

W. H. FELL, Editor. SEATON GALES, Editor.

Wednesday, February 14, 1866.

OUR TERMS.

THE SENTINEL is issued every morning (Sundays excepted) at the following rates: For Daily, per year, $10.00

Our terms are invariably in advance. The Weekly and Semi-weekly will be issued about the first of January.

Real Estate Bank.

We very briefly submitted a plan a few days ago, for the establishment of a National Bank in North Carolina, upon a basis affording the most permanent and ample security to all parties.

The people of North Carolina, like the entire South, are left with nothing as a basis of credit except real estate. Whatever may be their future growth and prosperity, it must be drawn from this source.

If capital is brought into the State, it must be done by pledges based upon real estate, either by individuals or corporations.

Real estate or lands afford the most sure and the most reliable security for investment. Lands afford not only the most permanent security but the safest.

But to effect this we must have money. We are without money or the means of obtaining it otherwise, than by loans based upon real estate.

We propose, therefore, the incorporation of the North Carolina Real Estate Loan Company, with an ample but well guarded charter.

Upon the basis of this pledged real estate, the Company shall borrow of capitalists on a long credit at 7 per cent, one third or one fourth of the assessed value of the land, the funds necessary for banking.

If the amount of capital stock subscribed in loans be not sufficient to raise the amount employed in banking to $5,000,000, let the State, as we before suggested, subscribe the intrinsic value of her interest in the Rail Roads in the State.

Such a Company might be easily formed in three months after obtaining a charter. It promises ample security and protection to all, and remuneration unconnected with it, while the facilities afforded to the people of the State, would at once give a spring to their energies and enterprise.

The lands or real estate to the value of the amount subscribed, while retained in possession for improvement and profit by the owner, will be secured to the Company as by mortgage, and hence, cannot be sold or transferred to any one by the owner, except in the form of his or her stock in the company. Real estate in towns unencumbered, may in the same way be subscribed, either in whole or in part.

Artificial Limbs.

Gov. Worth has issued the following circular to all the Sheriffs of the several Counties of the State:

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, RALEIGH, N. C. Feb. 6th, 1866. To the Sheriff of _____ County, Sir:—The General Assembly has ordered me to supply an artificial limb to every soldier who lost his limb in the service of the State in the late war, which I understand is intended to embrace every citizen of the State who lost an arm or leg while in the military service of the Confederate or State Government.

The Wilmington Journal in referring to this matter suggests an early measurement of the limbs, in order to an immediate supply. This is premature. Gov. Worth's object in the circular is first to ascertain as soon as possible, what number of soldiers there are in each County in the State, who lost an arm or a leg or both, while engaged in the late war, in order that he may act advisedly in making his contract with the makers of artificial limbs.

He designs to furnish each one with the best and most useful limb extant, and on the best terms for the State. Hence the first thing to be ascertained, is the number that will be needed in the State. After the contract is made, then the necessary arrangements will be adopted for the measurement of limbs, of which the public will be duly informed.

Death of Isaac N. Sanders of Onslow. The friends of this gentleman will learn with deep regret, his unexpected demise. Mr. Sanders was in his place in the Senate on Friday last; feeling unwell, he was obliged to leave and return to his room. Early medical assistance was called in and every effort that kindness and skill could afford was freely bestowed, but in vain.

Mr. S. was a man of genial, kind feelings, loving and being loved, of strict integrity and devoted to the interests of his people. He leaves six children and many friends to lament their loss. His funeral took place from the Methodist Church at half past 3 o'clock on yesterday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Hudson performing the usual services, and his body was deposited in the city cemetery, until it can be removed to his own home.

Plain Words. We call the special attention of our readers, to "the thoughts that breathe and the words that burn," in the able extract on the first page from the National Intelligencer, addressed "to the Sovereign People."

The Mow. The papers are without news. We have had no Northern mails for two days. State and city items are nearly as scarce.

Debts Contracted during the War. Messrs. Editors:—There seems to be a general belief among the people that the present legislature will settle the terms on which debts contracted during the war must be paid; it being taken for granted, of course, that the legislature will pass no law which impairs the obligations of a contract.

The convention handled this subject rather delicately, and threw it off upon the legislature before anything practical had been accomplished; but whether the legislature will be controlled by the Convention in this particular, is not so certain.

Now, to require all debts to be paid according to the scale of depreciation ordered by the convention, making gold and silver the basis, would be manifestly unjust to a large majority of creditors. It would be nothing short of agrarianism on an extensive scale.

