The Civil Rights Bill.

The Civil Rights bill, which has passed the Senate over the President's veto, and now awaits the action of the House of Representatives, provides as follows.

SECTION 1. That all persons born in the United States, and not subject to any foreign power, excluding Indians not taxed, are hereby declared to be citizens of the United States; and such citizens of every race and color, without regard to any previous condition of slavery or involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall have the same right in every State and Territory to make and enforce contracts, to sue, to be sued, be parties and give evidence, to inherit, purchase lease, sell, hold, and convey real and personal property, and to be entitled to full and equal benefit of all laws and proceedings for the security of person and property, as is enjoyed by white citizens, and shall be subject to like punishments, pains, and penalties, and to none other, any law, statute, ordinance, regulation, or custom to the contrary, notwithstanding.

SEC. 2. Any person who shall deprive any inhabitant of any State or Territory of any right secured by this act, under color of law, regulation, or custom, is declared guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 3. The United States District Courts shall have exclusive cognizance of all offences against this act, and also, concurrently with the United States Circuit Court, of all civil and criminal causes affecting persons where rights are secured by section 1. Any suit against such persons, begun in any State Court, may be removed for trial to the proper District or Circuit Court. In exceptional cases the common law, as modified and changed by the constitution and statutes of the States, wherein the court having jurisdiction of the cause, civil or criminal, is held, so far as the same is not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the United States, shall be extended, and govern said courts in the trial and disposition of such cause, and if of a criminal nature, in the infliction of punishment on the party found guilty.

SEC. 4. The district attorneys, marshals, and deputy marshals of the United States, the commissioners appointed by the circuit and territorial courts of the United States, with powers of arresting, imprisoning, or bailing offenders against the laws of the United States, the officers and agents of the Freedmen's Bureau, and every officer who may be specially empowered by the President of the United States, are specially authorized and required, at the expense of the United States, to institute proceedings against every person who shall violate the provisions of this act; and it is made the duty of the circuit courts of the United States, and the Superior Courts of the Territories, from time to time to increase the number of commissioners, so as to afford a speedy and convenient means for the arrest and examination of persons charged with a violation of this act.

SEC. 5. The commissioners are empowered to have concurrent jurisdiction with the United States Circuit and District Judges and Territorial Judges, both in term time and vacation.

SEC. 6. United States Marshals and their deputies are required to obey all warrants issued under this act. In case of refusal they may be fined one thousand dollars each, for the use of the person upon whom the accused is alleged to have committed the offence. The commissioners are empowered to appoint county assistants to execute warrants, and the latter may call for assistance upon bystanders or summons a posse comitatus, or the military and naval forces.

SEC. 7. Any person who shall knowingly and wrongfully obstruct, hinder, or prevent any officer or other person charged with the execution of any warrant or process issued under this act, or any person or persons lawfully assisting, or attempt to rescue prisoners from custody, is subject to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, and imprisonment not exceeding six months, by indictment before the United States District Court, or the proper court of criminal jurisdiction, if committed within any one of the organized Territories of the United States.

SEC. 8. The District Attorneys, Marshals, and their deputies and clerks of District and Territorial Courts, shall be paid for their services the fees allowed for similar services in other cases; and in all cases where the proceedings are before a commissioner, he shall be entitled to a fee of ten dollars in full for his services in each case, inclusive of all services incident to such arrest and examination. The person or persons authorized to execute the process issued by commissioners for the arrest of offenders shall be entitled to a fee of five dollars for each person arrested, with such other fees as may be deemed reasonable by the commissioner—to be paid out of the Treasury of the United States, on the certificate of the commissioner of the district within which the arrest is made, and recoverable from the defendant as part of the judgment in case of conviction.

SEC. 9. Whenever the President of the U. S. shall have reason to believe that offences have been or are likely to be committed against the provisions of this act, it shall be lawful for him, in his discretion, to direct the judge, marshal, and district attorney of the district to attend at such place within the district and at such time as he may designate for the purpose of the more speedy arrest and trial of persons charged with a violation of this act; and it shall be the duty of every judge or other officer, when any such requisition shall be received by him, to attend at the place and for the time therein designated.

SEC. 10. That it shall be lawful for the President of the United States, or such persons as he may empower for the purpose, to employ such part of the land or naval forces of the United States, or of the militia, as shall be necessary to prevent the violation and enforce the due execution of this act.

SEC. 11. That upon all questions of law arising in any cause under the provisions of this act, a final appeal may be taken to the Supreme Court of the United States.

SALISBURY BRASS BAND

REORGANIZED 1st January, 1866, on a larger scale than, formerly, under the direction of its former tutor, W. H. NEAVE, who was also chief music writer and Band Teacher in Gen. Lee's army. He will be assisted in leadship and direction by his brother, Ed. Neave, leader during the entire late war of Gen. Lee's best and most favorite band, viz: 4th N. C. The Band is composed of the best members of the old Band, together with the best members of several of the fine Bands trained by W. H. Neave, in camps, who have moved to Salisbury from all points in the State to follow their respective vocations and continue the study and practice of music. This Band will be a permanent institution for all State and festive occasions, and will equal the best to be found in the world, if sustained by those desiring a fine order of Brass and String music; if not, it must go down after this year.

W. H. Neave is also agent for the celebrated Dodworth Brass instruments, proved and warranted to him, and by him to others; also, the most pleasing, effective and popular Piano music, selected by his friends, H. B. Dodworth and Kent Botsford, New York. For beginners, medium players, and advanced musicians, no trash for either.

Music composed and arranged to order for Parlor, Orchestral and Brass Band use for any kind and number of instruments.

Salisbury has been selected for Musical Headquarters, for its central position.

N. B. Mere letters of enquiry for musical information, but with no view to business with Mr. Neave or Band must contain two postage stamps.
