THE BANK OF WASHINGTON, In the Town of Washington, North Carolina. TO ALL ITS CREDITORS.

WHEREAS, the said bank has resolved to appropriate all the assets and to close its business under the charter rights and franchises, in conformity to the provisions of an act of the General Assembly of the State, entitled "an act to enable the Bank of this State to close their business," passed the 12th day of March, A. D. 1866. And the said bank has filed its bill of complaint in the Court of Equity, held for the county of Washington, on the 21st day of March, after the fourth Monday of September, A. D. 1866, at the said Court of Washington, against the creditors of the said bank, for the purpose and objects aforesaid. And the said Court, after the hearing of said bill and consideration of the same, ordered that JOHN G. BLOUNT be, and he is by the decree of said Court, appointed, Commissioner or Receiver of all the real and personal estate of the said bank, and that there be vested in him, also, all the rights of action which the said bank had or has, including all debts due to said bank or to any person for its use, and all claims and securities thereof, and in all things to be vested with the same power and authority which the said bank now has or had, at the time of the filing of their said bill, and the said John G. BLOUNT has executed a bond in the required sum, conditioned for his fulfilling the duties and trusts enjoined and imposed in him, and has entered on his office, as such Commissioner, at the bank building, owned by said bank, in the said town of Washington aforesaid. And the said Court has also ordered and decreed that the General Assembly of said Court, advertising in the several newspapers, as mentioned in said act of Assembly, notifying all the creditors of said bank of the filing of this bill, and that they prefer and establish their claims and demands against the said bank before the said Commissioner, within twelve months from the time of this decree, and that they apply for and take benefit under the said act, and stand as defined in all matters concerning their interests in the same. In witness, MATTHEW SHAW, Clerk and Master of said Court, at the said town of Washington, in the County of Washington and in the State of North Carolina, this 10th day of December, A. D. 1866. HILLSBORO MILITARY ACADEMY. This well known and popular Institution is once more in successful operation, and is prepared for the reception of Cadets at any time. It is under the direction of GEN. R. E. COLSTON, a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war.) Professor of the Virginia MILITARY INSTITUTE, and a colleague of STONEWALL JACKSON. The course of the Institution is that of the Virginia Military Institute, and is such as to make the Academy a POLYTECHNIC SCHOOL. A school of theoretical and applied sciences, in which Logic and Rhetoric also receive a due share of attention. The discipline and instructions are on a high and practical basis. The Faculty is for the present organized as follows: Superintendent and Professor of Military Instruction, Colonel GEORGE H. COLTON, late Professor of French, and of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy at the Virginia Military Institute, and late Brig. General, C. S. A. Used the appointment of additional Professors, Gen. COLTON takes charge of the Department of French and English studies and Belles Lettres. Professor of Natural and Experimental Philosophy, Chemistry and Instruction of Artillery tactics, Major D. TRUMBULL, Graduate of the Virginia Military Institute in 1860, afterwards Assistant Professor of the U. S. Military Institute, attached to the United States Coast Survey, late Major and Chief of Artillery in the C. S. Army. Professor of Mathematics, Civil and Military Engineering, Architecture, Topographical and Industrial Drawing, and Assistant Professor of Industry tactics, Major W. A. OBENCHKIN, "first distinguished Graduate" of the Class in the Virginia Military Institute, and a graduate of the Virginia Military Academy, and late Chief of Artillery to Hardee's Corps. Professor of Latin, French, Ethics and Belles Lettres, to be appointed shortly. Surgeon Major R. E. W. S. STREBBER, New appointments will be made for the purpose of filling the vacant places in the Academy, which will be published in due season. Candidates for admission as Cadets are advised to come without delay. Until the 1st of February next, all those Cadets present at the Academy, will be published forward in their studies irrespective of classes, so as to enable them, at that time, to enter the most advanced classes for which they may be found qualified, by coming at once they may gain an entire year in the term of their education. For circulars and any other information apply to Gen. R. E. COLSTON, Sup't Hillsboro Military Academy. Dec 20-17

FOR SALE. ONE THOUSAND ACRES of valuable land, lying on both sides of the N. C. R. R. Road, between a millfield and Stallings Depot. I prefer anyone who will take on one man, but will give it to any one who will take on two men. To a company of men wishing small farms and pleasant healthy locations, it holds out good inducements, as I will sell on favorable terms. Persons wishing to examine the land, and coming by Rail Road, can be put up at the Care at Wilson's Mill, where they will always find me. I will also furnish them with teams, wagons, and all appliances. N. M. VINSON. Oct 6-20-17