Gold and silver had a commercial value rather than a value as money, and this value was greatly in advance of what was considered their money value. They had a much greater value then, than now with our paper opened, and the blockade raised. The effect of the proposed scale is to compel the creditor, to accept payment according to a depreciated standard of valuation, or in other words, to accept a number of dollars in gold and silver for his debt, which may have been at the time of contracting it an equivalent, but are not so now.

gold and silver basis, but by a standard much below that. Now, to suffer the creditor to pay at the rates proposed, would be to allow him to take advantage of his own wrong, or rather to offer him a premium for withholding payment after it was due.

Now, we think it incumbent on the legislature, to establish some method of adjustment more likely to do justice and give satisfaction than the one adopted by the Convention; and without intending to be presumptuous, we suggest that it would be much more likely to give general satisfaction, to leave the determination of the present value of debts contracted during the war, to arbitrators chosen by the debtor and creditor, or to a committee in each county for that purpose, or even to establish a court for adjusting such claims, than to adopt the Convention's method.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY. SENATE. Tuesday, Feb. 13.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Cobb, of the Baptist Church. The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

A message from the House transmitting the following bills, resolutions, &c. which were read and disposed of as follows, viz: A petition from the Justices of the Peace of Randolph county praying the General Assembly to repeal that part of the Convention Revenue Law which requires the sheriffs to pay fees for North Carolina. Referred to the Committee on Finance.

The bill to amend chap. 33 of the Revised Code, came up on its second reading, and on motion of Mr. Wilson was laid on the table.

Message from the House transmitting a communication from His Excellency the Governor, relating to a correspondence in regard to furnishing artificial limbs, for our disabled soldiers, also a communication from the public Treasurer relative to place of deposit of the State funds, which was referred to the committee on Finance.

Mr. McKoy, of Sampson, announced the death of Isaac N. Sanders, Senator from Onslow, in this city. Mr. McKoy said: "The melancholy announcement to the Senate of the death of Isaac Newton Sanders, the Senator from Onslow, fills the Senate with gloom. To-day we miss him from his accustomed seat and the places which once knew him, now know him no more."

Mr. Speaker:—The melancholy announcement to the Senate of the death of Isaac Newton Sanders, the Senator from Onslow, fills the Senate with gloom. To-day we miss him from his accustomed seat and the places which once knew him, now know him no more. Enjoying the confidence and esteem of his constituency, who have delighted to honor him as a man and a friend in the double capacity of a member of the Constitutional Convention, and at the same time, as Senator to the State Legislature, makes his loss to them grievous and irreparable.

Let us all remember the virtues of our departed brother, Senators, and may the charge never be brought against us, that "they have found their deepest graves in our short memories." Let it not be said, that "the man passes away, his name perishes from record and recollection, and his history is but as a tale that is told and his very monument becomes a ruin."

Let us all remember the virtues of our departed brother, Senators, and may the charge never be brought against us, that "they have found their deepest graves in our short memories." Let it not be said, that "the man passes away, his name perishes from record and recollection, and his history is but as a tale that is told and his very monument becomes a ruin."

Let us all remember the virtues of our departed brother, Senators, and may the charge never be brought against us, that "they have found their deepest graves in our short memories." Let it not be said, that "the man passes away, his name perishes from record and recollection, and his history is but as a tale that is told and his very monument becomes a ruin."

Let us all remember the virtues of our departed brother, Senators, and may the charge never be brought against us, that "they have found their deepest graves in our short memories." Let it not be said, that "the man passes away, his name perishes from record and recollection, and his history is but as a tale that is told and his very monument becomes a ruin."

sink into nothingness. Else why is it that the high and lofty aspirations, which leap like angels from the temples of our hearts are forever wandering about unattained. Why is it that the stars, which hold their festivals around the midnight throne, are set beyond the grasp of our limited faculties, and are forever mocking us with their unapproachable glory?

Mr. McKoy offered the following preamble and resolutions: Whereas, By the decree of an overruling Providence, to which all that is mortal must bow in humble submission, Isaac Newton Sanders, a member of this body, from the county of Onslow, has been suddenly cut down in the midst of his usefulness; therefore,

Resolved, That we have heard with deep regret of the sudden death of our esteemed fellow-member, and that our heart-felt sympathies are hereby tendered to the afflicted family of the deceased in their sad bereavement; and may He who has promised to temper the wind to the shorn lamb, temper the affliction to the saddened hearts.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased. Resolved, That as a mark of respect to the memory of the deceased, the Senate do now adjourn.

