

THE SENTINEL. Wednesday Evening, Sept. 5, 1866. CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

New Advertisements.—The Philanthropic Society of the University wish to collect information relative to their alumni and members who participated in the late war. We invite attention to their card in another column, and hope that the friends and relatives of those who fell in the war, and the surviving soldiers themselves, will contribute the desired facts at once.

Parties interested are referred to Court advertisements from Gates. Creach makes a striking display in our columns this evening. He is in receipt of an immense stock of the most desirable Fall importations, and is one of our most liberal and enterprising merchants. Give him a call.

See card of Mr. Walter, Piano-tuner for the celebrated factory of Knabe & Co. We are requested by Mr. Wheat to say that he takes great pleasure in calling the attention of his friends to Mr. Walter's advertisement. Mr. Walter, the best Piano-tuner in Baltimore, was sent out by Wm. Knabe & Co., with the Concert piano that those gentlemen have tendered Mr. Wheat for his Concert here. Every one who has a piano should avail himself of this rare opportunity of having it put in perfect order by a reliable person who thoroughly understands his business.

I. H. Rogers, Commissioner, offers for sale, under a decree of Court, the tract of land near Raleigh, on which Hinton Franklin, dec'd., last resided. Attention (and especially of those engaged in the manufacture of coaches, harness and saddles, is called to the advertisement of Mackenzie Brothers, No. 222, Baltimore Street, Baltimore, in to-day's issue of our paper. By the death of the senior partner, Mr. Thos. Mackenzie, (who established the business as long ago as 1825,) his worthy and enterprising sons, who were associated with him in business, now represent the firm of Mackenzie Brothers. Those of our people, who deal in their line of goods, will find the same course of honorable dealing, which characterized the father, practised by the sons, who now succeed him.

The Messrs. McKimmon announce an arrival of fashionable Hats and Caps, and men's headgear of every description and style. Gold spectacles lost: A suitable reward will be paid to the finder, who may leave them at this office.

THE HEROIC DEAD.—The following is a list of the Confederate soldiers, buried in and near this city, whose names have not heretofore been published in this paper:

- WARREN MR. HENRY MORDECAI. 4 Alex Carter, 2nd N C, Sept '63. 17 Saml Cooper, May 16, '65. 18 Robt P Hartsfield, co K, 6th Ga, May 23rd '65. 19 J Rayls, co A, 17th N C. 20 W H Johnson, co I, 17th N C. 21 W L Stephens, co B, 41st N C. 22 J M Story, 1st N C, Sept 24th '63.

AT CITY CEMETERY. 3 John Hathorn, 29th N C. 4 ——— Aldrige, 29th N C. 5 Maxey Carr, 29th N C. 50 ——— W L Loman. 51 ——— Reid. 52 Lt Chas Metcalf. — Miss April 12th '65. 53 T J Donohoe, co H, Cobb's Leg Cav Ga, April 12th '65. 54 Wm Smith, Ga. 69 ——— Turner.

IN MR. PRICH'S GARDEN, IN BALDWIN. 1 J P Floyd, Ala, April 14th '65. An AMP MCKIMMON, among quite a number only one marked: Allen Jones, co I, 44th N C, April 23th '65.

One Texas officer, buried near Mr. Lovejoy's grave, who was hung by Kilpatrick's men, at the occupation of Raleigh by Sherman's army, whose name has never been ascertained. This finishes the list of all those buried near Raleigh, whose names could be found on the graves or from friends. Any person, knowing the names of any not marked, will confer a favor by informing any officer of the Ladies' Memorial Association.

THE DAILY INDEX.—This is the title of a new daily paper just issued in this city by Messrs. Moore & Keith, Jas. H. Moore, Esq., late Clerk to the State Convention, is the Editor. The proprietors are worthy men and will exert themselves to merit public patronage. The Editor, in his salutatory, says:

"The reasons have influenced us in commencing the publication of a paper are these: We believed there was an opening for a small, cheap, well conducted news-paper in the State; a paper that, laying aside the political wranglings that characterize a large number of those already in circulation, should give a synopsis of local and general news and useful miscellaneous reading; we believed a paper of this sort would meet with a fair share of public patronage and afford a fair compensation to the publishers."

The paper is neatly printed on a small sized sheet, and we wish the proprietors good success.

