[From the Navbville Banner] Bill Arp To His Old Friend.

Mr. John Happy: SUR-I want to write to you personally about some things thats weighin on me. I look upon you as a friend, and I feel like droppin a few lines by way of unburthenin my sorrowful reflex-For the last fiw years you have travelled round right smart and must have made a heap of imminus observations." Thear you are now livin in Nashville, where you can see all sides of everything and read all the papers-where you can study Paradise lost without a book, and see the Devil and his angels, without drawing on the Devil and his angels, without drawing on the imagination, and I thought may be you might assist me in my troubled feelings. I have always, Mr. Happy, endeavored to see the bright side of every plater if it had any, but there is one of two subjecks about which I had nigh gin

I want you to tell me if you can, about what time are the black republicans goin to quit per-secutin our people? What are they so everlas-tio mad with us about? Old Skewball says its for treeson that we've gone and done, and that I am the slowest perseevin man he ever seed not to have found it out.

Now Treeson is a mighty bad thing and any man found guilty of treeson ought to be talked to by a preacher right under the gallus, and then be allowed to stand on nothin for a-few hours by the clock. Shore enuf treeson I mean. Treeon where a man slips around on the sly in times of war and takes sides agin his country. Jest as though, for instance, I should have worked agin my savrin State after she had sceeded, and had wele her powder or deserted her in her time of peril, while she was defendin herself aginst the combined assaults of the world, the flesh and the devil. I wouldn't have blamed nobody for innging me for the like, would you? But Skewball says we aint got no suvrin States-that the war hav settled the question agin us on that pint. I don't think so, my friend. I admit that we aimt nothin in partikler now, but we did hav suvrin States before the war, and the sword aint ettled nor unsettled no great principles. There aint no trial of right or wrong by wager of bat-tles now-n-days. For mighty nigh a hundred years this country hay been a big debatin socie-ty on these questions. From the time of Hamiton and Jefferson down to 1861, the right of a State to dissolve her own partnership have been argued by powerful minded men, and there has been more for it than agin it. More Presidents -more Senators, more statesmen, more judges, more people. Massychusetts and Connecticut were for it at one time, and bellered round and pawed dirt amazin to git out, but they found out Barcus was willin and they didn't go. I be-lieve, however, that old Nutmeg did stay out about two hours and a half.

Well the South went out mity unwillingly, Mr. Happy, as you know. She had been mity nigh kicked out for a long time, and there was a big party that wanted us to go out and stay out. Every body knows we dident git along in peace, so we concluded to do like Abreham and his brother-in-law; to separate our bouseand his brother-in-law; to separate our house-holds. What they wanted to keep us for I never could see, and can't see yit. I wouldent have a nigger or a dog to stay round me that dident want to. Some say they wanted us to strengthen em agin their enemies in case of a furrin war. 'Does any man in his sences expect us to help the black republicans to whip any to help the black republicans to make the body | Have we got any worse enemies than they are ? They cant make us fight I reckon if we dont want to. We've fout enuf and made and Cushin and McLernand and Butler and Company buzzed around a while like bumble bees, till they were bought up and then they lit on the other side. They got their reward, and they are welcome to it as far as I am concerned. How is it now, Mr. Happy ? They conquered us by the sword, but they havent convinced us of nuthin much that I know of. All is lost save honor, and that they can'trateal from us not tarnish.

If they had held out the hand of fellowship, we would have made friends and buried the hatchet. But the very minit they whipped us, they began to holler freedom from one end of the country to the other, just like they had made a bran new diskovery. It seemed to strike em of all of a sudden like an Xpost fakto law, and they wanted to go into a general hanging busi-ness, and keep it up as long as they could find rope and timber. I Now, the idea of several millions Amerikan freemen being guilty of treason at once: The idea of applyin such a crime to eleven great surveen States, which met in solemn convention, and in the light of day dissolved a Union they had created, and which had been a disunion for twenty years! The idea of applyin treason to the Old Dominion, the muther of States and of Washington and Jefferson and Madison and Marshall and Patrick Henry, and all the Lees, and who give away all the territory in the north west for nuthin ! Is she to be scandalized by these new light Christians, who are compound ed from all the scum of creation, and think that Paul and Peter and Revelations have been for 200 years makin special arrangements for receivin their smartified souls in Paradise i-Tresson the dickens ! Wheres your dictionary ? Wheres Danl Webster ? Wheres the history of Wheres Danl Webster ? Wheres the history of the Amerikan revolution ? No it aint treeson or recson, but its devilish infernal inhuman hate. What do they keep Mr. Davis in jail for ? I hear sum say that it aint Mr. Johnson's voluntary doings; but the tre-mengius pressure of surrounding circumstances. Dura the circumstances. Aint Mr. Davis a great and good man ? If Andy Johnson aint an infi-del, wouldent he swap chances for heaven with him and give all his earthly estate to boot ? If Mr. Davis honor and integrity, and patriotism. EVAN'S & WATSONS CELEBRATED FIRE & Mr. Davis' honor and integrity, and patriotism, and true courage were weighed in a balance against Summer's and Stevens,' and all of his en-emies, wouldnot he outweigh them all ? Won't his conduct in Mexico, and in the late war, and his nobility of character live long and grow bright in history, while the memory of the ho WE BUY AND SELL, ON THE MOST FAVOR-able torms, all the different that are baying at him in his dungeon will sink into oblevion ? I think so-thats what I say, and Charles O'Conner and all the women in the GOVERNMENT SECURITIES.

country will go my halves. But there aint no particular point in all this, Mr. Happy. It's only my opinion, thats all. I may be a tarnal fool, and I sometimes feel that I SOUTHERN STATE BONDS. am a fool about every thing, and don't know nothin. I'm tryin my best, however, to take Stocks, Bonds, &c., of our own market, on Con things jest as I find em, and my principal bi ness for the last two months have been weanin niggers for to make em feel free. I put em all out to take care of themselves, hut hey keep bench leg d fice, and bark at his daddy's mules 2,000 years. I wonter if the experience of the last four years aint satified these fellows that our boys are a dangerous set to be turned loses in time of war. Would'nt you think, that, as a matter of policy, they would soft-sodder us a little, and quit their standerin. If we do fight for em, there will be one condition certain—they must be put where David put Uriah, and out poys mout consent to make a charge or two be-hind em at the point of the bagnet. But I want you to tell me, John, if I am right about the history of this bisness. It aint a long story and L'll tell it the way I see it. Old Pew-rytan went off one day with some ships, and comin back to me, and it keeps me working day and night to provide for em. Twe been willin a long time for em to be free, if they could take ble. I feel like reachin' out to the five points of the compass in search of sympathy, and if there is an honest stateman or brave soldier north of the line who loves his fellow-men, let him open his heart and meet us on a half way ground. We aint aforered of beasts or var mints-of devils or demons-of Stevens or Sum-ner-but we are a warm hearted and forgivin people, and love our friends. Aint we, and don't we'l Yours, eventastingly, BRL ARP. BILL ARP. P. S.—Is Brownlow dead yet 7 Fm writing his obituary, and thought I would like for the and event to come off as soon as possible. I wish you would send me's list of your members who voted for that resolution declaring Gen. We are cetting up Lee and Mr. Davis infamous. We are gettin up a bill in the Georgy Legislatur, declarin them infamous who voted for the resolution. Fight the devil with fire, is my motto. B. A.