Mr. Morehead seconded the resolution, and followed in a low feeling and appropriate remark. The occasion was indeed solemn and impressive. The resolutions were unanimously adopted, and the Senate adjourned until to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

HOUSE OF COMMONS. Tuesday, Feb. 13, 1866.

The House was called to order at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Prayer by Rev. N. B. Cobb, of the Baptist Church. The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Mr. Webb presented a petition from sundry magistrates of Orange county, praying the enactment of a law allowing compensation to justices of the Peace for their services. Referred to the committee on Propositions and Grievances.

Mr. Bly introduced a resolution that henceforth the House of Commons hold evening sessions commencing at 7 o'clock. Lies over one day under rule.

Mr. McNeil introduced a bill for the relief of Executors, Administrators, Trustees, Guardians, and other persons acting in a fiduciary capacity. Mr. Wagh, a bill for the relief of Wm. Haymore, Sheriff of Surry.

Mr. Furr, a bill to establish a Homestead Freehold. Mr. Baxter presented the resignation of Joseph Keener, Esq., as a Director of the Asylum for the Insane. Sent to the Senate.

A message was received from His Excellency, the Governor, in response to an inquiry as to the usefulness of artificial arms, and the steps taken to supply artificial limbs to maimed soldiers under a resolution passed by this General Assembly.

Mr. Murrill rose to discharge a painful duty, in announcing to the House the death of his colleague, Mr. Isaac N. Sanders, Senator from Onslow. He briefly sketched Mr. Sanders' political career and paid a feeling and appropriate tribute to his memory.

Mr. Powell at Charlotte.—The Charlotte Democrat of this week, says: "Dr. R. J. Powell, formerly the agent for this State at Washington City, arrived in town on Friday last and will remain a few days. The doctor is a native of North Carolina and takes a deep interest in her welfare."

RALEIGH MONEY MARKET.

Table with columns for various banks and their rates, including Bank of North Carolina, Cape Fear, Charlotte, and others.

OBITUARY.

Died, on Feb. 11th morning, Feb. 11th, 1866, Temple, of John Boston Williams, Esq., of Warren county, N. C., aged 49 years, after a painful illness of three days. The poet has truthfully said, "There are no unquiet beds, Which have not here an end."

Man's uncertain life Is like a rate drop, hanging on the bough, Among ten thousand of the sparkling kindred, And which shall sooner lose its perished host We cannot guess.

In the language of the bereaved, "It is hard to realize that she is dead." To leave one tenderly beloved gone from our view, to see her place vacant, to miss her delightful influence, and her tender watchful care over all, is indeed bitter, and causes many a "heaving of the heart" as we seek in vain for her wonted countenance, her face, familiar spot. But those stricken hearts have the sweet assurance that her hold on heaven was strengthened in her dying hours, that she bowed in meek submission to his will, who was her "Day Star" through a long life of christian usefulness, and with faith unshaken she exclaimed, "I shall be at rest"—soon to be with dear Harry and other loved ones, on that abiding shore.

Her mind was of an ordinary cast, while her extensive reading and general information made her the cynosure of the social circle, both to old and young. The influence she exerted, in her mild way, was powerful and abiding in those acts of kindness and attention, which are so truly gratifying to the recipient. She was the refuge of those around her in every trouble, and a faithful friend and helper. She fed the poor, clothed the naked, relieved the distressed, and during the last 40 years of bitter trial, was an angel of mercy to the suffering boys, who looked to her kind encouraging word, or received of her bounty, who, to the exiled and stranger, her house and home was ever open and given to generous hospitality. In the sacred confidence that we all enjoyed, she was the public voice, of whom dear Harry felt beneath the folds of his shroud, upon the bloody field of Malvern Hill. But he died as the heroes die, and a soldier of the cross, and though bitter tears were shed at his untimely death, it is the spring time of his life, there were no mourners, even when all was lost, and the steeps of his grave were a few of the cheeriest of the noble women. The pen cannot do justice. There was a kindness, a tenderness, a purity of affection, and a readiness to oblige, to serve and to sacrifice, even under many cruel and peculiar trials, and an brightness and simplicity of action, in which consisted a charm and strength of her christian character.

Her very large circle of relatives and friends will miss her kindly welcome and pleasant words. Her own distress and afflictions of a number of sons and daughters, and her devoted husband, with whom for many years she had sweet counsel, sorrow and joy that have brightened his path, but may this act of affection be sanctified to their good, and when his pilgrimage with all is o'er, may they meet and be forever with the Lord.