BASE BALL CLUBS.—We noticed, some time since, the getting up of a Club of this sort in this city. The Club is pretty full, we believe, and the sport is a noisy and rational one. We learn that other clubs are forming in the State. If these clubs are strictly confined to the objects aimed at by the movers of them, they will do good. The Club in this city meets for out-door exercise late in the evening, after the business of the day is over. But if they should, like most amusements, encroach upon business duties, they will prove a serious injury. Work, work, is the order of the day, now, for all, young and old, white and black. The future destiny of the South, for weal or woe, hangs upon the shoulders of the working men. Intellect, energy, frugality and hard labor will raise the South, and nothing else can.

3000 pairs of Shoes, for Men, Women and Children, will be in store this week. Cheaper than ever. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & CO. Aug. 15-4

MUSTERED OUT.—Col. Cilley, who has been the Adjutant General of Gen. Robinson, has been relieved and mustered out of service. He is well spoken of by his superior and by all who know him. We learn that an order has been issued to muster out all who are connected with the volunteer service of the U. S. Army.

FRESH SHERIFF.—We are pleased to announce that Reuben King, Esq., the old Sheriff of Robeson, is the first Sheriff in the State who has settled with the Comptroller.

HARRETT.—James S. Harrington, Esq., is a candidate for the House of Commons from Harrett County. He is opposed to re-appointment.

GEN. COLTON'S Military Academy will open its exercises on the 1st. of October. The course of study is very full and complete, and will extend over five years. The estimated expenses for the present session, commencing 1st. of October, 1866, and ending the last Saturday in June, 1867, amount to only $363.

SOUTHERN PORCELAIN WARE.—A company near Augusta, Ga., is now manufacturing beautiful specimens of porcelain ware. Specimens have been sent to Wm. Johnston, Esq., of Charlotte, President of C. & S. C. R. Road, &c., who pronounces them very fine.

J. A. ROSENBERG, Esq., of Iredell, is announced as a candidate for re-election to the House of Commons. Mr. Rosenberg made an excellent representative in the last Legislature.

A. M. Bogle, Esq., and Prof. J. Henry Hill, are the candidates for the District of Iredell, Alexander and Wilkes, for the State Senate. Besides Mr. Rosenberg, Messrs. J. H. Stevenson, Dr. R. H. Parks and Col. Chas. R. Jones are candidates for the House of Commons from Iredell.

FIRST BALE SHIPPED.—The first bale of N. C. cotton brought to Wilmington was shipped to Boston, on yesterday morning.

GRAND JAIL DELIVERY.—A bold and daring flight of prisoners from the Newbern jail was accomplished on Monday morning. Ten offenders, confined for burglary, larceny, &c., succeeded in making their escape. Only one of them has been re-captured.

FOUNDRY BURN.—On Thursday night last, at 9 o'clock, fire was discovered in the Foundry and Machine Shop of Mr. J. M. Howie, in this town, and before the flames could be checked all the buildings connected with the establishment were consumed, together with tools, machinery, patterns, &c. Mr. Howie is a skillful and industrious mechanic, and his loss is a severe one. We hope the sympathy of the community will be shown him in a substantial manner. His loss is at least ten thousand dollars—no insurance. Besides he was seriously injured by being burnt in the feet.—Charlotte Democrat.

THE SHERIFF AND COMMISSIONERS of the town of Salisbury offer $1,000 reward for the apprehension and conviction of the incendiary who fired the dwelling of Maj. J. C. Turner, on the morning of the 27th ult.

The Commanding General at Fortress Monroe.

It has already been announced that General Miles will within a short time be removed from command at Fortress Monroe, and that he will be succeeded by General Burros, formerly of the Third United States Artillery. In 1863, General, then Major, Burros was in command of Fort Delaware, and while he carried out strictly and conscientiously all rules necessary to the safe-keeping of the Confederate prisoners there, he treated them with a consistent kindness and liberality, which caused his removal to be deeply and generally regretted.

The appointment of General BURTON to command at Fortress Monroe will be entirely satisfactory and acceptable to every magnanimous and charitable man; and it is certain that under General Burros's charge Mr. Davis will be treated with the consideration and respect due to the dignity and purity of his character, and the magnitude of the sufferings which he has borne with so much patience and heroic fortitude. General Miles has been unfortunate, to say the least, during the time that Mr. Davis has been under his control. He may be satisfied with his own conduct, it is true; but this satisfaction will in all probability be the only reward that he will receive, unless a day should unhappily arrive when all remembrance of generous emotions and enlarged ideas shall be swallowed in the swelling tide of southern radicalism.

