

THE DAILY SENTINEL

W. M. FELL, Editor. SEATON GALES, Editor.

Monday, January 15, 1866.

OUR TERMS.

THE SENTINEL is issued every morning (Sundays excepted) at the following rates: For Daily, per year, $10 00; six months, 5 00; one month, 1 00; two months, 2 00; Semi-Weekly per year, 5 00; Weekly per year, 3 00.

Our terms are invariably in advance. The Weekly and Semi-weekly will be issued about the first of January. Money may be sent us by the Rail Road conductors or the Express Companies.

THE PEOPLE must be treated with their Government, and if treated, my opinion is that they will act in good faith, and restore their former constitutional relations with all the States comprising the Union.

The Wilmington Herald.

This journal is edited by a Northern man, an adventurer, who came out with the Federal troops that captured Wilmington. He is, moreover, a protege, we learn, of Bennett, of the New York Herald.

In this issue, we intend no reflection upon Mr. Cook personally, the editor of the Herald in Wilmington, whose appearance and manner seemed to be those of a gentleman, when he called on us some months ago.

The Herald's issue of Thursday last, contains a characteristic attack upon three of the editorial fraternity of the State, marked by its usual unfairness, and lacking in professional courtesy.

The Herald speaks, with semi-pleasure and semi-regret, to the arrest of the editors of the Fayetteville News, Charlotte Times and Goldsboro News.

Let us see: A certain class of journals, always making great pretensions to loyalty, will persist in opposing the loyal purposes of the government.

Our understanding is, that they were arrested not upon the charge of disloyalty, but for using seditious language.

The policy and purpose of the government evidently is, to restore the Southern States, as soon as they are ready.

We have had occasion several times to express our satisfaction at the manner in which Gen. Ruger and Col. Whittlesey have administered their affairs.

Writes of Election.

The Governor issued writs on Saturday to the Sheriff of Sampson county, directing an election to be held in that county, on the 27th January.

As a result of the election, the Governor has appointed Samuel N. Cannon, Esq. as a member to the State Convention, and one to the State Senate.

On Wednesday night last, the house of Samuel N. Cannon, Esq. about five miles from Wilmington, was attacked by robbers, and Mr. Cannon was severely wounded.

When Gov. Worth said, a few days ago, that he did not believe there was a disloyal man in the State, he evidently looked upon the status government of which he was the representative as the supreme power in the land.

ment, therefore he concluded, that the whole people were loyal. But he forgot that at the very moment at which he wrote, one of the editors referred to above was in custody at this capital on a charge of disloyalty to the superior power, the government of the United States.

Then the Herald will write down Gov. Worth either a fool or a disloyal man. A Governor, who seriously maintains that "he is the representative of the supreme power in the land," is a simpliciton, is he not, Mr. Herald?

Gov. Worth expressed his confidence in the loyalty of all his people. Can the Herald prove the contrary? He does this when he knows that an editor was in this city under arrest, and that there were several gentlemen in the State, who had not been pardoned.

We find the foregoing announcement in our Northern exchanges. We would suggest, as a fit subject for the inaugural essay of this great orator, "The history and genealogy of the Puritans."

Gov. Andrew has been elected President of the New England Historic-Genaealogical Society for the ensuing year.

De Quincy, in his "Confessions," tells us that, in one of the loud intervals between his periodical and excessive indulgence in opium, he accidentally encountered a roving Malay, of strange appearance, who had, by some chance, found his way into the rural districts of England.

A similar demon, in the shape of the negro, seems to have taken possession of the Congress of the United States, which nothing can exercise. Their ravings upon the subject are even more delicious and unreasoning than those produced by the Eastern drug.

We copy, from the "Courier des Etats Unis," the following ironical article in reference to the case of young Ketchum, the New York forger.

Thus, young Ketchum, having upon his conscience forfeited only to the amount of five or six millions, has been treated in his prison, and by the Judge, with all the consideration due to his crime, and has been condemned only to four and a half years of imprisonment.

Let us see: A certain class of journals, always making great pretensions to loyalty, will persist in opposing the loyal purposes of the government.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

DEAR SENTINEL:—Our metropolis has experienced, to-day, weather of such severity as has not been known here for sixty years.

The decline in Gold to-day is 3 cents. $190,000 in bonds sold at 128, at 30 days credit. The fall is attributable to numerous causes.

The intelligent people here, generally, look favorably on the President's efforts to restore the South to civil government, and his policy is sustained by the masses.

When a thaw comes, I will write you again from Durham. Yours, etc. CAROLINA.

A Letter From Mrs. Jefferson Davis.

A number of ladies in Mississippi have formed themselves into an association, branch of which is to be established in each of the Southern States, the principal object of which is to raise a fund that will place the wife and children of Jefferson Davis above the possibility of want or dependence upon the charity of friends.

My dear Sir:—I am in receipt of your very kind letter in the name of the Ladies' Southern Aid Association, having "for its object the purpose of placing me and family in circumstances somewhat commensurate with their estimate of me and mine, and begging that I will, at my earliest convenience, designate a place to which the means so collected may be conveyed, so that they may "safely and satisfactorily" reach me.

From our desolate and impoverished friends I scarcely expected such an expression of material sympathy, though my powers of gratitude have been almost daily taxed to thank those who have, with so much heart-eloquence, pleaded with the President for him, who, though unsuccessfull, has given you all he could—his best energies—and whose only hope of future happiness lies in the sweet trust, often expressed, that he has not lost your confidence and love.

As by the ordinance I am to pay to the Public Treasurer before the 1st February, 1866, I am compelled to be prompt under penalty of the law.
