Ware, and a superior lot of Family Groceries.

Take my stock altogether, I have one among the largest, and most desirable and complete stocks of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods in the City.

Now, allow me to say that I bought my Goods to sell, and they must and shall be sold; but I don't expect to take a piece of poetry in one hand and a fall down humbug in the other and climb up to the clouds and fish out the birds of Paradise and gently bring them down with a p acard stuck on their backs, "Selling out at Cost! selling out at cost!" No, I deal in no such humbug. I keep no such a class of Goods. I keep no time worn, shelf-rubbed, defaced or dusty Goods—dust so thick you can rub it off with a knife. My Goods are all new, and of good styles, and I intend to sell them as low as anybody that buys goods with the expectation of paying for them, and the man that sells the goods to the man that don't intend to pay for them, is a fool—and the man that sells them is a rascal. Now this is plain talk, but 'tis not up at the tongue. I mean what I say, and say what I mean. I have lived here and sold goods here for twenty years. I expect to remain here. I pay my taxes to support Institutions of the City, County and the State. I expect to continue to do so. I respectfully ask my old customers, my old friends and new ones to call and examine my stock. I will deal with you honest and treat you right. If I don't sell you goods as cheap as you can buy the same class of goods elsewhere I don't expect you to buy. Call at the R. Smith building, house formerly occupied by Creech & Littlefield, Merchants and Auctioneers.

A. CREECH.