Two Atlantic Cables.

It seems we are to have two Atlantic cables, and that right away. The Great Eastern has actually succeeded in fusing up the broken cable of last year, which has been spliced to a new cable, and by this time there are two working telegraph wires between the old and the new Worlds. The dispatch we have received does not say whether or not the broken cable had been tested, but we presume it must have been found all right, or else it would not have been paid out again after the splice was effected.

With two good working cables we presume the charges for telegraphing between the two continents will soon be materially reduced, and the value of the lines to the public thus made far greater than it is possible for them to be at the present high rates.

Considered merely as a mechanical feat, this fishing up of the broken cable from the bottom of the ocean is certainly a marvel. It unfolds fiction.—N. Y. World.

Holden, of N. C., and Hamilton of Texas, two of the most curious hums of "Loyalty," were originally ultra "Southern men"—vociferous declaimers against the North, and for fighting everybody and everything, north of the Potomac. As there were disunionists once, so are they "disunionists" now.— Lynchburg News.

The Southern Presbyterian Church contains ten Synods, forty-six Presbyteries and nearly ninety thousand communicants. A bride for the young prince Imperial of France is already sought.

THE PRESIDENT'S TOUR. Speech of the President at Niagara.

After expressing thanks for the hearty and cordial reception which had been accorded him by the people of the country, he proceeded to discuss the points at issue between himself and Congress. He said he had been accused, together with various other members of the administration, of being a traitor to his party. Why? He had no consciousness of having betrayed either the people or the party which nominated him. When it was first proposed to nominate him at the Baltimore Convention for the Vice-Presidency, he had no particular ambition to run on the ticket. At that time he considered a Senatorship of the United States fully equal in point of honor with the office of Vice-President, but he determined to accept the nomination and was duly elected. By the Constitution of the country he had since been made President of the United States. Every one was familiar with the platform of the Baltimore Convention. He would challenge any Congressman who now loudly denounced him as a traitor to lay his finger on any portion of that platform which he had abandoned. The fact was that it was not he, but the Radical party, that had deserted that platform. His present policy was identical with that of the Republican party a year ago. It had then been proposed to restore the States lately in insurrection on these conditions,—first, the abolition of slavery by the State Legislatures; second, the repudiation of the debt incurred in conducting the rebellion; third, the ratification of the constitutional amendment abolishing slavery. That was exactly where he stood to-day. He had also been accused of being a traitor, because he had vetoed the Freedmen's Bureau Bill. The President then entered into a full explanation of the character of that law, and showed that it was but a new form of slavery. He then touched upon negro suffrage, and stated that he considered it altogether out of the constitutional power of Congress to impose it as a condition of the restoration of the Southern States. If it were wished that negroes, the incompetent section of the nation, who required being supervised by a costly government bureau, should vote and become members of State Legislatures and of the Congress of the United States, why were not those privileges first accorded to the black men in the North? He regarded it as altogether unfair for the Southern States to be compelled to confer what Northern States refused to concede. Because he could not assent to the new programme of the Republican party he had been denounced as having deserted his party. He was free to say that he was for no party but for his country, and that, so far as he was concerned, party might go to the devil, or anywhere else. It must not be thought that his present tour was an electioneering campaign. He was already President, and had attained a share of political preferment which might satisfy the most ambitious of men. Mr. Johnson concluded by expressing his confidence that the people would at the approaching election preserve and defend at the ballot box the Union and the Constitution.

The First Dose Relieved. Wm. Verrell, Esq., Malton, Va., says, "I was afflicted with the Liver complaint for two years, sometimes so bad that I could not lie upon my left side for one minute, nor could I walk but a short distance without stopping to rest. I tried several kinds of patent medicines but found no relief. I also tried the skill of the most eminent Physicians but still found no relief. I was last induced to try your Pills (THE SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS), and from the first dose I found relief, and continued to mend until I was perfectly cured. I am now a well-man." For sale by the Druggists. Directions accompany each box. Sent to any part of the United States for $3 a dozen. Address: GEORGE W. DEEMER & CO., Baltimore, Md. August 4, 1866—1m

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine! Dr. MAGGIE is the founder of a new Medical System. The quantities, whose vital actions ensoble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most violent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggii's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggii's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggii's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, to stimulate, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and erysipelas are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggii's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggii's Pills, Blisters, Symplic and Blistering Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Children, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggii's Salve is infallible. 644 by J. Macoste, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.
