New Advertisements.—Not having room for particular notice to-day, we call special attention to new advertisements.

CONCERT AT WAKE FOREST.—There will be given at Wake Forest College, on Wednesday evening, Dec. 12th next, a Vocal and Instrumental Concert, for the benefit of Wake Forest Church. The public may expect fine entertainment.

The Charlotte Guardian says, that John S. Means Esq., has sold his valuable farming and mining property to a Northern firm, and that he received for it $30,000 in gold. The company will work the mine. This is gratifying.

Mr. Henry M. Bolton, an excellent young man of Charlotte, says the Times, fell from the back steps of the Charlotte Hotel, on Tuesday last, fracturing his skull so badly, that he survived but a few hours.

A rattlesnake was killed in Gaston county a short time since, said to be over six feet in length, and in size as large as a man's thigh. It had 20 rattles and one button—supposed to be 27 years old. So we learn from the Charlotte Guardian.

Direct Trade.

The energy displayed by the friends of direct trade from Norfolk, Va., to Europe, in affecting that object, is remarkable. Their perseverance deserves encouragement. Two vessels employed in that trade, have been lost, yet they are not discouraged.

The Norfolk Day Book of the 29th ult. states that the Steamship Dogfish arrived on the 28th at Boston, and will reach Norfolk about the 7th or 8th inst., to load direct for Europe. It expresses the hope that the merchants of Norfolk and Portsmouth and the farmers of Virginia and North Carolina will exert themselves to have a full freight ready for her. The Agents of this line are men of energy and reliability and do their utmost to give satisfaction.

The "Southern Loyalists," alias, "Med Strings," are circulating among the friends of Gov. Wells in Louisiana, a petition requesting Congress to establish provisional governments in the Southern States, until the full re-admission of the States.

For the Sentinel.

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C., Nov. 1866.

Dear Sentinel.—After many ups and downs I find myself comfortably ensconced before a large blazing wood fire at Ballance's Hotel.

The terrible effects of war are still visible in this once beautiful village. The Court House, Lee's large Hotel, Williams' Hotel, Laverty's handsome mansion and other costly residences belonging to men once wealthy, are lying now in ashes and ruin. Knowing Elizabeth City as you once knew it, were you to see it now, it would cause you to sigh, if not to shed a tear, in memory of its departed glory. Business seems to be dull, and were it not for the little life that the Saturday's trade with freedmen imparts to mercantile life, the tradesman's vocation would be dull—very dull. Perhaps the drug business should be excepted, at least one would suppose so from the appearance of things around the elegant store of our quondam fellow-citizen, Walter Poole, Esq.

The depressed condition of the country is operating badly on the people, yet some think that "there is life in the old land yet." The county of Pasquotank, you know, was never a cotton growing country. Evidently suited to the production of cereals, its planters and farmers have found the production of wheat and corn too remunerative to have their attention diverted by the white charms of king cotton. This was the case in former years. But the great scarcity of greenbacks, and the high price of cotton, has brought a change in the public mind, and this year old Pasquotank will roll out 400 bales of cotton, whereas with plentiful pecuniary wants. A few years more, with crops like the present, and I think that Elizabeth City will shine forth, as in days of yore.

The ride in stage coach on the east bank of the Dismal Swamp Canal is as interesting as ever. The rude hand of war cannot deprive the country of the charms which the hand of nature has so luxuriantly invested this highly favored section of North Carolina. Nature has done everything, art but little, to beautify this interesting country. The far-famed old hostelry at the outlet of the feeder of the lake of the Dismal Swamp, still lies in ashes. Twice I passed it in going and returning from Elizabeth City, and twice did my digestive organs, as did those of my fellow passengers, give sad signs of a painful vacuum in the region of the stomach. No spot in our State presents a more favorable point for the erection of a good hotel, for besides the patronage afforded by passengers in the United States Mail coach twice a day, there is a considerable amount of private travel and pleasure parties in summer, from Norfolk, Portsmouth, Elizabeth City and other points, greatly via Lake Drummond Hotel as a point d'appui from which to make excursions into the celebrated lake. Being built immediately on the State line, you are aware that it was long the Gretas Green of fugitive lovers in Virginia, seeking Hymen's altar. On such occasions, mine host of that day was particularly polite, as the young votaries were too happy to mind expense, and by lavish expenditure endeavored to make all around them happy.