Her husband was of an ordinary cast, while her extensive reading and general information made her the cynosure of the social circle, both to old and young. The influence she exerted, in her mild way, was powerful and abiding in those acts of kindness and attention, which are so truly gratifying to the recipient. She was the refuge of those around her in every trouble, and a faithful friend and helper. She fed the poor, clothed the naked, relieved the distressed, and during the last 40 years of bitter trial, was an angel of mercy to the suffering boys, who looked to her kind encouraging word, or received of her bounty, who, to the exiled and stranger, her house and home was ever open and given to generous hospitality.

Her husband was of an ordinary cast, while her extensive reading and general information made her the cynosure of the social circle, both to old and young. The influence she exerted, in her mild way, was powerful and abiding in those acts of kindness and attention, which are so truly gratifying to the recipient. She was the refuge of those around her in every trouble, and a faithful friend and helper. She fed the poor, clothed the naked, relieved the distressed, and during the last 40 years of bitter trial, was an angel of mercy to the suffering boys, who looked to her kind encouraging word, or received of her bounty, who, to the exiled and stranger, her house and home was ever open and given to generous hospitality.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THE FIRM OF CREECH & LITCHFORD HAS been dissolved by mutual consent. Either member of the firm is authorized to act in any outstanding business. A. CREECH, J. J. LITCHFORD. Raleigh, Feb. 13, 1866.

WANTED. A FIRST class Teacher of age and experience, to take charge of the Academy at Company's Shops, North Carolina. Apply in person to the Trustees, Feb. 12, 1866.

PRICE LIST. The best quality of Green Tea, $1.50. Rio Coffee, 40. Sugar, 23. The best quality of Cheese, 25.

AT COST! AT COST! Ready-made Clothing, Woollen Dress Goods, Ladies Cuffs and Collars. J. KINSEY. Raleigh, Feb. 12, 1866.

FOR SALE. A QUANTITY of good MANURE. Also, a good SUGGY. FOR RENT. A Dwelling House with four large rooms near the Exchange Hotel. Apply to W. H. CUNNINGHAM, Exchange Hotel. Feb. 10, 1866.

A. A. WILLARD, Formerly of Washington, N. C., late of Greensboro, N. C. WHOLESALE DEALER IN Groceries and General Merchandise, FORWARDING and COMMISSION MERCHANT, No. 36 North Water Street, WILMINGTON, N. C.

APPER TO Rev. C. H. Wray, Superintendent Public Schools for the State, Greensboro, N. C. Jesse W. Lindsay, Esq., Cashier Bank of Cape Fear, Greensboro. Rev. W. E. Fell, Editor of Sentinel, Raleigh. Joseph Potts, Esq., Washington, N. C. Messrs. James C. Rorer & Son, Baltimore. Messrs. Dowley, Corner 4th & Co., New York. Wilmington, Jan. 9, 1866.

Personal attention given to the sale or shipment of Cotton, Naval Stores, &c. All produce, consigned to me for shipment, to Messrs. Dowley, Corner 4th & Co., New York, will be insured from the point of shipment—particular advising me as soon as the goods are sent forward.

MERCHANDIZE received and forwarded with promptness and at most reasonable rates. A full supply of FIRE AND BURGLAR-PROOF SAFES, with MARVIN'S PATENT Powder-Proof Locks—key weighing only one-quarter of an ounce. These Safes are constructed from the best materials, and are sold at manufacturer's prices, and will be forwarded through Wilmington without charge for storage or forwarding.

75 Bales of Cotton Yarn, and 44 Brown-Shaeting. For sale by A. A. WILLARD, Wilmington, N. C. Cotton Yarn and Shaetings. 75 Bales of Cotton Yarn, and 44 Brown-Shaeting. For sale by A. A. WILLARD, Wilmington, N. C. Jan. 25, 1866.

NEW STORE ON EAST HARGETT STREET.

T. D. SLUDGE takes this method of informing the public that he has recently had built a three-story house at his residence on East Hargett street, south of the Gray Yard, where he would be pleased to see his old friends and customers, as he is now prepared to offer better bargains than is offered elsewhere, and having the heavy expense of building a house as large as mine, and having bought my goods recently at very low prices, I am determined not to be undersold, but to sell cheaper than most persons do.

