THE SENTINEL.

Saturday, January 26, 1867.

A Short Sermon from a Hard-Shell Baptist Preacher.

"There's nine men standin' at the dore, and they all sed they'd take shugar in ther'n."

Sich, friends and brethering, was the talk, in a wurldly cents, wunst common in this our sin-shunt land; but the dais is gone by, and the suns run dry, and no man can say to his naber, hoo art thou, man, and will you take any more shugar in your kaughey?

But the words of our tex has a difrunt and more perticklerer meenin than this. Thar they stood at the dore on a cold wintur's mornin, two Babtists and two Methdiss and five Lutharians, and the tother one was a publican. And they all with one vois sed they wouldn't dirty thir feet in a dram shop, but if the publikin would go and git the drinks they'd pay for 'em. And they all cried out and every man sed, "I'll take mine with shugar, for it won't feel good to drink the stuff without sweetnin." So the publikin he marched in, and the barkeeper sed, "What want ye?" and he answered and sed, "A drink." "How will ye have it?" "Plane and straight," says he, "for it ain't no use wasting shuger to circumsalivate akafortis. But there's nine more a standin at the dore, and they all sed they'd take shugar in ther'n."

Friends and brethering, it aint only the licker of sperits that is drunk in this rounderbout and underhand way, but it is licker of all sorts of human wickednis in like manner. Thar's the licker of malis, that many uv you drinks to the drugs, but yure sure to sweeten it with the shugar of self justification. Thar's the licker of avaris that sum keeps behind the curtain for constant use, but they always has it well mixed with the sweetnin of prudence and ekonimy.—Thar's the licker of self-luv that some men drinks by the gallon, but they always puts in lots uv the shugar uv take keer No. 1. And lastly, thar's the licker uv extorshun, which the man sweetens accordin to cirkumstances. If he's in the flour line, he'll say the pore'll be better off eatin korn bread; if he's in the cloth line, why it's a good thing to larn 'em tu make their cloth at home; if he's in the lether line, it'll larn 'em the needcessity of taking better keer uv shoes. "And thar's nine more a standing at the dore, and they all sed they'd take shugar in ther'n."

But friends and brethering, thar's a time cuming and a place fixing, whefe thar'll be no "standin at the dore" to call for "shugar in ther'n." But they'll have to go rite in and take the drink square up to the front; and the barkeeper'll be old Satun and nobody else; and he'll give them "shugar in ther'n" you'd better believe it, and it'll be shugar of led, and red hot led at that, as sure as your name's Conshunce Dodger. And you'll be entitled to your rashuns three times a day, if not more frequentlier, and if you dont like it you'll have to lump it, and so may the old Nick close down upon all oour silk palverin around the plane ole pools of brotherly luv, and ginirosity and feller-feelin, and fair play! Amen.

Registered Letters.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune says:

The contemplated changes in the method of registering letters will go into effect as soon as the instructions, blanks, &c., can be forwarded to the several postal offices. The new regulations require that registered letters shall not be sent "direct" when a distributing office is located on a route between the mailing office and the office of destination, and they are never to be sent except inclosed in one of the "registered package envelopes" furnished by the Department to all postoffices. Every person connected with the service, through whose hands a "registered package envelope" shall pass in transmission is required to make a record of the number, &c., of the same in the book or blank sheet provided for that purpose, and also to take a receipt for it from the person to whom he delivers it, in all cases where it is practicable. The registration fee is in all cases to be paid in postage stamps to be attached to the letter and cancelled at the mailing office. The full postage upon all registered letters whether foreign or domestic, must be prepaid by stamps. The registration fees are as follows:

On domestic letters to any part of the United States or Territories, twenty cents each; on letters addressed to England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales and the Island of Jamaica, twenty cents each; on letters addressed to Canada, five cents each; on letters addressed to Germany, or any part of the German-Austrian postal union, the same to be forwarded by "Bremen and Hamburg" line, or by the "Prussian closed mail," five cents each.

The "bill" of the registered letter and the letter itself are to be sent separately, and in case of loss the special agent of the Department and the Department itself are to be at once notified, and the loss ferreted out if possible. The Department has made every effort possible to insure the safety of registered letters, but it recommends the use of the money order system, when practicable.

A GOOD POINT—BUTLER AGAIN.—In the House of Representatives on Wednesday, referring to Mr. Boutwell's remark that he wished to preserve the Supreme Court from the contamination of traitors, Mr. Finck said that three-fourths of the eminent lawyers of the country would vastly prefer being associated with Alexander H. Stephens than with the distinguished gentleman from Massachusetts (Benjamin F. Butler.) The gentleman (Mr. Boutwell) ought to remember that not over a year ago the Lieutenant General of the United States army entertained Mr. Stephens as an invited guest at a public reception, and that men on the other side of the chamber (Mr. Boutwell among them) had taken him by the hand. Was General Grant and were those gentlemen contaminated by the presence of Mr. Stephens? He gave them his deliberate judgment that the principles of the dominant party in Congress were not in conformity with the principles of the Constitution and of the Government, and hence the efforts of that party to change the Constitution and to invade the jurisdiction of the executive and the judiciary.

A SHORT FOR RICHMOND.—A Yankee "schoolmarm" was seen walking down Broad street yesterday afternoon, in broad daylight, arm in arm with a black buck negro. Let's have a committee of investigation from Washington.—Rich. Dispatch.

Having been appointed agent for the above Company, I respectfully call the attention of the citizens of this section of North Carolina, to the fact that this is a Southern Company with an authorized Capital of $500,000. It's business is ably conducted, by influential, reliable and wealthy citizens of Tennessee.

It has the finest references, and has always been exceedingly prompt in its payments, as can be shown by its records, being sustained by wealthy gentlemen.

It takes both Life and Fire risks on same as low as any Eastern Company.

This Company is just being introduced into its sister State and I hope it will be well patronized.

Let us support and encourage each other and keep all our money at home.

No one is obliged now to go North to get himself or his property insured, as he can be accommodated here by a company of greatest reliability.

SUBSCRIPTION.—The terms of subscription have been made so low and reasonable as to place it within the reach of all who may desire it; and in view of the great interests to be served by an extensive circulation, we confidently expect the hearty co-operations of many in those sections of the country not now supplied with a good Agricultural Journal.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.—For a single copy one year $1.00.

CLUB RATES.—Five copies one year for $3.00; ten copies one year for $25.00; fifteen copies one year for $37.00; twenty copies one year for $48.00; twenty-five copies one year for $60.00; and larger clubs in the same proportion.

To secure the advantages of these liberal terms, the clubs must be complete at the time of subscription, and the money accompany the order.

It is not required that all the subscribers to a club shall receive THE FARMER at one office. If necessary it will be mailed under the club arrangement to as many different offices as there are subscribers to the club.
