Gen. Grant and the Radicals.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—General Grant denies the reports put in circulation concerning his preference as regards a vote in Pennsylvania. The General says "his record is that of a soldier, and he has condemned the practice of officers making political capital off of the records of the army." It is not in accordance with his way of doing things.

The General regrets exceedingly that his name has been mixed up with local politics. The report, as published, is a tissue of falsehoods.—Gen. Grant never made use of the language attributed to him. He is a warm supporter of the President's policy, and is doing all in his power to influence every one to the same way of thinking.

TEXAS REJECTS THE AMENDMENT.—The Texas Legislature, through the action of the committee on Federal Relations, has respectfully returned to the Government the constitutional amendment, declining its further consideration. The ground assigned is thus expressed in the report:

Article thirteen, sections one and two. Have the honor to report as follows:

The people of Texas, in Convention assembled, have already by their ordinance acknowledged the supremacy of the Constitution of the United States; in which Constitution the above-named article thirteen is embraced as part of the same; the courts of law so hold and administer said article thirteen.

The Legislature has no authority in this matter; any action on the same would be surplusage, if not intrusive.

The committee therefore ask to be excused from the further consideration of the same; and they herewith respectfully return the communication of the Honorable the Secretary of State of the United States.

THE PROSPECTS IN PENNSYLVANIA.—A Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Gazette, who concedes that Clymer may be defeated for Governor, says, as to the rest of the elections in Pennsylvania:

"From the information I have received, and the sound reasons given me in support of its correctness, I should not be surprised if the entire representation from the city of Philadelphia were conservative,—that the majority of the delegation may be so I have no doubt, and I think your readers may place more confidence in my opinion than in that of your former correspondent. The fight in Pennsylvania, however, will be made chiefly for the Legislature, so as to secure the re election of Senator Cowan, and all the politicians from that State with whom I have conversed believe that they will succeed in this important object. I am assured by several of the candidates for Congress, who are opposing the present Radical incumbents that the coming elections will give Pennsylvania a majority of conservative members in the next Congress."

WM. B. STOKES, OF TENN.—From a reliable source we learn that Wm. B. Stokes, M. C., from Tennessee, in a late speech in Jonesboro', Tenn., said that he had lately met Z. B. Vance at Washington city, who admitted in a conversation with him, that he (Vance) had acted the part of a very bad man in the late war,—so much so that he could scarcely pick up courage to enter a decent man's house. Every one who knows Gov. V. will know at once that this statement is a roorback of the hugest dimensions. This is the same Stokes who was in Nashville with his cavalry when Forrest approached the city. The General sent the following message to the authorities: "Remove the women and children and Stokes' Cavalry, or I will fire on the town."—Asheville News.

Generously Waiving the Civil Rights Bill.

A friend tells the following good story, which merits being put on record. A gentleman of this city, owning a large plantation on Santee, gave a good house, formerly the overseer's, to a trusty negro, one of the superintendents of the estate. A white family of squatters, however, held possession of the house, and the freedman was debarred from entering on his rights. He went back to the planter, his late master, and complained, when the following dialogue ensued:

Planter.—"But, Pompey, the house is yours, —you are the lawful owner; and no one has any right to occupy it without your consent."

Pompey.—"Yes, massa, I done tole'm so. But he say he won't go."

Planter.—"Well, Pompey, suppose you go to the Freedmen's Bureau, state your grievance, and apply for assistance to have this man ejected."

Pompey.—(Scratching his head for some time in an uneasy state of inability to make up his mind.) "No, sah, I can't do that; I wouldn't like to take advantage of my color."

Chas. Re. News.

A young lady, now employed as a compositor on the Montgomery Advertiser, had 300 bales of cotton burned during the war. Instead of repining over her misfortune, she now goes to work at a business most congenial to her intellectual taste.

A RAP IN TROUBLE.—A prominent clergyman of Philadelphia was brought before Recorder Enen, on Monday, on the charge of defrauding another clergyman of equal prominence in certain transactions in oil stocks. The accused was held to bail to answer.

Tammany Hall, one of the land-marks of the Democracy, and a building with which are connected some of the pleasantest reminiscences of men and things in New York, will be sold to the highest bidder next month. The "Zactems" have determined to build a large "wigwam."

A good joke took place in a court room down east. A woman was testifying in behalf of her son, and swore that he had worked on a farm ever since he had been born. The lawyer who cross-examined her said:

"You assert your son worked on a farm ever since he was born?"

"I do."

"What did he do the first year?"

"He Milked."

"My son, hold up your hand and tell me who was the strongest man?"

"Jonah."

"Why so?"

"Cause the whale couldn't hold him after he got him down."

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N. C.

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. The square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given at sale.

TERMS.—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds with satisfactory security, required and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered,

PETER R. DAVIS,
Ex'r Dr. H. J. Davis.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

LOCATED IN AND ADJOINING THE TOWN OF WARRENTON, N. C.

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation, for over twelve years, and, during that time, it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to warrant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated, under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. E. Pasham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

There is now a sufficiency of Buildings and other Conveniences attached to this Real Estate, to conduct a large and flourishing school. The premises contain about SIXTY ACRES of Land a material portion of which is within the Corporation. This, with all or a part of the furniture, &c., belonging to the same, can be purchased with the land and buildings. This property will be offered privately for sale until Wednesday the 3rd day October next, and, if not then sold, will be on that day sold, at public auction to the highest bidder.

The Committee are fully authorized to sell, and would say that a rare chance is offered to any party wishing to purchase such property, as time sufficient, if required, will be given. Possession given immediately.

Any person or party wishing to examine the property will be shown it by E. E Pasham, the present occupant, or by any one or more of the Committee.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders now manufactured and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VINCULA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 20 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionery Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and do believe them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them every one housekeeper will be satisfied without them.