Offer best qualities of Rio Coffee, at 20 cents per lb. Crushed Sugar, at 30 cents per lb. Brown Sugar, at 30 cents per lb. Green Tea, at $2.50 per lb. Lord, (also white) at 30 cents per lb. Molasses, (prime) at 90 cents per gallon. New Bacon Ham, Shoulders and Middleage. Respectfully

Cheese, Pepper, Ginger, Mustard, Cloves, Mustard, Fine Table Salt in Small Sacks, Powder, Shot, Percussion Caps, Pickles, Starch, Carb Soda, Potash, Jellies, Sardines, Brandy Peaches, Well Buckets, Sugar, Soda, and Water Crackers, Water Buckets, Sifters, Bed Cord, Wash-Boards, Matches, Knives and Forks, Copperas, Onions, Irish Potatoes, Apples, Almonds, Pecans, English Walnuts.

Fiberts, Palm Nuts, Prunes, Dates, Candies, Segars, Whiskey, Fine old French Brandy, Gin, Sherry, and Madeira Wines, in bottles, Raisins, in 1/2 and whole boxes, very fine.

Calicoes, Delaines, Gingham, Pant Goods, Cambric, Hosiery, Towels, Thread, Handkerchiefs, Bleached Domestic, Needles, Combs, Pins, Hooks & Eyes, Colognes, Hair Oil, &c., &c. And many other articles not mentioned.

I return my grateful thanks to the citizens of Wake county for their kind and generous contributions to the relief of the destitute. T. D. SLUDGE, East Hargett street, Raleigh, N. C. Feb. 9, 1866.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR SPRING AND SUMMER. A COMPLETE assortment of Silk Mixed, Single Milled, Drop & Rte, English Merino, Alpaca, Lanes and Cloth Coats. Match Suits. White Marseilles and Silk Vests, (Newest style) French Casimere Pants, all new making under the supervision of Our Mr. Harding, in the city of New York.

There has never been a finer or more desirable assortment of Gents and Youth's Clothing exhibited in this City, than we are now getting up. We shall offer no garment that we cannot warrant in every particular. As hitherto so shall it be hereafter, the goods offered at the Clothing Store of HARDING, ANDREWS & CO.

Our stock of Maslin Shirts, Collars, Ties, Half-Hose and Stockings is complete. Black and colored Hairs for city and plantation wear on hand—a good assortment of Trunks, Valises and Umbrellas on hand. We will take measured and manufacture Suits for those who desire it. Notice. HARDING, ANDREWS & CO., Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C. Feb. 9, 1866.

PUBLIC SALE. To close the business of the late firm of STELLING, CAMPBELL & ALBRIGHT, we will offer for sale at public auction in Greensboro, on Wednesday the 7th day of March, all the property and stock of said firm, consisting of House and Lot, 1 Adams' Book Press, 1 Gordon Book Press, 2 Hand Presses, with all the fixtures of a No. 1 printing Establishment.

A large number of "GURDNER SERIES" of School Books and many other articles. TERMS: All bills must be paid cash. All sums over $25 and under $100, 3 months, and over $100, 6 months with note and approved security. RICH D. STELLING, J. W. ALBRIGHT, Survivors, Partnes. Greensboro, Feb. 12, 1866.

DR. J. R. FAUCETTE, Of Greensboro, N. C. Z. C. FAUCETTE, Of Alamance, N. C. Faucette & Bro., COMMISSION AND FORWARDING MERCHANTS, Purchasing Agents, AND GENERAL PRODUCE DEALERS, Opposite the Gaston House, NEWBERN, N. C. December 16 110-3ms.

PETER HALLETT General Commission and SHIPPING MERCHANT, NO 23 NORTH WATER ST. WILMINGTON, N. C. CARGOMENTS OF COTTON, NAVAL STORES, Lumber, and other Produce for Sale or Shipping, respectfully solicited. Liberal advances made. Orders promptly executed. Nov 25—31-3ms.

Disolution of Coparternship. THE firm heretofore known as that of Baker, Cooper & Co. has this day been dissolved by mutual consent. The duties devolving on one of the partners as Cashier of the Bank of Cape Fear, and the several of the same to Norfolk (his residence before the war) for the purpose of practicing law, have caused this dissolution. The business will be continued by Mr. Falah-Cowper and Mr. James A. Moore late Cashier of the Bank of Cape Fear, under the name and style of Falah-Cowper & Moore, who will settle on the business of Baker, Cooper & Co. W. J. BAKER, FULAH-COWPER, W. H. JOHNS. Jan. 25, 1866.