By the kind forethought of Judge Brooks, some of our passengers were relieved of the pangs of hunger, for soon after reaching the old site of the hotel, the Judge opened his carpet bag, from which he drew forth an ample supply. A thoughtful servant at the hotel anticipated the contingency, had provided a needful snack for the others, so that we accomplished a pleasant ride without much gastric suffering. On the banks of the canal we met Col. Dennis Percebe, late of the Confederate States Army.—Our old fellow soldier, Cincinnati like, has laid aside the sword and taken hold of the plow. He owns some of the best lands in the State, and with good faithful tenants, he will never lack for the staff of life. From the appearance of the soil, the low flat surface of the land, one would suppose the country was unhealthy, but the people residing there and among the healthiest, most robust, that I have met in any part of the State. But I will close my paper as your patients become wearied.

THE "BORO."

Radical Programme.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2. The committee appointed by the Radical caucus to prepare a programme have their document ready for presentation.

It completes the entire abolition of the State Governments South, and provides for the appointment of commissioners for each State who shall have power to appoint all civil and military officers to preserve peace.

The Radicals differ among themselves on the franchise question. Some of them favor confining the right of suffrage to "loyalists," including negroes. Some say that Congress should designate who may vote, while others wish all to vote who now vote under State laws.

The new constitutions are to be submitted to the people, but only those will vote who are enfranchised by them as was done in Maryland.

If the constitution be adopted by these voters, then the States are to be admitted. If not, they will then be placed under territorial government.

The commissioners are to be authorized to organize the militia, including negroes, to enforce the provisions of the bill, and if called out are to be quartered on those rendering the call necessary.

Such are the leading points in the new programme as urged by the Radicals and Southern Loyalists.

The committee consists of Messrs. Thad Stevens, Washburne, Schenck, Hart, Garfield, McCrur, Pike, Orth, Allison and Paine.

The Washington correspondent of the Richmond Examiner, makes the following remarks upon this movement:

The proceedings of the caucus are, on the whole, to be considered as a declaration of hostilities against the President and his policy. The Republican members come here much divided in opinion as to the course proper for Congress to take in future, relative to reconstruction, now that their proposed amendment has failed. There appears to be several distinct plans now in contemplation, and each plan has its advocates among the members. Some are in favor of adhering to the Congressional proposition, excluding the recalcitrant States from representation, until it shall be finally ratified. These men say, in so many words, if the South can wait, the North can wait also. Senator Fessenden, who is chairman of the Reconstruction Committee, on the Senate side, is one of the supporters of this idea.

The extreme Radicals are in favor of establishing for the State government of seceded States territorial governments. There is also a party in favor of an adjustment upon the basis of impartial suffrage and universal amnesty.—There is another party that has declared in favor of enforcing the constitutional amendment as soon as it shall be ratified by three-fourths of the loyal States. But this last scheme is met by the objection that the terms of the new article proposed as an amendment, recognize the authority of the several excluded States for the purpose of accepting or rejecting it.

All these, and perhaps other plans are to be discussed at this session, but, as it is thought, will be turned over to the next Congress. It is no doubt that a bill will be enacted concerning the fourth Congress at an earlier day than usual. Members will be loath to spend their salaries here, but they can make no excuse to the country for leaving it in a chaotic state.

