BASE BALL AS PLAYED AND SEEN BY "GREEN GOGGLES,"

From the Richmond Examiner. RICHMOND, Sep the nine Sick-ta Six. Mister Edetur.

Beein advised by the Dr. that a trip to the springs wood benefit my belth,-altho feelin werry well, I took his service and the trip. 4 days after that I tuk the Chills & Fevers. It. ever you saw a handsum yang man a shakin it was me. I also had on a Yeller Vest. Concluden that if I continered a shakin that Pd soon be the subjeck of a interestin and hily ed-efyin Obituary. I shook the Springs and came to my town resedents, ware I learned by the none papers that "Base Ball is all the rage in Richmond," Now of there is eny thing more'n another that I may be sed too admire (after a lunch) it is belonging to somethin as is "all the rage", -specially if its cheep and thar's no collexshup taken up at the door. I herd of "the dashingist kind of a Club" bein' formed, and sendin my naim & 2 dollars & a ½ received in return a note of a different denominashin wich sed as how I was entirely unanermusly elected a member of Mister Spottswoodses Bais Bawl Klub, and must send em $5,00, as they had a good deel of trubul electin me. I willinly p"d the sum and asked em for 4 $ & 75 cts. -but didn't git it. I was congratulatin myself on havin nuthin else too pay,-wen the member who was a tailor admired my class ic form & sed how nice I would look in my new uniform, - wich only cost 28$ inclusiv of shoo strings. Then the member as sold a "Trestis on Bais Bawlin" got a $1,25 of me fir a Book, & advisin me too lern it by hart,—give me my change in counterfits & bid me doo. I konsidered it a reglar "doo."

Determined to practis in privit, I amputated the leg of a wash stand—& takin 3 ot our land-ladys best fether pillars for "Basis," persuaded her son to act as "Pitcher"—wood yue believe, Sur, in less than a Week I was able to hit the ball. Thed proveusly hit everything else—cept The force with wich I struck that bawl was a cawshin to yang men who has been tenderly raised. No hody cood a caught it—a old fashund clock fried to doo it—but got its hands and face demorilized. The next lick I maid—sent the ball agin the portrit of my landlady's "lait amentid"—& glancin struck the looking glass Result "side out." Time one hour.

In three minutes more I was "out." The Landiady usin a broom and evidently under the impression that I was a Ball-I hollered "Foul" "Judgemint"-But she sed she'd giv me judgemint—L maid a splendid "Run"—& caught Bootjack," on the Fly. "Practess day" come-I hed on my uneform sinsz mornin-on my way too the "field" I was escorted by all little boys & Dogs as was off duty. Severil of em seemin to imajin that a circus was cum too toun & I hed escaped from one of the cages. When I got on the "Field" the "captin" sed too me: "Goggles my boy—the "Short Stop"— ain't well—will you "take his place"—of course —you understand it—ch?" I cekede "of corse!" But I hed'nt the least idea who Mr. "Short Stop" was or wat he hed too do. Then the game commensed -it consists of a yang man & 8 ac quainteness distribution therselves gratooitusly over the green sward-then one of em hits the all hollow "side out" & "Hooray !" "Hooray ! It is more excitin than 7 up, or mumly Peg.

All our fellers was in a uneform dress. Sum had green Pants and Red shirts, and sum others had'nt, but the was uneform. My frendersen was told to "take 1st Base"—he took it and put it into the waggin—then sum one asked "ware is the Pitcher," I was jis takin a drink out of it and brot it over but found that "the Pitcher" ment a man as throws the ball. Then my frend & pitcher—he took the Ball—and the Captin hollered out "Look sharp! lively short step! keep yer eyes skinned!"—Then a yung man of much mussil hit the Ball with the bat—then every body hollered "Lively host star! outed it!"—I he'v a indistinct short stop! catch it!"—I hev a indistinct recolex-tun of trying to catch that ball—I think failed-I'm certin I did-but I kept my eyes skinned—Inc certain I did—but I kept my cycs skinned—fact is—that the a week hes clapsed—I have kept en skinned ever sinse. Then ther was a mis-deal—and I was "at the bat." The 1st & 2nd time I hit it I missed it—but the 3rd time I herd sumthin go "thay !" then everyboddy sed Run! Run! But it did'nt need cm to tell me to ran—fir in hittin at the ball— I had struck the "catcher" and he was after me with a nuther club.

with a nuther club.

The man on lat Baiw knocked me down, the Vampire sel "out." I got mad and cussed, then I was fined $4,00 fir swarin! But I stood it all, and tried too steal a Base, when a "Fly Bail" hit me somewhate about where I wore my belt, and I laid down. I was carried off the field, the ball was extracted, and I have cam too the konclushin that the base ball may be "helthy Sport," (1) but it is the best imitashun of work I ever seed.

I paid my fines and dews and severill bills as nesheashen Feas, oks & Club,

Ext 1709, AND DIR.—Testerday, a group of negroes sat in the shade of addispidated sharts on Nicholson street, a head of cabbage and a couple of wilted watermelons between them, at which they gnawed alternately. Not a square distant a negro child was dying with the cholera, and the regress seemed to be inviting a visitation. While the negro population are so reckless and improvident, it is a mercy that the disease does not rage among them with uncontrollable vintence.—Nor sale Victimian.