The Richmond Enquirer, a judicious paper, says:

The programme there marked out, will hardly be carried out. The President is bound by his oath to maintain the State governments in their just rights, and any attempt to abolish them by Congress as proposed by the caucus, would necessitate a collision. Besides the North is directly interested against such wicked folly. The injury it would inflict upon us, would not weigh a moment we know; but Heaven has mercy when man has none, and has so ordered it that outrage and anarchy cannot be visited here, without reacting at the North, and working disaster there. The sensible men of the North desire peace as well as we, and enough of them will refuse to concur in this new programme of distraction and turmoil, to throw the agitators into a minority. So we believe. Stevens, by his wild cavortings, will break his own neck.

News From Fortress Monroe.

FORTRESS MONROE, Nov. 23. C. O. Clay leaves here for Petersburg in the morning. Mrs. Clay went North to-night.

H. Rives-Polard and J. Marshall Hanna, formerly of the Richmond Examiner, arrived here to-day, on a visit to Jefferson Davis, but were refused admission into the fortress.

GENERAL SHERMAN'S MISSION AS VIEWED BY THE LONDON TIMES.—General Sherman has been seen on an extraordinary mission to Mexico. Everybody is asking what he is going to do there. There need be but little mystery about his business. The United States mean to do not only the French coup, but Maximilian himself, out of Mexico, and to lend all the support they can give to the government of Juarez. This may be very impudent on the part of America, and very fatal to the prospects of Mexico; but there is, in our day, nobody strong or reckless enough to give a decided "No" to American dictation.—The London Sunday Times Nov. 18.

THE WESTERN CORN CRUP.—The Chicago Republican says: "We have met and talked with farmers representing nearly the entire corn region affected by frost, and the uniform testimony is that the crop is depreciated fully one-third. Its value, if not the aggregate amount, is so depreciated."

PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY.—The General Assembly in session at Memphis, after the long and interesting debate on the relations of the freedmen to the church, finally decided, by a unanimous vote, that they should be received into full fellowship in the church, and on equal grounds as brothers in Christ.

A Washington dispatch to the Boston Post says: "Thad. Stevens is in very bad health, and his nearest friends express a fear that he is failing. He has begun to limit the attendance at his impromptu receptions, and refuses to talk upon existing political topics."

Bishop Cox, of Western New York, threatens to refuse ordination to any candidate for orders who holds the Doctrines of Dr. Pusey's Eirenicon. But the Church Journal says: "We told him plainly that he dare not do it." He knows that he dare not do it.

ALABAMA.—INTEGRAL SUFFRAGE.—In the Alabama House of Representatives, on the 1st inst. Mr. Brooks presented a bill to alter the constitution of the State so as to admit of conditional negro suffrage. The conditions are that the voter shall possess property to the amount of two hundred dollars, and shall be able to read the constitution of the State and the United States, and write a legible hand. The conditions also to hold good in the case of white men.

Mr. Brooks was closely identified with the Confederate cause, having expended his last dollar in its support, and in presenting the bill he said he did so as a measure of policy and for the public good.

After an exciting debate the bill was tabled.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Our Wednesday Morning Dispatches.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4. The House of Representatives to-day adopted a resolution inquiring into the expediency of repealing the cotton tax.

Mr. Broome, of Pa., also offered a resolution which was adopted by a vote of 107 to 87, instructing the committee on territories to enquire into the propriety of extending territorial organization over the States lately in insurrection.

Mr. Stevens offered a resolution for the appointment of a committee of five to report to the House at its next session the past and present relations existing between the general government and the railroads in the States lately in rebellion, the amount of money expended in constructing, repairing, equipping and managing such roads; the amount now due each one of them to the government; also as to the course to be taken by the government in relation to said roads.

The joint committee on reconstruction is reviewed. The House committee on the judiciary have reported against repealing so much of the confiscation act as prohibits the forfeiture of the real estate of the included classes, beyond the terms of their natural lives. They say to forfeit altogether the property of those engaged in the late rebellion would be the enactment of a new law within the meaning of the constitutional interdiction, by annexing to a crime already committed a new and additional punishment.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4. The heads of Bureaus of the Treasury Department, have joined in a letter to the House Committee on Ways and Means, urging the passage of the bill prepared at the last session for the reorganization of that Department.

New York Markets.

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

New York Market.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5. Cotton, quiet at 24 1/2-25 1/2 middling uplands; Flour, corn, pork, lard, whiskey &c., all dull and drooping. Gold 139 1/2, Exchange 24 1/2, at sight. P. S. Still lower. Gold had gone down to 139 1/2. Railroad stocks depressed by means of probable stringency in many markets, by the disinclination of the public in stocks.

Canadian Matters.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5. A private letter received at Montreal, states that the only surviving descendant of Christopher Columbus will shortly visit America.

A large number of French Canadians are returning from the U. States to Canada for want of employment.

It is reported that secret Fenian meetings have been held at St. Albans, but nothing serious is anticipated.

At Toronto, a man named McDewitt, from New Brunswick, has been arrested for using seditious language, daring the government to hang the Fenians.

Members from Nebraska.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5. The Senators and Representatives from Nebraska have arrived. They will present their State Constitution and memorial asking for admission. An act will have to be passed for this purpose.

Latest from Congress.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5. The Senate adopted the standing committee's agreed upon by Republican members in caucus to-day. They remain as they were, except that Messrs. Doollittle, Cowan and Dixon were removed from their positions. No committees are now headed by friends of the administration.

Mr. Wade introduced a bill for the admission of Nebraska into the Union. Laid on the table for the present.

The committee for the session were announced. Mr. Williams introduced a resolution instructing the committee on retrenchments to inquire to what extent the President has right to restore confiscated property under the laws of the U. S. and if such law exists to what extent it can be executed, &c. Adopted.

Mr. Trumbull moved the reference of the bill for the repeal of the President's amnesty power, to the committee on the Judiciary. This gave rise to a debate, at the conclusion of which the bill was referred.

Mr. Sumner offered the resolutions on reconstruction, of which he gave notice yesterday. They assert the right of Congress over the subject of reconstruction, and deny the right of the lately rebellious States to pass upon constitutional amendments. Read and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Williams, of Pa., called up the bill of last session for the regulation of appointments to and removals from office, and addressed the House in advocacy of it.

Colorado Jewett.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5. Colorado Jewett is out in a memorial to Congress insisting that Hannibal Hamlin is the proper representative and successor of Mr. Lincoln, upon the ground that the election of Mr. Lincoln at his last term and Mr. Johnson, were not legally elected, because eleven of the States appointed no Electors. He urges the Congress therefore, to place Mr. Hamlin in position, upon the ground that he is the only legal officer, who of right is President.

Reputation in Mississippi meets with few advocates. General Rufus Davis, who made himself notorious by the former unfortunate action of that State, is again urging the people to another scheme of repudiation, but he meets with no favor.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIE'S is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with one or two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most stubborn cases with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast expelling all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggie's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the so-called remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggie's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggie's Pills will suffice to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Gouty and convulsive diseases are literally extinguished by the distinctive power of Maggie's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggie's Pills cure Rheumatism, Dyspepsia and all other ailments where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggie's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MACGEE, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

DOCTOR GARDNER. Principal Office, 48 West Broadway, New York. For references, Testimonials, &c., send for a CIRCULAR.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS. The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and success in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured, or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear."

The Richmond Times says: "We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most scientific and successful eye and ear surgeon in this country. Dr. Gardner's treatment of the eye and ear is wonderful."—Richmond Enquirer.

"We feel justified in recommending Doctor Gardner to those suffering from diseases of the eye and ear."—Richmond Whig.

"We can safely and cordially recommend Dr. Gardner, who will fulfill all the undertakings to perform."—Baltimore Clipper.

The New Orleans True Delta says: "We can safely recommend Dr. Gardner as a successful operator on the eye and ear. He will not undertake to treat a case unless a cure can be effected."

The Wheeling Register says: "Dr. Gardner is one of the most successful Oculists and Aurists in the country. His eye and ear sufferings from the diseases of the eye and ear to consult him." Oct. 12-14
